

Political Party To Hold Mixer For Freshmen

A mixer for freshman women and other students who care to attend, sponsored by the Lion Party, is scheduled for 7:30 tonight in the TUB. Dancing and entertainment will continue through 9:30.

Held to celebrate lifting of customs and to enliven the first date mixer has a second purpose in giving the frosh and sophs an opportunity to register in either the Lion or State party for the coming elections.

Bill Whittle of the Lion party, will be Master of Ceremonies. A special feature of the evening will be a skit by Harry Kondourzian and Sid Manes, well-known for their zany presentations.

Don Yenke's combo will provide music for the mixer. Several of the Nittany cheerleading squad will be on hand. Officials of both parties have noticed a lack of attendance by sophomores and freshmen at their respective clique meetings, where nominations for offices is featured.

Late AP News Courtesy WMAJ

Yugoslavs Gain UN Council Seat

LAKE SUCCESS—Russia has failed in her effort to administer a public face-slapping to the Yugoslav government of Marshal Tito. Over strong Soviet objections the UN voted Yugoslavia a seat on the important UN Security Council. Andrei Vishinsky, red-faced and angry, shouted his objections. Yugoslavia, backed by the United States, won by a single vote. Czechoslovakia was the loser. It had bid for the recognition.

Higher Taxes

WASHINGTON — President Truman has let it be known that he already is mapping work plans for Congress when it reconvenes in January. On the list, he said, are the questions of increased taxes and more money to expand our A-Bomb facilities.

US Weapons for Allies

WASHINGTON — Separate talks begin next week on agreements for quick shipment of American weapons to nations allied with us in the fight against Communism. One billion dollars worth of arms will be shipped across the Atlantic as soon as negotiations are completed.

Unification Feud

WASHINGTON — General Eisenhower stole the show yesterday in the military feud over unification. He advised that we should not panic at the first setback. He said that we are expecting perfection too quickly and he believes unification will work.

Today . . .

The Nittany Lion Roars

FOR Richard "Dick" Clair, head of the hard-working and high-jumping cheerleader corps.

Last night the spirited cheer boss again crystallized the fever of an aroused student body by leading the cheers of a large gathering assembled to send the Lion gridders off on what everyone hopes will be a victory jaunt to East Lansing, Mich.

The Lion growls a "Short yell, State" for the peppy little cheerleader commandant.

The Daily Collegian

"FOR A BETTER PENN STATE"

VOL. 50 — NO. 21

STATE COLLEGE, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 21, 1949

PRICE FIVE CENTS

The Weather:
Cloudy, Possible
Rain

AIM Elects President

COLLEGE PERSONNEL WORKING ON THE AARONSBURG STORY: Adding their musical talents to the religious freedom rededication scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 23, are (left to right), William R. Gordon, professor of rural sociology; Miss Frances Andrews, James Dunlop, Hummel Fishburn and E. C. Wareham (at the piano), all of the department of music.

Historic Pageant Draws International Celebrities

Centre County will be in the spotlight Sunday when high-ranking United Nations officials, religious leaders and other dignitaries gather at Aaronsburg for Pennsylvania Week celebration in that tiny community.

The occasion is the 150th anniversary of the dedication of Salem Lutheran Church, built in 1799 on land donated by Aaron Levy, a Jewish immigrant from Holland. The Aaronsburg Story is Centre County's and the College's role in the state-wide observance of Pennsylvania week.

Among the speakers scheduled to address an anticipated crowd of 30,000 will be Sir Mohammed Aly Zafullah Khan, vice president of the U. N., and Dr. Ralph Bunche, former mediator of the U. N. Palestine Commission.

Other speakers are Governor James H. Duff; Felix Frankfurter, associate justice of the Supreme Court; Gen. William J. Donovan, former director of OSS;

Dr. Daniel Poling, editor, the Christian Herald; Dr. Channing H. Tobias, director, Phelps-Stokes Foundation, and Dr. Abram Sachar, president, Brandeis University.

During the day a series of "brotherhood institutes" will be held in the three Christian churches of the community and round table talks will be held.

Historical Pageant

To dramatize the part which all nationalities and religions played in the formation of the United States, a pageant will be produced under the direction of W. R. Gordon, professor of rural sociology extension at the College. More than 1,000 persons will participate. Motion picture actor Cornel Wilde will tell the Aaronsburg Story in the pageant.

The day's activities begin at 8:45 a.m. with services in Salem Lutheran Church. At 10 a.m. there will be a public meeting dedicated to religious and racial understanding on the pageant site. The brotherhood institutes will be held simultaneously in the three churches at 11 a.m.

The open air historical pageant begins at 2 p.m., followed by a symposium, "Brotherhood for Peace and Freedom," in Salem Lutheran Church from 5 to 6 p.m.

Aaron Levy, who immigrated from Holland in 1760, became a large land owner in Central Pennsylvania. He founded and laid out Aaronsburg, hoping to make it the capital of the State since it is in the geographical center of Pennsylvania.

