

Senate Gives Freshmen Twelve O'clock Permissions

At its regular meeting Thursday night WSGA voted to give twelve o'clock permissions to freshmen on both Friday and Saturday nights of next week.

The action was taken after consideration of the situation arising next weekend when both the Military Ball and many fraternity pledge dances will be held. At the same meeting Senate voted down the proposal to extend two o'clock permissions for the Military Ball and the regular one o'clock Friday night permissions will be in effect.

WSGA Drive

A report on the progress of the WSGA drive was given by Ella Louise Williams, president of the House of Representatives. Miss Williams appealed to the Senate members to actively participate in promoting the drive. Town girls were asked to make their donations in the "Chimney Boxes" which are situated in the Corner Room, the TUB, the dean of women's office and in all women's dormitories.

Big-Little Sister Tea

Freshmen senator Joan Lee announced the date of the annual WSGA Big-Little Sister Tea as Saturday, January 14. Discussion was held concerning its location, time and probable attendance by women students.

Co-Edits

Delta Delta Delta

Delta Delta Delta recently celebrated Founder's Day with a dinner for the Alumnae in their suite. The chapter marked the 61st Anniversary of the founding of the sorority at Boston College by having as their guest of honor, Mrs. Roland Aungst, charter member of Psi chapter of the University of Pennsylvania.

Tri-Delta pledges were recently entertained by the sisters at a slumber party held in the suite. A breakfast of waffles and hot chocolate was served at 2 a.m.

Phi Sigma Sigma

Officers of the pledge class of the Phi Sigma Sigma are Natalie Frankel, president; Natalie Mandel, vice-president; Iris Goldstein, secretary; and Dotsy Beckman, treasurer.

Phi Epsilon Pi

New house officers of Phi Epsilon Pi fraternity are Harry Swimmer, superior; Henry Schoenseld, vice-superior; Allen Goldenberg, treasurer; L. Julian Goldstein, corresponding secretary; Joseph Lenchner, recording secretary; Guy Shorr, chaplain; and Wayne Spielman, quarterly representative.

Hotel Manager Lauds Behavior of Students

Students of the College who attended the Pitt football game and stayed in Pittsburgh recently were commended for their behavior over the Pitt weekend.

Commendations came from an official of the Hotel Schenley in Pittsburgh, according to information given to M. C. Mateer, part-owner of the State College Hotel. Hotel Schenley was the scene of the "Grand Finale Dance" held after the football game Nov. 19. According to the hotel official, conduct of the Penn State students at the dance was "especially good."

"There was no indication of heavy drinking or any other misbehavior that would reflect on the College," he said.

ZTA Ruins AEPHI Undefeated Record

The Alpha Epsilon Phi girls fell from the list of the undefeated in WRA intramural basketball Thursday night. The team lost to the high-scoring Zeta Tau Alpha's by a 49 to 8 tally.

Along with the Zeta Tau Alphas, Leonides and Phi Mu have unblemished records in Thursday night competition.

Leonides outplayed the Town girls with a 40 to 24 victory. Evelyn Lanning paced Leonides with 24 points.

Philotes was the third team to fall victim to the strong Phi Mu sextet. Betty Zimmerman and Betty Robb led the girls of Phi Mu to a one-sided 38 to 12 triumph.

The other three games were low scoring contests. Theta Phi Alpha turned back Phi Sigma Sigma with a 15 to 8 win.

In a dormitory contest Molly Mallard tallied 12 points to star for McElwain B, which downed Simmons with a 24 to 18 score.

Sigma Delta Tau lost in the other White Hall game, as Alpha Xi Delta outpointed them, 18 to 4.

"Susquehanna is only a small school and from what I hear they don't have too much on the ball this year. I'm hopeful that we can take this first one, but after that it's going to be rough."

DISAPPOINTING

So far the team which placed fifth among collegiate outfits in Pennsylvania last year has not looked too impressive in practice. Lou Lamie, a consistent scoring threat with Lawther's team in '48-'49, has not yet shown the promise expected of him.

"The thing that bothers me is our back-board coverage," said Gross. "I'm really disappointed over the way our rebounding is coming along. We've got the big men but they won't get off their feet."

Storer, six-feet-three-inch, 265-pounder, and Amprim, six-feet-two inches, weighing 200 could be just the tonic the Lions need under the buckets. Both boys were highly praised by Lawther last year as "mighty rough on rebounds."

Big Fellow

Tallest man on the Lion basketball squad will be Jay McMahon, 6-foot-7 son of a former Penn State football and boxing great. Veteran Marty Costa is 6-foot-6.

Coed Teams Begin Competition For IM Swim Crown

Intramural swimming began Thursday evening in the White Hall pool.

Twenty-six teams from the various living units are competing for the WRA water crown. Events are being conducted in free style swimming, back crawl, breast stroke, and novelty contests.

In the first round Atherton N.E. came in first in the competition. Alpha Chi Omega, Gamma Phi Beta came in second and third. Philotes forfeited. Atherton N.E. placed first in the 50 yard crawl, 25 yard back, free style relay, and one novelty race.

The Co-op defeated the Kappa Deltas by a 29 to 24 total score. Both Atherton S.E. and Beta Sigma Omicron forfeited. The Co-op placed first in the breast stroke, back crawl, and two novelty races.

In the third round the Kappa Kappa Gamma placed first over the Chi Omega's. They came out on top in the breast stroke, the back crawl, the free style relay and two novelty races. Hemlock Cottage and Alpha Epsilon Phi forfeited.

One reason that intramural swimming has been revived this year is to make up for the dropping of the national telegraphic competition. The National section on Women's Athletics abolished all telegraphic swimming throughout the country.
