

Close Contest Develops In IM Basketball Race

By Mary Ellen Grube

With the second week of WRA intramural basketball over, it becomes increasingly evident that the race for the basketball crown will be a close one.

It was an inspired McElwain-B team that upset the smooth-playing Town girls. Connie Adams and Mollie Mallard from the dorm managed to outscore Jo Hoy and Barbara Frichman to win 22 to 21.

Phi Mu's Betty Zimmerman led their attack as they downed Theta Phi Alpha 19-2.

Defensive play combined with the accurate shooting of their forwards put Zeta Tau Alpha in the winner's spot. They swamped the Sigma Delta Tau's by a 31 to 2 tally.

A very close game occurred between Simmons and Leonides. Simmons rallied in the second half, but went down 29 to 25.

Highest Score

Wednesday evening Delta Gamma rolled up the highest score for any team so far this season by swamping the Co-ops 48-13. Nancy Rodli of Delta Gamma tallied a very high score of 27 points.

Alpha Omicron Pi played a very well rounded game to outclass the Alpha Chi Omega girls by a 34 to 6 score.

There was never any doubt that Women's Building had the upper hand in their contest with Hemlock Cottage. Fortney Fretz, and Greene sparked the winners to a 30 to 10 score.

McElwain-A and Kappa Gamma played an excitingly equal game Tuesday. The Kappa Kappa Gammas, led by Sue Kershner and Sally Folger, manager, however, to stem the second half drive of the girls from McElwain. The final score was 28 to 22.

Theta Victor

Kappa Alpha Theta won handily over Chi Omega by a 31 to 14 verdict. Anna Keller and Nancy Greenewalt paced the victors with eight points apiece.

Kappa Delta, after their surprising victory over Kappa Kappa Gamma last week, tried hard to beat down the Gamma Phi Beta's, but the well-knot Gamma Phi team finally came back in the second half to overpower the determined Kappa Delta's, 20 to 9.

In a one-sided contest Alpha Gamma Delta snowed under the Delta Delta Delta girls. Shreiner and Kriner starred for Alpha Gamma Delta in their 30 to 7 win.

Fresh Games

Monday evening the Atherton Hall freshmen played their matches. The SW I unit team convincingly smashed NW II, 27-9.

On the short end of a 21 to 11 score was SE II. The victor, NE II, was paced by Jo McNally's 15 points.

SW II in another game on Monday lost to NW I in a low scoring contest. 16 to 6 was the final tally.

In all the games scheduled only three were forfeited. Spruce Cottage forfeited to McAllister on Wednesday and Thursday Phi Sigma Sigma won by a forfeit from Philotes, and Monday evening there was a double-forfeit of SE I and NE II from Atherton. A draw occurred on Thursday when a misunderstanding occurred between the Alpha Epsilon Phi's and the scorers. Alpha Xi Delta was the other team involved in the draw.

Traveling Exhibit Now On Display

The Student Traveling Exhibition of the Cranbrook Academy of Art, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., is on exhibit in the Home Economics Building until the end of the month.

The collection includes examples of ceramics, sculpture, design, painting, metal craft, weaving, photography, and woodwork, all of the fine and applied arts.

The exhibit, which will be displayed in cabinets in the foyer of the living center and on the second floor, was arranged through Christine F. Salmon, assistant professor of housing and home art, who visited the Cranbrook Academy last summer.

Coeds Participate In Hockey Play Day

More than 20 women hockey players from the College were the guests of Bucknell University at a play day, November 12. Susquehanna University and Juniata College also participated in the play day.

Since there are no intercollegiate sports for women at Penn State and many other colleges, play days and telegraphies are used instead. At a play day, only parts of games may be scheduled. In the five-games played the Blue and White won two, lost two, and tied one.

Two teams, composed of those girls who were outstanding on one of the class teams here during intramurals, were sent.

The girls included:
CF M. Mallard; P. Langlin
LI G. Brown, B. Fretz; J. Hackett

LW C. Weber; B. Leith
LH C. Maas; P. Pirrall
LF N. Worthington; J. Herd
C M. Marple; E. Green
RI N. Jarden; L. Waltz
RW L. Tompkins; P. Warner
RH L. Transue; R. McSparran
RF N. Hanna; L. Patten, E. Laning

G P. Frank; V. Miller
Three faculty members, Miss Mildred A. Lucey, Miss Dorothy V. Briant, and Dr. Ellen D. Kelley, also attended. Helen Rusinko was the official photographer.

McElwain Installs Washing Machines For Student Use

As a result of a petition presented to Mr. Russell Clark, housing coordinator, by the unit presidents of McElwain, four automatic washing machines and two dryers have been installed in the dormitory for student use.

The machines are located in the basement of the dormitory. Coeds must insert 25 cents to use the washers and 10 cents for the dryers.

