

WSGA, WRA Release Slates For Officer Nominations

Release of the WSGA and WRA officer slates was made yesterday by Shirley Gauger and Virginia Miller, presidents of the respective organizations.

Open nominations, at which time additional names may be added to the official slates, will be held by the two bodies in 316 Sparks at 7 o'clock Tuesday night. Qualifications of the nominees on the slate will be read at this time. Candidates desiring to nominate candidates should also be prepared to list qualifications of their nominees.

WSGA Slate

Names proposed on the WSGA slate are for freshman senator, Peggy Fahringer, Doris Heister and Peggy Schultz, sophomore senator, Barbara Klopp, Annabel Russell and Sally Shoemaker, and treasurer, Lois Jakob, Eleanor Miller and Jane Stieber.

Candidates must be a member of the sophomore class to be nominated for sophomore senator and treasurer, and a member of the freshman class to be nominated for freshman senator. All nominees must have a 1.5 all-college average. In addition to the freshman senator elected, one will also be appointed by WSGA.

WRA Slate

The WRA slate includes for sophomore representative, Margaret Betts, Barbara Cochran and Margaret Rouse; secretary-treasurer, Helen Neusbaum, Jane Snitger and Marilyn Williams; freshman representative, Patricia Frank, Janet Herd and Mable Markle.

The same qualifications apply to the candidates of WRA offices. On both slates, transfer students and freshmen women who automatically do not have a Penn State average must maintain a 1.5 average during this semester in order to remain in office the next semester.

Frosh Town Girls To Attend Meeting

Freshman women students who live in town are asked to attend the WSGA, WRA mass meeting in 316 Sparks at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Anna Keller, WSGA town senator, stated.

A representative from the freshman town girls must be elected to serve on the Freshman Council, as yet unformed. Nominations will be held at the mass meeting and the election of one girl from the nominees will be made at a later date.

Freshman representatives from Atherton Hall have been nominated and names are being posted this week. Elections will be held Monday night in the dorm unit.

Qualifications require only that a girl be a member of the freshman class. In order to continue to hold office next semester, a girl must maintain a 1.5 average this semester.

Phi Sigma Kappa

Phi Sigma Kappa elected new officers Monday night. They are Joseph Jammal, president; Al Chieppor, vice-president; Richard Hyde, secretary; William Hill, treasurer; Charles Jones, sentinel; George Smith, inductor; Hal Ewaldsen, house manager; and Gerald Roth, caterer.

Two New Officers Elected by House At First Meeting

Two officers were elected at the initial meeting of the House of Representatives meeting Wednesday night. They are Bettina de Palma, vice-president, and Jeannine Belle, secretary. Ella Louise Williams, vice-president of WSGA, is automatically president of the House.

Miss Williams urged that all new woman students fill out an activity card, or if an upperclassman, add to the card, which she will receive from her unit president. This card is important as a source of information for honorary societies and prospective employers.
