State, Lion Map Campaigns

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 50 - NO. 23

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 25, 1949

Students Vote In Six Schools

tives to their student councils in simultaneous elections tomorrow and Thursday.

The elections will be held in these schools: Liberal Arts, Physical Education and Athletics, Chemistry and Physics, Home Economics, Mineral Industries, and Engineering.

The elections will be held from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Presidents of the councils should turn ballot boxes in to the Student Union desk at the close of balloting Thursday, William Shade, chairman of the All-College Elections committee, said yesterday.

The elections will be field from the field f

ler, Mary Conrath, Russell A. Da-man's post. The candidates: vis, Lola Edmunds, Nathan B. Freshman women—Janice Burg Feinstein, Lawrence Giancola, Virginia Pat Frank, Margaret A Sheldon Jahss, Milo Kosenovich, (Continued on page six)

Liberal Arts
Twenty-five members will be elected to the Liberal Arts council in balloting in the lobby of Sparks building. Seven sophomores, 11 building. Seven sophomores, 11 building. Seven seniors are to Shapken punding. Seven sopnomores, 11 Mills, John D. Parris, and Edward juniors and seven seniors are to be chosen. The candidates are:

Seniors — Oscar Fleisher, Joel Fleming, Leonard Goldberg, Mary Catherine Maloney, Jack Reen, Paul W. Sabol, Earl M. Schaffer, Dottie Werlinich, Ted H. Weidenman, and George Vadasz.

Juniors—Herbert A. Arnold Riman, and George Vadasz. and, for women, in the White Hall

Juniors—Herbert A. Arnold, Richard M. Bard, Patricia Ann Benfied nominees for the sophomore

Polish Student Recalls Nazi Slave Labor Camp

By Bill Dickson

It is difficult to believe when one talks with Andrew Rosner, a Polish student at the College, that he was a prisoner in a Nazi slave labor camp a few years ago. Perhaps it shows only in his eyes, and then only when such experiences are discussed.

Twenty-three-year-old, Rosner, a displaced person, and a native of Warsaw, came to the College through arrangements of World Student Service Fund and

When Poland was invaded by to groups of five men.

Germany, all schools and colleges were closed Education then went underground.

underground.
"We assembled in groups of five," said Rosner, "and met in homes of the students where we received high school instruction whenever possible."

Two Armies

During this time, not one, but actions, but he did describe the two Polish underground armies methods wereby they disposed of were in action. One of these, the cruel and undesirable Nazi of-Western army to which his father

The Nittany Lion Roars

FOR the hard-working members of the PSCA finance drive. PSCA is asking for $7500 this rear to support its worthy activities. $5,000 of that sum, it is hoped, will be obtained from students, the remainder from members of the faculty.

To collect the money and insure the goal is realized, is the job of the PSCA committee members.

members.

asking that they support the

The Lion roars not only for the staff of the Christian Association, but also to the students, drive next week.

"One of these was the head of the group," explained Rosner," and he was a member of another main in charge group of five leaders. In this manner, orders and information was handed down until all had received it."

Rosner did not go into much detail about the underground's belonged, received its orders derground visited the person on the "black list" and read the list of charges. This list was then left on the body, said Rosner.

The ratio for reprisals was ten (Continued on page eight)

Engineer Wins Three Awards

The Penn State Engineer, the The Penn State Engineer, the College's non-subsidized engineering magazine, placed fourth in the overall judging of 28 magazines at the convention of the Engineering College Magazines Associated, at the University of Minnesota during the past week-

The Engineer, represented by its business manager, Gerald Smith, was the only non-subsi-dized sheet among the winners of the top four places. The winners the top four places. The winners ion, personnel records division, of the first three places are all job classification division, safety supported by computer the division and division and division. supported by compulsory sub-division, and security benefits discriptions at the expense of their vision. various student bodies, and employ paid staffs to edit their sheets.

Two other awards were won by the Engineer. It placed second in the competition for best single editorial, and won third place in the overall editorial judging.

Granted Leave

Dr. Eric A. Walker

Walker Given Defense Post, Granted Leave

Dr. Eric A. Walker, head of the department of electrical engineering, and director of the Ordnance Research Laboratory at the College, has been granted a leave of absence to serve government departments in Washington ment departments in Washington ment departments to national ment departments and ment departments to national ment departments and ment departments are ment departments and ment departments and ment departments are ment departments and ment departments and ment departments are ment departments and ment departments and ment departments are ment departments and ment department departments are ment departments and ment departments are ment departments and ment departments are ment departments and ment departments are ment departments. The ment department departm holland, acting president of the College. Robert A. Hussey, will serve as acting director of the Ordnance Research Laboratory in Doctor Walker's absence Francis T. Hall, professor of electrical engineering, will become acting head of the department of electrical engineering.

No changes will be made in National Student Association.

The College waived tuition and fees and Interfraternity Council insure a maximum of security, the appointment of Hussey as the underground was divided in acting director, declared Dr. H. acting director, declared Dr. H. P. Hammond, dean of the School

Dr. R. Burton Power will remain in charge of construction of the Garfield Thomas Water Tunnel while Dr. James M. Robertson will continue as director of the tunnel's future operations.

