

Dormitory Units Select Leonides Representatives

Elections of Leonides Council representatives from all women's living units were held last week in the respective dormitories.

In the three large dormitories, Atherton, McElwain, and Simmons, the living units were subdivided into districts; and each district elected a representative and alternate.

The representative will represent her district in all Council meetings, and the alternate will assist her in her duties as well as attend meetings when the representative is unable to do so.

McElwain, Unit 1—Jean Holland, Jackie Schoch, and Helen Bartha, representatives; Frances Markowitz, Pat Mowell, and Joyce Flora, alternates.

The following women were elected.

Unit 2—Barbara Young, Joan Strunk, Nancy Murray, Marilyn Bruck, Pat Sweely, and Ann White, representatives; Marion Wilson, Ann Geibel, Mary Mallard, Vivian White, Nancy Gruber, and Janet Rusiackas, alternates.

Unit 3—Allene Kensinger and Evelyn Sabastian, representatives; Leona Schadle and June Odza, alternates.

Unit 4—Mary Jo McCoy, Joan Wentzel, Ruth Aaron, Helen Benedetti, and Peg King, representatives; Betty Buck, Gloria Zack, Sue Kaufman, Hannah Smoway, and Roberta O'Dell, alternates.

Simmons, Unit 3—Dorothy Stein and Dorothy Roseman, representatives; Shirley Smith and Leatrice Berger, alternates.

Unit 4—Joyce Yundt, Alice Strittmatter, and Lolita Mountjoy, representatives; Inga Hoffman, Dorothy Laine, and June Reinmiller, alternates.

Atherton

Atherton, Northeast—Judy Lippman, Jean Mastin, Ann Wise, Yvonne Carter, Mabel Marple, and Mary Cherney, representatives; Sally Greenberger, Pegg Shultz, Jean Wiener, Lea Placet, Mary Matthews, and Ginger Hamilton, alternates.

Northwest—Ruth Stein, Elsa Pasline, Ruth McSparron, Marion Dunlap, and Mary Lou Elliot, representatives; Marie Sariero, Emily Kastas, Sally Lowry, Helen Jaskal, and Avis Dalton, alternates.

Southeast—Nancy Wiant, Phyllis Dahlgreen, Clara Wiessen, Edith Louis, Mary Jane Anderson, Lee Coy, and Betty Lou Gouss, representatives; Nancy White, Virginia McMillen, Gale Grimm, Alice Morgan, Ann Burlingame, Joan Lee, and Carolyn Green, alternates.

Old Main Clock

Chimes Tell Time;

Pose Questions

In spite of the countless students who anxiously listen for the hour to be tolled by the clock in Old Main—perhaps signifying the end or beginning of a dreaded class—it is doubtful that any one student could pass a quiz on how many times the chimes sound at fractions of the hour, the range of notes of the musical scale that the chimes cover, and what time of the day the chimes cease.

Frank T. Morris, administrative assistant to the treasurer, is perhaps the only person who could score a perfect paper in such a quiz, and he offers the following information about this well-known clock.

The chimes sound 4 notes at a quarter after the hour, 8 notes at half past the hour, 12 notes at a quarter of the hour, and 16 notes on the hour.

Tones struck at fractions of the hour are: mi, re, do, sol at a quarter after the hour; mi, do, re, sol—do, re, mi, do at half past the hour; and mi, do, re, sol; sol, re, mi, do; mi, re, do, sol at a quarter of the hour.

Tones struck on the hour preceding the strike to indicate the hour are do, mi, re, sol; do, re, mi, do; mi, do, re, sol and sol, re, mi, do.

To further complicate matters, there are 15 strokes in groups of 3 sounded at 6 p.m. to indicate the hour. This melody is called the Angelus.

And did anyone ever notice that the quarter-hour chimes do not continue for the full 24 hours? They begin at 7:15 a.m., and continue on the quarter hour until 5 p.m. They begin again at 6:15 p.m., and continue to 10 p.m.

WSGA, WRA Plan Meeting For Officer Nominations

The WSGA and WRA mass meeting for the presentation of officer slates and further nominations from the floor has been postponed to Tuesday, November 1, Shirley Gauger and Virginia Miller, respective presidents of the organizations, announced. The meeting had tentatively been set for 7 o'clock tonight.

The slate of WSGA officers will include nominees for sophomore senator, who will serve as presiding officer of Freshman Council, treasurer and freshman senator. A Freshman senator will also be appointed by WSGA.

WRA Nominees

WRA nominees will be presented for sophomore representative, who will be a member of the WRA Executive Board, a timer and scorer for intramural events and manager of the WRA cabin, and for two freshman representatives. The latter will serve as members of the board, aid the sophomore senator as manager of the WRA cabin, and be in charge of the WRA scrapbook. A secretary-treasurer will also be nominated.

Requirements

Requirements for sophomore offices include being a member of the sophomore class and having a 1.5 All-College average. Freshmen must merely be a member of that class. They must, however, have a 1.5 average at the end of the semester in order to continue to hold office. The same rule applies to transfers who automatically come to the College with a 1.0 All-College average.

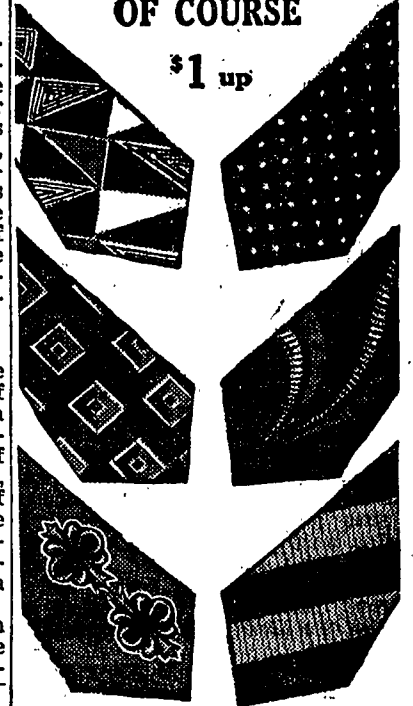

After presentation of both WSGA and WRA slates and the reading of the nominee's qualifications, the floor will be open for additional nominations. These nominees are subject to the same qualifications as those girls presented on the slates.
