Grid, X-Country, Soccer Teams Score Wins

Nittany Forward Wall Charges to Win, 22-7

Hard-charging lines that enjoy nothing better than bowling over opponents, together with fast-stepping backs who can consistently roll up yardage—that's the Penn State grid formula, proved successful for the past three years.

But the combination never paid off more obviously than it did Saturday when the Lions trampled the Nebraska Cornhuskers, 22-7, before 23,600 fans at Beaver Field.

Led by Fred Feibaum, Don Murray, Negley Norton, Joe Drzenovich, Bobby Hicks, and Jack Storer, the Penn State line duplicated its feat of two years ago. The defense stopped Nebraska's ball-carriers with 5 net yards in rushing average.

NAGLE DROPPED

The Husker average was shot to pieces, especially in the final period, when State linemen caught Francis Nagle, Nebraska quarterback, attempting to pass and threw him for huge losses. Three of those losses in one series cost Nebraska 24 yards, and gave Penn State two points in the fourth period, when Jack Storer caught Nagle behind his own goal.

The Lions also uncovered a top-notch ball-carrier Saturday with Bill Luther finally hitting his stride. A hard-to-stop carrier during his high-school days at Osceola Mills, Luther hadn't been too impressive in collegiate appearances before this season and was slated for second-string tailback duties. But he has shown improvement in all four games this year, and may now be Coach Bedenk's answer to the important tailback problem.

ROGEL HURT

The Lions needed a hard-runner after the offense suffered a severe blow, losing Fran Rogel in the first quarter. Rogel sprained his left ankle, and was forced to ride the bench the remainder of the afternoon. Len Shepard, sophomore, filled in capably at fullback.

Rogel's ankle is still swollen this week and it is uncertain whether he will be ready for duty against Michigan State. The same is true of Earle Muddell who injured his right ankle. Feibaum sprained the ligaments in his left knee but he is a safe bet to see action. Chuck Drzenovich remains a question mark, but the rest of the squad, though collectively suffering from an assortment of bruises, should be in shape for the Spartans.

LUTHER SCORES

Bill Luther's two jaunts from the 9-yard line in the first quarter racked up the first Lion touchdown, and Joe Drzenovich's placement gave State a 7-point lead that the "white-clads" never lost.

After Bobby Hicks tackled Gerald Ferguson attempting to punt out of danger on the Nebraska 25, Luther came back with two passes, one to John Smdansky for 10 yards to the Husker 15, and another to Smdansky over the goal for the second TD and the Nittany 13-point halftime lead. Luther's run-backs of kicks kept the Lions snarling in Nebraska territory most of the first half.

Nebraska's first and only sign of life came two minutes after the opening of the second half when Ronald Clark, diminutive halfback, scampered 82 yards on a punt return to score. Dick Yost added the point to make it 13-7.

JV Gridders Lose

In their first game of the season, the Lion Jayvee gridders lost to Navy, 16-6, Saturday afternoon at Annapolis.

Phi Kappa, ZBT Win IM Meets

Phi Kappa and Zeta Beta Tau registered victories in intramural swimming meets at Glennland pool Friday night.

Traffing 18-17 going into the final event, Phi Kappa gained a 22-18 triumph over Kappa Delta Rho with a win in the 120-yard freestyle relay.

Sam Casey, Jack Watson, Dave Mahler and Carlton O'Malley combined their talents to give Phi Kappa the edge in the relay and in the final score, winning in 1:11.1.

Bill Johnson won two events for KDR, but his efforts were in a losing cause. Johnson won the 60-yard-freestyle in 36.6 seconds, and the 60-yard backstroke in 52.9 seconds. Pete Howachin won the diving event for KDR.

Jack Lavin, former West Catholic High School (Phila.) star was Phi Kappa's lone individual victor, winning the 60-yard breaststroke in 46.6 seconds.

Pi Lambda Phi had a triple winner in Philip Laurie, who accounted for all but two of his team's points, but Zeta Beta Tau won a 23-17 by dint of all-around team strength.