James Milholland, acting president of the College, has announ-ced the establishment of a department of personnel services with Frank F. Morris as the first director at the College.

The Board of Trustees authorized creation of the new department as a continuing step in "the development of a personnel pro-gram which will have as its principal objective the improvement of employee relations."

Morris has been administrative assistant to the treasurer since 1947. He will continue in that position and will also assume direction for the new department under the administration of the assistant to the president in charge of business and finance.

Subdivisions of the department are the employment divis-

The Weather: Fair and Cool

Campus Politicians Plan For November Elections

Campus politics began to ferment over the weekend as the State and Lion parties held meetings to prepare their battle plans for the Nov. 15 sophomore and freshman class elections.

The Lion party, getting an early start, held preliminary nominations for the class officers. Meanwhile, the State party was reorganizing its leadership and getting ready for preliminary nominations for the coming weekend.

Lion Party

party candidate for freshman class president.

Names were placed forward for all six offices to be filled in the Nov. 15 freshman and sophomore class elections at the Lion meeting in 121 Sparks. Final nominations and election of candidates will be held at a meeting this Sunday evening.

Miss Hutchon was the only freshman candidate thus far unopposed.

Jerry Brown and Harriet Stern were nominated for freshman vice-president, while Carolyn Laughner and Peggy Hepler re ceived the preliminary bids for class secretary-treasurer.

Battle

A possible battle for the nomination for sophomore class president developed when the names of Joseph Arteritano and Charles Wysocki were placed on the floor. Jack Haines was the only one nominated for sopho-more vice-president, and Polly that the party now has more than 1350 members; Hugh Stedetense.

The leave is already in effect and will continue until March 1350 members; Hugh Steward The leave is already in effect and will continue until March 15, 1950, explained James Millalo made reports.

The leave is already in effect than 1350 members; Hugh Steward The Leave is already in effect wens, public relations chairman, and Sherry Sherman and Ann Jones, freshman co-chairman, also made reports.

Clique officers for the junior and continue of the continue of the

Mixer

Discussion was held on the be held until next Spring, Fleming mixer, attended by about 350 said. Co-chairmen were elected for students, sponsored Friday evethe freshmen as the result of a tie ning by the party. In charge of on the first ballot. the affair were Harry Kondourajian, David Schmuckler, John Erickson, Hugh Stevens, Sidney Manes and Albert Chakmak. Candidates for the freshman and sophomore class elections will be nominated and elected at a meet-

Manes and Albert Chakmak.

Members of the band for the mixer were: Mouse Miller, Jack LaClair, David Maver, Harold Clouse, Skip Rider, Louis Pieda, Marlin Ristenbatts, George Black, Darrel Rishel, Russell Henry, Donald Zerflea, Arnie Taylor, Donald Colbert and Donald Yenko, leader.

State Party

Jo Hutchon, who was named Joel Fleming, who had been Queen of the Belle Hop Ball serving as temporary chairman of Saturday night, was nominated the State party during the clique's Sunday evening as the Lion reorganizational period, was elect-party candidate for freshman ed as permanent chairman Sun-tions, in which the Staters will have a chance to capture two seats on All-College Cabinet. Such a victory would reverse the trend set when the party was thrown out of power last Spring and might pave the way for a full-fledged up-surge in elections next Spring. Fleming clique secretary-treasurer; Charles cause their class elections will not

Candidates

PSCA Drive Planned With Goal of $7500

The annual Penn State Christian Association finance drive will get underway Oct. 31, Dr. Russell B. Dickerson, chairman of the drive, has announced.

This year's quota is set at $7500. Of this amount students are asked to contribute $5000 and faculty and administrative members, $2500. The purpose of the drive is to raise funds to finance the many projects of the CA. Included among the CA-sponsored pro-

ed among the CA-sponsored programs are the following: community forums, Watts Lodge cabin parties, annual Christmas sing, religion-in-life week, radio vespers, foreign student programs, regional student conferences and student handbook.

Heading the faculty division of the campaign is Dr. Dickerson, vice dean of the School of Agriculture and newly elected di-culture and newly elected director of the CA.

Jo Ann Esterly and Charles Oerkvitz are the student finance chairmen.

Miss Esterly, a junior in pre-law, has been active in CA af-fairs since she arrived from Kutztown State Teachers Col-lege in 1948. She attended the United Student Christian Con-forence at Lawrence Kansas in ference at Lawrence, Kansas in the summer of 1948 and also the

Frosh Coed Named

One of five finalists selected from photographs submitted by various campus organizations, Miss Hutchon was chosen by popular applause during intermission at the dance. She was sponsored by Delta Upsilon fra-

The queen has been presented with two tickets to the Pitt-Penn State game and reservations for two single rooms at the William Penn Hotel in Pittsburgh.

Miss Hutchon is a first semes-North Atlantic Regional Con- ter freshman majoring in Engference at Camp Michaux this lish composition, and is a native (Continued on page eight) of Washington, D.C.