

Panhel Changes Schedule; Rushing Held Tonight

Contrary to the printed rushing schedule in the Panhellenic Guidebook, formal rushing will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock tonight, Gilda Creco, Panhel rushing chairman, and Delores Jelacic, president, stated.

Any girl who received coke date invitations from sororities for yesterday and today and who did not sign up for tonight may call any one of those sororities this afternoon to make a date for 6:30 to 7:30 tonight.

Silent period, scheduled to begin at 5 p.m. today will start instead at 7:30 p.m. and last until 2 p.m. Sunday when "At Homes" will be held by the sororities.

"At Home" Invitations

Invitations to the "At Homes" must be issued through the Panhellenic Post Office on standardized forms provided by the Panhellenic Post Office. They must be turned in at the Post Office in the central lounge of Women's Building by 10 o'clock this morning.

Coke cards for Monday and Tuesday, October 6 and 7, must be turned in at 8 a.m. this morning. Both "At Home" invitations and coke cards may be picked up by rushees from 1 to 5 p.m. today. Answers to these invitations should be returned to the Post Office from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. tomorrow and picked up by the sororities at 1 p.m.

Each sorority will hold one "At Home" from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Each rushee may stay no longer than one hour at any one sorority and she may not re-visit the same sorority that afternoon. Sororities may give no favors or have planned entertainment. All "At Homes" will be held at the same locations as the open houses.

Party Invitations

Invitations for parties on Monday must be turned in at the Post Office at 8 a.m. tomorrow. Rushees pick up these invitations from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Miss Ella Mae Jackson, assistant to the dean of women and advisor to Panhellenic Council, reminds rushees that all invitations must be answered and that it is particularly important that "At Home" invitations be answered.

Big-Little Sisters To Receive Cards

Women students who have inquired about their big and little sisters will be notified soon as to their respective sisters, Anna Keller, WSGA town senator in charge of the Big-Little sister distribution, stated.

Postcards reminding upperclassmen of their little sister's name will be sent out while information naming big sisters to girls who have inquired about the matter and who have not as yet heard from any upperclass women will also be sent.

The system devised by WSGA is not a compulsory one, Miss Keller added, and depends on the cooperation of all upperclass women who are assigned little sisters.

WRA Organizes Intramural Sports

Plans are now being completed for the formation of WRA swimming, hockey, and basketball teams.

At the recent WRA Intramural Board meeting, Betty Lou Jones, IM chairman, urged the representatives to report to her before Sunday as to whether there would be enough in each representative's unit to make up a team or teams of basketball. The chairman asked that any girls interested in playing should see their representative before the weekend.

Swimming teams are to be formed shortly and hockey is now under way.

At the executive board meeting of WRA on Wednesday it was decided to print a new WRA handbook under Mary Ellen Grube, publicity chairman.

The club activities program started this week. On Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. the WRA club presidents will meet with Mary Ann Krepps, WRA club chairman, to discuss future plans.

Young ladies were not allowed to receive visits from gentlemen in the parlor or elsewhere in 1883 without permission from the lady principal, according to the Frosh Bible.

Judicial Sets Up Frosh Customs Board; Lightner Appointed As Chairman

A Freshman Customs Board has been set up by Judicial for the first time in three years. Jessica Lightner, a junior at the College and a member of Judicial, will be chairman of the Board.

Other members of the board are sophomores elected by their respective living units. They are Eleanor Miller, Women's Building; Barbara Klopp, Cottages; Jane Steiber, Simmons; Janet Brown, McAllister; and Emma Jean Way, McElwain. Connie Croushore, Judicial head, will act as advisory member.

The Board has set up a "tap system." Under this method if an upperclassman woman sees the same freshman coed commit two offences against the regulations of the Freshman Customs Board, she is to report the name of the girl and her two offences to a member of the Freshman Customs Board who will then act according to the seriousness of the violation.

Freshman Regulations
1. During the first three weeks of classes there will be absolutely no association with men. This period which began on September 28 will exist until October 19. During this period freshman women must be in their dormitories by 9:15 on week nights and by 9:30 p.m. on weekends.

2. Following the three-week no-dating period, freshman women may have three dates per weekend. One one o'clock and one ten o'clock will be granted, to be taken either Friday or Saturday night. Friday and Saturday dates may begin at noon. Freshman may date on Sunday until 5:30 p.m.

a) On week days, freshmen women may associate with men until 5:30 p.m.
b) During and following the three-week no-dating period there will be no dating for athletic games. Freshmen must wear customs to all athletic events.

3. No member of the upperclasses has the privilege to grant immunities to freshmen.

Freshman Women's Customs

1. The ribbons for freshman women will be green and their measurements will be three inches in width and three-quarters of a yard in length. Regulation name cards must be worn in plain sight until the date Judicial sets for their removal.

2. With the exception of Holmes Field, all freshmen shall keep off the grass until Move-Up Day, set when Judicial signifies.

4. When an older person or an upperclass woman comes into the room, all freshman girls must rise.

5. On Move-Up Day a freshman celebration will mark the removal of freshman regulations.

The first regular national fraternity to be established at the College was Phi Gamma Delta.

Junior Counselors Reside In Ath with Freshmen

A group of upperclass girls known as junior counselors are residing in Atherton Hall this semester.

These 40 girls, selected by the four hostesses of Atherton, are living with the freshmen women. Their job is to help out in any way they can in order to make the girls' first College year happy and successful. The junior counselors are a type of big sister, acting as a coordinator between the students, the hostesses, and WSGA.

As the College might seem large and impersonal to a newcomer, counselors try to represent an individual touch.

Those acting as counselors are Vivian Bitner, Rose Eifert, Lois Evans, Dolores Colaluca, Louise Belden, Jeannette Arnold, Joan Bucknell, Maratha Dash, Anna Mae Dock, Mary Ellen Grube, Marjorie Brunner, Eloise Fogo, Mary Ann Johnson, Dolores Hubbard, Elizabeth Fabian, Margaret Lapp, Phyllis Jones, Lois Ruth Hayford, Ruth Kroekel, Myrval Jones, Yolau Kosa.

Mary Margaret Myer, Marie Knerr, Susan Godfrey, Lois Keener, Ann Stork, Gloria Taylor, Ann Forrest, Shirley Grow, Nancy Hanna, Sally Greenberger, Helen Rusinko, Jean Smucker, Elizabeth Webber, Helen Pond, Julia Wood, Patricia Williams, Shirley Shepard, Norma Jean Philip and Jane Strawn.

Engagements

Walters-Dehoff

The engagement of Miss Doris Dehoff of York and William Walters of Harrisburg was announced during the summer. Miss Dehoff, a senior and transfer from Breman College in Georgia, is a member of Delta Zeta sorority. Mr. Walters, who is a member of the Beaver House fraternity, is a junior.
