Booth Plans Due For Mardi Gras

Sorority and group plans for booths at the Mortar Board Mardi Gras must be turned in to Elizabeth Taylor at 113 McElwain today so that duplications of ideas may be adjusted and new plans made.

The annual Mardi Gras, held this year in Recreation Hall from 7 to 9 p.m. next Friday, will feature entertainment of patrons by sorority booths, the election and crowning of a king, and the presentation of a cup to the group which contributes the largest amount of money from its booth.

Choice of the king will be determined by the greatest number of pennies which one contestant gets. Persons may contribute any number of pennies for any one candidate. Pictures of the prospective kings will be on display in the Athletic Store window on Monday.

Mortar Board committees, handling the affair, as announced by Ruth Lehman, president of the organization, are King Committee, Shirley Gauger; Publicity, Commie Keller and Pauly Moss; Ticket, Virginia Miller; Letters, Elisabeth Taylor; and Food, Mary Cohen.

Beta Sigma Omicron Wins Panhel Cup

Beta Sigma Omicron sorority was awarded the Panhellenic scholarship cup for the third consecutive semester at a meeting of the Panhel Council on Tuesday evening.

Dolores Jelacic, president, who presented the trophy to June Weimer, announced that according to council rules, a sorority that receives the award three consecutive times is permitted to keep the cup permanently. A new trophy will be awarded at the end of this semester. The sorority average of Beta Sigma Omicron for the spring semester was 2.17.

Panhel Keys

Senior members of Panhel were presented keys by Miss Jelacic in recognition of their service. Those who received the awards were Joyce Cotter, Constance Croushore, Dolores Daly, Carolyn DeHart, Lois Dickson, Ruth Edelstein, Mary Fox, Gilda Greco, Sue Halberin, Lois Hughes, Louise Inserra, Dolores Jelacic, Sylvia Kulp, Sarah Pate, Lucille Phillips, Selma Rudnick, Esther Schrecengost, Florence Teresinski and Dorothy Werlinich.

A strict silent period is being observed by all sororities until 8 a.m. Monday, when informal rushing begins. Miss Ellamae Jackson, of the dean of women's office, announced that bids that are properly addressed, unsealed and stamped may be turned in to the dean's office at any time after that.

Expense Accounts

Gilda Greco, chairman of the rushing committee reminded sororities that expense accounts for formal rushing are due at the next meeting of the council which will be in the Theta Phi Alpha Suite on November 8.

Late Permissions

Gauger Announces Junior Prom Hours

Upperclass women have been granted two o'clock permissions for the Junior Prom tomorrow night, Shirley Gauger, president of WSGA, announced yesterday.

At a special meeting of Senate, the group granted a one o'clock and a twelve o'clock permission to be taken either Friday or Saturday night by freshmen. The hours were decided upon after a delegation of freshmen girls had appealed to Senate for the above-named hours.
