

Big-Little Sisters Asked to Report

All new women students who have not heard from an upper-class big sister and all big sisters who have misplaced the names of their assigned little sisters should contact Anna Keller, WSGA town senator, in 109 McElwain Hall, Miss Keller stated.

All new women have been assigned big sisters and if they have not as yet been contacted it is probably because of misplaced names or other circumstances, Miss Keller added. Both parties will be notified of their respective sisters or reassigned when they have reported.

According to a Panhellenic ruling, passed last year, big and little sisters may have contact with each other during the rushing period. If, however, the contacts are used exclusively for rushing purposes, a penalty may be invoked.

agencies, said that plans are almost complete for a dry cleaning service for students on campus. Other agencies, he added, are in the planning stage.

Now in its second year, the Student News Agency was organized through the efforts of Al Reece, supervisor of the student employment office, Oscar Fleisher, Meconi, and Reinheimer.

"Since the news agency is an integral part of the student employment office," Reinheimer explained, "any student desiring to work for the agency should apply at that office at the first opportunity."
