

Leonides Selects Hollis To Lead Independents

Mrs. Robert Hollis was elected president of Leonides, independent women's organization, at a meeting Monday night.

Other officers elected were Florence Freeman, vice-president; Joan Burlein, recording secretary; Loita Mountjoy, corresponding secretary; and Helen Bartha, treasurer.

Rose Eifert, past-president, asked independent women to support independent activities, especially mixers.

Dorothy Roseman, representative to the Independent, reported that the first issue of the newspaper will be out on Thursday.

Women To Select Sophomore Senator

Elections for WSGA sophomore senator will be held in McElwain, Simmons and McAllister Halls from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. today, Shirley Gauger, president of WSGA, announced.

A tie vote between Barbara Klopp and Sally Shoemaker, finalists in the primary balloting for the office, in the final elections on Monday necessitated the voting today.

Other newly elected officers of WSGA should attend the WSGA meeting in the WSGA room in White Hall at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Veterans

Veterans who have not reported changes of address are requested to do so as soon as possible at the Office of the Secretary of Veterans' Affairs, Room 3, Willard Hall, so that their checks and unclaimed mail may be sent.

STRAIT-JACKET SAM FLUNKS HIS FORMAL EXAM

All through the dance he was twisted in pain,
His uncomfortable tux nearly drove him insane,
It was tight, it was stiff and he couldn't relax,
He wished he was wearing a sport coat and slacks.

Informal Comfort IN FORMAL WEAR

Three cheers for comfort! This handsome new AFTER SIX double-breasted peak-lapel tuxedo feels just as free and casual as sport clothes! Shoulders are natural . . . lapels more generous . . . fabrics much lighter. You'll look like a fashion plate, dance on air, and feel like a million. Try it on!