The equipment will be in use after Thanksgiving. If the experiment is successful in McElwain, machines will be installed in other dormitories.

Outstanding Seniors Joan Bergdoll

(This is the fourth in a series of articles concerning prominent senior men and women who have proven themselves outstanding in one or more fields of activity at the College.)

By Myrna Tex

A pair of hazel eyes sparkled and light brown curls bobbed lightly as Joan Bergdoll spoke of her college activities. Her social service to the College has been in the field of women's student government.

As a sophomore, Joan was elected WSGA sophomore senator. The following year she was one of the two junior senators elected on the WSGA slate. This year Joan is secretary of the organization, takes the minutes of Senate and handles all the correspondence.

Other activities of Joan's include the Penn State in China committee, All-College Elections committee, and Cwens, sophomore women's honorary.

Social Service

This psychology major calls York her home town. After graduation, Joan remarked that she would like to become active in community welfare work as she is interested in social service. Perhaps her experience as the Tri Delta sorority's vice-president and pledge trainer will be of some help to her later.

Joan feels that WSGA is a well run and basically important group on campus. "Many girls," Joan pointed out, "think the organization is completely controlled by College officials, but that isn't so. The girls actually run it themselves, with occasional sanctions from Dean Weston."

Rules Have Reason

"Another point that is often misunderstood by the students," she continued, "is the imposing of rules which are often thought of as unfair. But, if someone would attend a Senate meeting, they would understand that every rule set up has a reason behind it and some cause underlying it which necessitates its being formulated."

Joan's favorite hobby is sports and she particularly likes swimming and bowling. Last year she was active in intra-mural sports. On a trip to Florida last summer she saw water skiing for the first time and has determined to learn how to water ski by next summer.

"There is one thing about the College that I think is really great," Joan stated. "That is the fact that during the last few years action has been taken on many projects that had just been talked about before. The PUB is a good example," she concluded.

Engagements

Hollander—Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meyers of Philadelphia recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Richard I. Hollander, a junior in Liberal Arts and a member of Pi Lambda Phi.

WSGA To Launch Xmas Drive; Coeds Asked To Contribute

WSGA will launch its twenty-first Christmas Drive tomorrow. The drive will continue through December 7.

Each woman student will be asked to contribute. To meet the goal of $500, an estimated 30 cents or more per girl will be needed.

Three organizations receive the money from the drive. One is the Mifflin County Children's Aid in Lewistown which assists children adopted into families unable to provide more than bare necessities. Toys and clothing are bought with the money from the College women.

Table Tennis Shows No Evident Champ

Table tennis last week moved along at a slow pace with no definite trend as yet to show who will be eligible for the championship.

Atherton I defeated Atherton II and Delta Zeta won from Kappa Delta by forfeits. Kappa Alpha Theta beat Kappa Kappa Gamma in two games out of three. The previous week the Kappa Kappa Gammas defeated the Co-op, this had been erroneously reported as a Co-op victory. This last week, however, the Co-op secured a forfeit from Gamma Phi Beta. The victors over the Alpha Omicron Pi's were the Alpha Gamma Delta's. The final game of Thursday night was won by the Alpha Chi Omega's as they defeated Chi Omega. All the meets played were won with two games for the victors and one for the losers.

On Wednesday night Phi Sigma conquered Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Delta overcame Phi Mu, Zeta Tau Alpha forfeited to Beta Sigma Omicron, and the Alpha Epsilon Phi's trampled McElwain.

In a two out of three game contest Simmons downed Spruce Cottage Monday evening. The other three matches were forfeits, MacAllister to Leonides, and Women's Building to Philotes. Oak and Hemlock had a double forfeit.

Delta Gamma

Delta Gamma initiated Pat Johnston, Martha Massing, and Tori Williams on Sunday, November 6. Miss Mary Reif, Province secretary, was the guest of Delta Gamma the past weekend.

Alpha Epsilon Phi

Newly elected officers of the Alpha Epsilon Phi pledge class are Joan Fromm, president, Janet Silberg, secretary; Myrna Isaacman, treasurer; and Barbara Silberman, editor.

The second group to receive money from the drive is the American Women's Hospitals. This organization which lacks endowment works to relieve the suffering of the civilian population of Europe.

Hetzl Fund

The third part of the money is used at the College. It goes into the Emergency Fund established by Mrs. Hetzel, wife of the late president of the College.

Chimney boxes will be placed in dormitory lounges, the Corner Room, and the TUB, so that people in any of those places may contribute to the Christmas Drive.

The House of Representatives is conducting the drive. Each dormitory president is responsible for collections in her unit. Publicity is under the direction of Barbara Leith and Eleanor Griffith heads the committee responsible for the Chimney boxes.