Laurie won the 60-yard freestyle in 37.5 seconds, the 60-yard backstroke in 49.2 seconds, and the diving.

Herb Arnold was ZBT's only individual winner, copping first honors in the 60-yard backstroke in 50.9 seconds.

Tonight's intramural swimming schedule lists Alpha Phi Delta against Kappa Sigma in the fraternity side of the schedule, while Dorm meets between 3143 and Penn Haven, and Dorm 44 and Dorm 43 usher in the independent competition.

Touch football continues tonight after having the first wash-out of the season on Friday. The Eagles face Dorm 5 at 7 p.m. and Dorm 4 is matched with the Nittany Cooperative at 7:45 in independent play. A second round fraternity game pits Alpha Epsilon against Alpha Chi Sigma at 8:30, while Phi Epsilon Pi, defending champion, lines up against Alpha Zeta at 9:15.

Swim Call
Candidates for the swimming team and second assistant managerial posts should attend a meeting in 316 Sparks at 7:30 tonight.

Lion Booters Dump Syracuse For Third Win

The Lions' third straight triumph, a 6-1 verdict over Syracuse last weekend, might have been a costly one for the Jeffrey-men.

Early in the first period, Ron Coleman, sophomore sensation of the Nittany booting forces, sprained his ankle and had to be removed from the game. X-rays revealed that no bones were broken but Coleman would be out of uniform for more than a week.

After Ted Lieb gave the Nittany an early 2-0 lead by tallying after the game was ten minutes old and again early in the second period, Boyer, his replacement, scored to give the Lions a comfortable half-time margin.

Shortly after intermission, Joe Lane broke through the Orange defense to add another tally to the Lions' list of high-scoring games.

Especially outstanding during the contest was the work of the Nittany forwards who kept possession of the ball in Syracuse territory throughout the major part of the struggle.

Only once did the Orange forces penetrate the danger zone. That was late in the third period when they scored against Goalie Ron Coder. The score was the first that an opponent has made all season.

Bill Yerkes, starting fullback, was removed from the game when he fell and injured his shoulder; however, Coach Jeffrey stated that the injury was not severe enough to keep him out of the Navy encounter this Saturday, when the Lions hope to extend their current win streak to four.

Harriers Swamp NYU, 15-48, in Opening Test

Coach Chick Werner's cross country team opened its season in sensational style Saturday by shellacking NYU, 15 to 48, on the College golf course.

Running under conditions that were anything but good, the Nittany Harriers captured the first six places and had things pretty much their own way at the finish of the five mile race.

DON ASHENFELTER

Don Ashenfelter led the pack home, covering the distance in 27 minutes and 10 seconds. Following him to the wire were Bob Parsons in second place, Bob Freebairn, Al Porto and Bill Ashenfelter in a tie for third and John St. Clair in sixth place. All completed the course in times under 28 minutes.

Ashenfelter's victory was all the more noteworthy in that it was the first intercollegiate race of any sort in his career. It was also Bill Ashenfelter's first intercollegiate cross country race.

TERRIFIC

"Our boys were terrific," he said. "Considering the terrible conditions under which the race was run, the boys performed wonderfully. Even St. Clair and McCall, finishing where they did turned in respectable performances."

Coach Werner was greatly pleased with the results of his teams showing despite the fact that the NYU team was extremely weak and far below that university's usual form.

- The summary:
1. Don Ashenfelter, Penn State, 27:10
 2. Parson, Penn State, 27:13
 3. Freebairn, Porto, Bill Ashenfelter, Penn State, 27:26
 4. St. Clair, Penn State, 27:38
 5. McKensie, NYU, 27:42
 6. Jacobson, NYU, 28:19
 7. McCall, Penn State, 28:26
 8. Gordon, NYU, 28:28
 9. Brooks, NYU, 28:48
 10. Cunningham, Ellis, NYU, 29:06
 11. Leland, NYU, 29:40
