

Army Train Reservations Open Monday

Reservations for the special student train to the Army-Penn State football game at West Point October 1 may be made at the ticket windows of the Athletic Association beginning Monday. The hours for the sale, which will continue until Thursday, are from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon, and from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Railroad officials announce that 350 reservations must be made to guarantee the train.

The fare for the round trip reservation is set at $15.15 and the railroad guarantees air-conditioned coaches. Also, as a bonus, a ticket to a radio broadcast program in New York is offered.

The starting time of the trip was set for 11 p.m. Friday, September 30, arriving in West Point at 9:20 a.m. Saturday. The train will leave West Point after the game at 5 p.m., arrive in Weehauken at 6:20 p.m., leave the Pennsylvania Station in New York at 3 a.m. Sunday, October 2, and arrive in State College at 11 a.m.

There are 250 admission tickets to the Army game that are available for new sophomores and freshmen. These are priced at $4 each and can be bought at the Athletic Association ticket windows in Old Main beginning Monday.

Juniors, seniors and 1949 graduates who ordered tickets last May for the Army game should have received them by now.

(Continued from page one) men at the meeting was James Lindemann, who explained the Association of Independent Men. He pointed out that, for the first time this year, a social program is being set up which will correspond to the program of IFC.

Rose Eifert, representing independent women, explained Leonides, association for independent women. She made it clear that all new girls on campus automatically became members of Leonides and continue to be members as long as they do not go sorority.

Outlines Publications

Thomas Morgan, editor of the Daily Collegian, in outlining student publications, said, "One of the best ways for new students to learn about Penn State, all its activities, and what makes it tick, is to try out for a publication. He said that in promotion on all college publications interest counts more than ability.

President of the Woman's Student Government Association, Shirley Gauger, stressed the fact that it is very important that women take an active interest in student government.

Voice of Tribunal

Robert Keller, chairman of the Student Tribunal, told about the Tribunal and Judicial.

Although the Tribunal will make fines, Keller said, it is primarily set up to prevent second offenses.

'Took Five Minutes'

Because of the bigness of the project and the speed with which it must have been accomplished, Mark tends to believe that it was the work of a group, rather than just one or two persons.

"If enough fellows were in on the job, it might have been accomplished in about five minutes," he said.

Since its dedication in 1941, the Lion Shrine has not missed a year without being painted at least once. Several years it was painted twice.

PSCA To Sponsor Religious Meeting
