

First Sorority Rushing Period Begins Today With Registration

Registration for the first formal sorority rushing period will be held today from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Monday from 8 a.m. to noon in the dean of women's office, according to the Panhellenic rushing schedule.

Coeds desiring to be rushed are reminded by Delores Jelacic, president of Panhel, that a $1.00 fee must be paid at registration before a girl may be considered a rushee. Only women who have a 1.00 All-College average and have been on the College campus one semester or at a State Teachers' College as a Penn State freshman can be rushed.

Open Houses marking the beginning of the actual rushing period will start at 2 p.m. Saturday as the first of a series of three Open Houses is held. A detailed list of sorority groupings and alphabetical groupings will be printed in a later issue of Collegian.

At a Panhel meeting on Tuesday night the Council decided against a motion to change open houses to another date because of the Army game. A proposed change in the rushing schedule, which moves formal coffee hours from Saturday, October 15, to Sunday, October 16, requires a special vote by all sororities before Panhel delegates may decide the issue.

A second special meeting of the Council to vote on this question was called by Miss Jelacic for 6:30 tonight in the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority suite.

Miss Jelacic has requested that sorority members and rushees please observe the following rules during the rushing period: No men may be used in rushing; no cars may be used except for coffee hours; contact with rushees must cease at the hour specified in the rules; contact with WSGA little sisters and relative sisters may continue as long as the sorority member is not accompanied by a sorority sister.
