

Church Calendar

St. Andrew's Episcopal
Communion services will convene at 7:45 a.m. Sunday. The morning prayer services featured by Rev. John N. Peabody's sermon will start at 10:45 a.m. An informal party at which the old students will greet the new will take place in the church rectory, 304 S. Frazier Street, immediately following the mass convocation in Schwab Auditorium, Sunday night.

Lutheran
An informal get-together will get under way, with the new students meeting the upper-classmen, at the close of the Schwab Auditorium convocation, Sunday night. Beginning the following Sunday, regular Bible study classes will meet for students each Sunday morning.

St. Paul's Methodist
Class seminars in religion will assemble at the student center, 258 E. College Avenue, 9:30 a.m. Sunday. Sanctuary services will begin at 10:45 a.m. Freshmen and new students will meet with the old at Wesley Foundation after the Schwab gathering, Sunday night. A preview of things to come will feature the program, with moving pictures, refreshments, and introduction to the members of the Foundation's executive committee.

Presbyterian
An informal Open House will convene in the Fireside Room, Westminster Foundation, 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. There will be group singing and refreshments. An informal Student Department meeting will convene in the Fireside Room, 9:30 a.m. Sunday. At 6:20 p.m. the Westminster Fellowship will meet. Following the religious activities mass meeting in Schwab Auditorium, another open house will convene at Westminster Foundation.

Hillel Foundation
A ten-day period of introspection and prayer will begin tonight with the Jewish New Year Services conducted by Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn at Hillel Foundation, commencing at 8 p.m. Rabbi Kahn will preach on "The Future of Judaism in America." Nathan Feinstein, student president, will extend greetings to new members of the Foundation. Mr. Cvi Caspi of Israel will assist Rabbi Kahn by chanting all the services of the Holy Days.

Saturday morning services will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until noon. Prof. Clifford Nelson will chant the reading of the scriptures. Rabbi Kahn will speak on "The Birthday of the World." Services will also convene at 6:30 p.m. Saturday and 5:15 p.m. Sunday.

Sunday's 9:30 a.m. services will begin with Elliot Krane's blowing of the Shofar, the ram's horn which calls to the conscience of man as a reminder of man's duty to God and fellow-man. The sermon is entitled "Foundations for the Future."

A New Year Reception and Open House is scheduled from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday with members of the Avodah Society of State College and Bellefonte as hostesses.

IFC Appoints Housing Aide

For the past several years the close of Orientation Week has brought with it a problem in housing for fraternities and their Orientation Week guests.

To aid the men who have been guests and who want to move into dormitory rooms and those who have been staying in the dorms or in private homes and wish to enter fraternity houses, IFC has appointed a housing officer to work in close conjunction with the Dean of Men's Office.

Fraternities wishing to remove men from dorms or place other men in them at the end of the week are urged by IFC President Peter Giesey to contact the IFC housing officer, who is Luke Rice, and may be contacted by telephoning 4246.

Dr. Kistler To Address Initial Fall Chapel Service

Dr. Raymon Kistler, president of Beaver College, Jenkintown, will speak at the first chapel service of the fall semester in Schwab Auditorium at 11 a.m. Sunday, according to James T. Smith, acting College chaplain.

A frequent visitor to the campus and chapel speaker, Dr. Kistler has chosen as his topic "Our Present Need."

The service, non-denominational in character is attended by a large number of students and members of the faculty representing many creeds and faiths.

Tradition
"The College Chapel is one of the outstanding traditions of the College, and all new students are especially invited Sunday morning," Mr. Smith said.

George E. Ceiga, assistant professor of music and chapel organist, will present selections from the works of Bach and Rheinberger throughout the service.

Pennsylvanian
Dr. Kistler, a native Pennsylvanian, received both the bachelor of arts and bachelor of divinity degrees from Westminster College, and has also been conferred with the honorary degrees of doctor of laws and doctor of divinity.

He has traveled in Europe, Africa and Palestine, and has served in his present position since 1940.

Flash-Card Sophs Needed

The first 720 sophomore men to fill section NF in the curve of the U-shaped Beaver Field stands Saturday will make up Penn State's 1949 card-flashing section.

Tom Morgan, hat societies president, and Dick Clair, head cheerleader, last night urged sophomore men to fill section NF before 12:30 p.m., so they may be organized by hatmen and cheerleaders who will act as row captains. Row captains who will greet the sophomores have been chosen from ranks of Skull and Bones, Parmi Nous and Blue Key, campus hat societies.
