

Town Freshmen Elect Denniston

Barbara Denniston was recently elected freshman town representative to the Freshman Council, Anna Keller, WSGA town senator in charge of the election, stated yesterday.

Only three percent of the freshman town girls eligible to vote participated in the election, which was conducted by a postcard vote, Miss Keller stated. Miss Denniston was elected from a group of girls who were nominated early in November at the WSGA mass meeting. Other candidates for the office were Nancy Higgins, Sylvia Powers, and Anne Reist.

Miss Denniston will be a member of the Council, which is composed of freshman dormitory unit presidents. Barbara Klopp, WSGA sophomore senator, serves as chairman of the group.
