

Minor Law

As each semester arrives, it brings a new crop of incoming students now of progressively younger age. As the ratio of veterans dwindles, more faces fresh out of high school are seen. The old-time Rah-Rah spirit of the College will be revived. An attempt to bring back the customs on the sophs shows the trend.

EVERY YEAR NEW problems arise, and every year local tap rooms must engage in guessing games. They must decide whether a person is entering the establishment for the atmosphere or to buy. Then they must guess again about his age.

This year, cards have been provided to innkeepers by the State Liquor Control Board to protect them should they fail in the guessing game.

The law declares that any person disregarding the "No Minors Allowed" sign on the door is liable to a fine of $100 or 30 days in jail. A person whose age is doubted will be asked to fill out and sign a card stating he is at least 21. A witness must sign it and the student's matriculation number must be given. The cards are filed and checked by proper authorities.

FOR MANY STUDENTS coming to a campus, some for their first stay away from home, the situation is much the same as the problem of the swaggering young servicemen fresh out of the high school. Drinking is a problem at any campus. To keep students from driving to Bellefonte and limit automobile accidents to a minimum, beer has been allowed to remain. Those who enjoy a bull session over a glass of foam now and then are eternally grateful.

But the minor law must be obeyed. A tavern owner will not risk his license by selling alcoholic beverages to those he doubts are of legal age. At the same time the cards are to protect the one desiring to buy. If he cannot prove his age, or will not sign the card, he will be asked to leave.

But once you sign that card, they have you.

—Bill Dickson

"Keep A Sharp Eye On Those Revolutionists"

Gleaned From Prints

By AL RYAN

10 YEARS AGO

Freshmen wore "Beat Bucknell" placards this week, ten years ago, as the Nittany Lions prepared for the season's football opener. "As an additional boost to promoting collegiate spirit for the game," frosh were required to wear the signs throughout the week and at the game. Made available free of charge at the Athletic Store on Co-op corner, the signs were not to be sold. Any student charged with selling such signs was subject to call before Student Tribunal.

PLANS FOR CHANGING the name of the College to the Pennsylvania State University were being held up pending a revision of the College charter, ten years ago. The College Board of Trustees had been studying the matter since it was proposed by Gov. George H. Earle almost 19 months before.

Favorable action was expected from the Trustees, although they had never indicated approval or disapproval of the plan. A special committee of the body was set up to consider the question with Col. J. Franklin Shields, then president of the Board, in charge.

"APPROXIMATELY three-fourths of a mile of new walks have been added to the campus to help students comply with the request of President Hetzel to "keep off the grass," George W. Ebert, Superintendent of Grounds and Buildings, announced ten years ago.

The walks are part of a campaign to repair damage done to the campus by the building program here, Mr. Ebert explained.

Gazette

Wednesday, October 5

LAVIE Senior Board, 412 Old Main, 6:50 p.m.
LAVIE Candidates (A-M), 412 Old Main, 6:50 p.m.

LAVIE Candidates (N-Z), 412 Old Main, 7:15 p.m.

PI LAMBDA SIGMA, 409 Old Main, 7 p.m.

PENN STATE Flying Club, 3 CH, 7 p.m.

WRA Badminton, Outing, and Modern Dance Clubs, White Hall, 7 p.m.

COLLEGIAN Business Senior Board, business manager's office, 7 p.m.

COLLEGIAN Sophomore Board, 8 CH, 7:30 p.m.

COLLEGE HOSPITAL

Admitted Monday: Margaret Strop.
Admitted Tuesday: Jack Rath, Charles Hamner, John Kricher.

AT THE MOVIES

CATHAUM—Once More, My Darling.
STATE—Impact.
NITTANY—Hamlet.

With The Staff

Football talk on Graham's Bench . . . State's human battering-ram Francis (Rogy) Rogel was fanning the breeze with a bunch of the boys outside of Graham's the other day.

Commenting upon the Villanova contest, last Saturday, Franny joked, "looks like I'm going to have to start going around the ends; the center of that line is starting to get awful hard."

A bevy of beauties in Mac Hall. Three of five girls vying for Penn State Freshmen Queen last spring, Rose Larson, Shirley Long, and Pat Bowles are housed there.

The Latest Fad—"hampsters" in the women's dormitories. Screams from ma coer in the form brought other anxious gals to investigate the cause. The cause was a hamster, wee furry animal in the closet.

Proud of the price? Third graders in Bellefonte presented their new teacher, Lucille Phillips, student teacher from the College with a handkerchief the first day of class. All the class must have "chipped in" on the gift—and proud of their purchase they left the 15 cent price tag on the handkerchief.

A reverse play on Roth's Grips. Instead of a complaint about the College coed, the opposite was true when a gal came in from her date Saturday night and reported to her cronies: "He was all right, but the movie was better."

The Daily Collegian

Successor to THE FREE LANCE, est. 1887

Published Tuesday through Saturday mornings inclusive during the College year by the staff of the Pennsylvania State College.

Represented for national advertising by National Advertising Service, Madison Ave., New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco.

Entered as second-class matter July 5, 1934, at the State College, Pa., Post Office under the act of March 3, 1879.

Editor Tom Morgan Business Manager Marlin A. Weaver

STAFF THIS ISSUE

Night Editor . . . . . Janet Rosen
Assistant Night Editor . . . . . Harry Endres
Copy Editor . . . . . Stan Degler
Assistants . . . . . Ronald Bonn, Robert Vosburg, George Glazer.
Advertising Staff . . Winnie Wyant, Laura Mermelstein, Norma Gleghorn, Judy Krakower.

THE PENN STATE CLASS RING

made by Balfour . . . sold by Balfour

at the

BALFOUR BRANCH OFFICE

LOCATED IN ATHLETIC STORE

VISIT US IN OUR NEW LOCATION

LP's—All Labels

45's—

LATEST POPS

BOP

DIXIE

Book & Record Shop

218 East College

Greeting Cards

Lending Library

a first!
THERE HAS NEVER BEEN A MOTION PICTURE LIKE...

The Red Shoes

COLOR BY TECHNICOLOR!

PRESENTED BY J. ARTHUR RANK
AN EAGLE LION FILMS RELEASE

RIVOLI THEATRE
Logan & Baker Blvd.
Altoona, Pa.

Mat. 2:30
Eve. 8:30

STUDENT PRICES

Matinee . . . 90c

Evening . . . $1.00

Taxes Included

OCT. 5TH TO 11TH

RESERVED SEATS AT ALL PERFORMANCES!
MAIL ORDERS NOW