

WRA Basketeers Display Skill

Basketball games of WRA showed a decided contrast Thursday evening between smooth play and the sloppiness that usually occurs with the start of a new season.

Phi Mu displayed great power in snowing under a weak Phi Sigma Sigma team. Betty Robb, Betty Zimmerman, and Lois Van Vactor sparked the Phi Mu's to a one-sided 44 to 7 victory.

Sigma Delta Tau lost a hard-fought game to Alpha Epsilon Phi before a staunch-rooting section of their sorority sisters. Although the score was tied at half-time, Alpha Epsilon Phi managed to pull ahead to win the low-scoring game, 12-8.

The Town girls, featuring Joann Hoy and Harriett Sticker, played a very smooth game as they defeated a hard-fighting Simmons team. Simmons rallied in the second half without success as they lost 21 to 17.

Tracy McCormick led the Zeta Tau Alpha girls as they swamped an outplayed Alpha Xi Delta squad 25-8.

In another high-scoring contest, Leonides showed that it had a hard-fighting sextet. McElwain-B bowed to Leonides, who led by Helen Rusinko's 17 points, racked up a 34-14 score.

Theta Phi Alpha had little trouble defeating Philotes. The final score was a decisive 22 to 5.

Soph Hop—

scheduled in the second semester, the College calendar has become overloaded, from both the financial and educational points of view.

3. Soph Hop perennially has been a financial loser, with a deficit of about $300 each year.

4. For some time it has not been a true class dance, held especially for sophomores. The dance is intended to foster class spirit, and this can be done best by closing it to all but sophomores and their dates.

Donovan also pointed out that there always has been difficulty in obtaining big name bands in February.