Among College personnel participating are Hummel Fishburn, head of the Department of Music, as director of music, and staff members James Dunlop, Frances Andrews and Elmer C. Wareham. Louis H. Bell, director of the Department of Public Information, is handling publicity. George Ceiga, Chapel organist, will play at the pageant, as will the Blue Band.

Tribunal Fines Eight Violators

Parking or driving on campus without permits costs traffic violators a total of $8 in fines at Tribunal's second meeting of the semester.

Most defendants said they were not aware of the regulations. Tribunal, however, held that responsibility for knowing driving regulations was with the driver, and consequently fined each of them $1.

Tribunal Chairman Robert Keller explained that the regulation referred to specifically prohibits students without permits from driving or parking on campus from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays and 8 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

Two other cases were heard in the Tuesday session. A $3 fine was levied in one case for using another person's automobile permit tag and illegal parking. The defendant also was warned that a second offense would be brought to the attention of the Dean of Men for further action.

News Briefs

Engineering Lecture

Kenneth A. Meade will speak on "Opportunities for Employment in the Automotive Industry" at the senior engineering lecture in Schwab auditorium at 4:10 p.m. today.

WRA Hike

All women interested in the WRA Outing Club hike to Mt. Nittany should contact Jean McDermott, 24 McElwain before 6:30 today. The group will leave from the front of White Hall at 2 p.m. Saturday. Charges for the weenie roast will be $.50.

La Vie Photos

Seniors whose LaVie photos were taken during Spring or Summer sessions and wish to add activities should call the LaVie office in 412 Old Main.

Those in schools of Agriculture, Chemistry, Physics, and Education should report this week. Those in other schools will report after the last day scheduled for photos for their group.

NAACP Raises Funds for Appeal

The purpose of the last meeting of the NAACP was to decide on effective local action to help raise the $20,000 needed to appear a court decision against three Negroes in Groveland, Florida.

At the meeting on Wednesday a committee of eight persons was appointed to raise the funds and to get support for the Groveland case. William Meek, president of the chapter said future meetings would be educational in type. Dr. Lee Lorch, formerly of CCNY, now Assistant Professor of mathematics at the College, attended the meeting. While in New York, Dr. Lorch took an active part in attempting to dispel racial discrimination in Stuyvesant Town, a large housing project which refuses tenancy to Negroes.

Penn State Club

Penn State Club will hold a mixer for sophomore girls at 8 o'clock tonight in McElwain Hall lounge. All sophomore girls and members of the Penn State Club are invited to attend.

Davis To Head Independents

Houck, Norcross Get Vice President Slots

Independent Men's Association, has elected Robert Means Davis as president for the current school year.

This is the second year on the council for Davis, a junior majoring in advertising, and resident of Irvin Hall. Last year he served on the social and elections committees of AIM.

Ralph D. Houck will act as campus vice-president and William J. Norcross as town vice-president, with Corbin Kidder secretary and Harold Fitting treasurer. During the meeting Davis appointed George Knorr to the corresponding secretary post.

Independent

Reporting for the publications committee of the council, Richard Schaeberger announced that the first issue of the "Independent," news organ for independent men, will appear October 25. Arthur McHugh is editor.

Acting in his former capacity as social committee member, Davis told the council that plans for an independent men's house party on Junior Prom weekend were well under way, but that no definite location for the affair had yet been found. Last year's location, the University Club, has already been reserved by another organization.

Reorganization

Meanwhile, a committee under James MacCallum is proceeding with plans to reorganize the council. Progress, however, is expected to be slow since proposals call for a complete revamping of the council structure.

At present, the group consists of some 70 members elected from among and by campus and town independent men as representatives. In action, the large assembly has proved to be somewhat cumbersome and the rapid transaction of business difficult. Under the new plan, council membership would be reduced to about twelve, including officers of the several dormitory councils. In this way it is hoped that parallel action can be avoided and that actions of the dorm councils can be more closely coordinated.

Major task for the reorganization committee will be the drafting of a new constitution and obtaining a charter for the group.

New officers will take charge of their first regular meeting when the council convenes next Wednesday at 7 p.m. Initiation of a finance drive will be the main item on the agenda.

New Directory Printing Balked

The Student Union directory is lacking the names of the officers of certain campus organizations. These names are holding up publication of the directory:

- House of Representatives
- A.A.U.W.
- Am. Soc. of Mech. Eng.
- Bar-Bell Club
- Camera Club
- C. C. Interamericana
- Chess Club
- Christian Science
- Co-ed Coordinating Club
- Common Sense Club
- Cosmopolitan Club
- Dairy Science
- Dendrologic Society
- F. F. of A.
- Forestry Club
- House of Representatives
- Masquerettes
- Naval ROTC
- Newman Club
- Penn State Grange
- Quarterback Society
- Russian Club
- Scrab
- Ski Club
- Tan Phi Sigma