Wernermen Favored In Final Home Meet

By JOE BREU

Penn State's seniorless cross country team will go after its second victory of the season today when the Nittany Lion runners play host to Cornell's Big Red at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Coach Chick Werner has chosen 14 men to face Cornell in an attempt to repeat last week's victory against NYU. The Red Raiders from Ithaca are coming to State College with the same number of runners.

COURSE

The race will start on the Beaver Field track and will be run on the College golf course. For the Lions it will be the last meet at home this season. Following the Cornell meet, the Wernermen take to the road for dual meets with Michigan State and Manhattan College.

The Penn State team will be seeking its fourth straight win over the lads from Cayuga's waters. And barring the unexpected, the Nittany Lions will enter the meet as favorites.

In its one meet to date, the Big Red emerged victorious over Colgate. Cornell is coached by Louis Montgomery and captaining the squad is Bob West.

TOP MAN

Following are the starting line-ups and the numbers they will wear:

Penn State
 1, Bob Parsons; 2, Don Ashenfelter; 3, Bill Ashenfelter; 4, Al Porto; 5, Bob Freebairn; 6, John St. Clair; 7, John McCall; 8, Bill Gordon; 9, John Davison; 10, Hal Borck; 11, Stan Linder; 12, Hal Wilson; 13, Dudley Foster; 14, Pete Knapp.
Cornell

Navy To Test Lion Streak

Anxious to avenge a defeat at the hands of the Middies last year, a determined band of Nittany soccermen set sail for Annapolis in search of their fourth consecutive win this fall.

Last year Navy handed the Lion booters their only setback. Since that time Coach Bill Jeffrey has led his team through ten straight wins.

Opposing the perennially strong Middle outfit will be Ted Lieb, Ron Coleman, Joe Lane, Harry Little and Clarence Buss up front.

Starting halfbacks will be Captain Ralph Hosterman, Will Kraybill and Dick Hannah. Opening fullbacks are Chuck Margolf and Bill Yerkes with George Lawther drawing the nod at the net.

Lions Prepare For Grid Tilt At E. Lansing

Penn State's gridders are slated for signal drills and a light workout in Michigan State's Macklin Field Stadium today. The Lions, 35 strong, left State College late yesterday by train and are due to arrive in East Lansing about noon.

Final word on fullback Fran Rogel's ankle injury is not too optimistic. Trainer Chuck Medlar said yesterday that Rogel may be available for part-time duty, but he was doubtful.

Earl Mundell, 155-pound scabbie, and Conrad Brown, reserve tackle, did not make the trip. All the other players are in good shape, although Fred Feibaum probably will see only "limited service."

The Lions face one of the best running backs in the country in Michigan State's Lynn Chandnois, 195-pound, 6-foot, 2-inch senior right-halfback. Chandnois, a 60-minute man, was the Spartans' top scorer last season with 72 points.

Troyan's Coal Crackers Smash IM Grid Mark

Warming to his task, Cy Troyan, the one man air force of the Coal Crackers, passed for five touchdowns and four extra points to lead his teammates to a record-breaking 40-0 conquest of Dorm 39 under the arc lights of Beaver practice field Wednesday night.

Only last week, Troyan's crew, defending independent champions, scored 34 points to set the mark which fell by the wayside Wednesday.

ANOTHER RECORD

Harry Nelson, Alpha Sigma Phi, joined in the business of record-breaking by wiping from the books the 60-yard breast-stroke standard he held jointly with Bob Krayer of Delta Chi. Nelson spread-eagled the field to win in 42.8 seconds, six-tenths of a second better than the mark he and Krayer set last year, as Alpha Sigma Phi turned back Alpha Chi Sigma, 24-16, and Delta Chi swamped Theta Kappa Phi, 29-9 at Glennland pool. Dorm 44, Dorm 31-43 and Kappa Sigma gained victories in intramural swimming meets at Glennland pool Tuesday night.
