

Frosh, Upperclassmen To Share West Dorms College Booters Accept Bowl Bid

College Plans Counsel Setup For Freshmen

Both freshmen and upperclassmen will live in the west dorm area next fall.

Approximately one thousand freshmen who will be admitted to the main College campus will be assigned to the College-operated dorms on west campus. Three units of these and a dining hall are now being constructed at a cost of about $7,500,000.

Since the west dorms—or combined new dorms and present Tri-dorms—will accommodate a total of more than 1650 students, remaining spaces not assigned to new frosh will be offered to upperclassmen and graduate students.

1000 To Enter

Wilmer Kenworthy, assistant to the president in charge of student affairs, yesterday placed the number of incoming freshman men tentatively at "about 1000." He also announced the decision made Friday by the executive committee of the College Board of Trustees that upperclass and graduate students would be offered the dorm and dining hall facilities "not needed for freshmen." Residence hall and dining hall services in the west area will not be available separately, he said.

A priority system on which students will be offered dorm and dining hall facilities not needed for freshmen has not yet been determined, Kenworthy added. Pointing out that the actual number of incoming frosh will be decided definitely at a later date, he said:

Constitutes Part

"At any rate, the number of freshman men we admit to the main campus in the fall will constitute only a part of the entire class of about 2650 freshman men to be admitted to the College in September. Others will be admitted to undergraduate centers and cooperating colleges under the program that has been in existence since the war."

It will be the first male freshman class to be admitted to the main campus in five years. Virtually no freshman men, as well as women, were on campus in 1946, 1947, and 1948, with 500 on-campus.

(Continued on page eight)

PLANNING TRIP — Ted Lieb, Joe Lane, Ron Coleman and Clarence Buss, (l to r) looking over map as they plan their January 1st trip to St. Louis, Missouri. The Penn State soccer forces meet the University of San Francisco in the nation's first post season soccer bowl game. Coleman, a sophomore soccer sensation, hails from St. Louis. Photo by Milton Moeschlin.

Nittany Soccermen Will Meet San Francisco on January 1

By GEORGE VADASZ

After climaxing a brilliant soccer season, a year which saw the Lions' skein of games without a defeat swell to 14, Coach Bill Jeffrey's proteges have received, and accepted, an invitation to play the University of San Francisco in a post-season bowl game at St. Louis on January 1.

The contest, to be played at Sportsman's Park, the home of the National League baseball Cardinals and the American League Browns, is the first collegiate soccer bowl game in the United States.

It is sponsored by the U. S. Soccer Football Association "to give collegiate soccer more recognition." It is also a preliminary elimination contest to pick a booting unit from the United States, which along with a team from Cuba, will represent the Northern Hemisphere in the World's Cup Series in Brazil next summer.

Delta Sigma Pi Initiates 21

Twenty-one students were initiated into Delta Sigma Pi, national commerce fraternity, at formal initiation ceremonies Sunday night.

Newly initiated members are David Ackerman, Richard Bloom, John Boddington, Dale Campbell, Samuel Casey, Jr., Philip Christy, Roland Ely, Charles Emory.

James Johnson, William Kitzmiller, Martin London, Drew Mahla, Paul McBeth, Ronald Messersmith, Drew Mierley, Thomas O'Toole, Arthur Riley, John Schaffer, Alton Wasson, Stanley Wengert, William Whiteford.

Members, to be eligible for membership into Delta Sigma Pi, must be majoring in commerce or economics and must have at least a 1.75 All-College average.

Board Names 400 Notable Students

The final selection of nearly 400 students for Penn State's annual publication, Who's in the News at Penn State, has been completed, Ed Watson, editor, announced last week.

Selections were made by Ted Allen, all-college president, Jim Gehrdes, Athletic Association president, Tom Morgan, Daily Collegian editor, and Shirley Gauger, WSGA president.

Forms on which the selectees may list their activities will be mailed to those selected by the first of next week.

"This is the greatest recognition that has come to collegiate soccer," said the jubilant Jeffrey yesterday, "it'll give our boys a chance to show national soccer officials how we play the game."

Undefeated

Penn State, in romping through eight straight outings this year, has tallied 33 points as compared to the opposition's eight. Only once in the past two seasons, at Annapolis against Navy last year, did the Lions suffer a setback.

This year's victims included West Chester, Bucknell, Syracuse, Navy, Colgate, North Carolina, Maryland and Temple.

Meanwhile the University of San Francisco, coached by a good friend of Jeffrey's, Gus Donoghue, has stormed to the Pacific Coast championships, which includes such West Coast powerhouses as California, Stanford, San Francisco State and Southern California.

"The winner of the game," commented Jeffrey, "will not necessarily represent the United States at the Cup next year, but there is a possibility that he might be considered."

Tournament

The World's Cup Tournament, to be staged at Rio de Janeiro will be played in a stadium, being built now to seat 165,000 spectators.

Sixteen nations, the world over, will be represented. Jeffrey expects Spain, Italy, Scotland, Great Britain, and other such soccer nations, to send teams, along with Brazil, Cuba, Argentina and the United States.

Jeffrey

The January 1 affair, at St. Louis, will mark the second post season tussle for the Lions since

(Continued on page five)

Timetables

Timetables for the Spring semester are now on sale, according to the scheduling office. They can be obtained in room 2 or 4 Willard Hall for 15 cents.

Late AP News Courtesy WMAJ

Chinese Reds Near Chengtu

HONG KONG — Chinese Communist troops were reported late yesterday only 100 miles from Chengtu, the latest Nationalist capital. Nationalist officials are crowding the air field waiting to be taken to the island of Formosa before the red troops invade the city.

Atomic Stoppage

LONDON — Britain's stoppage of work on her largest atom pile may be an indication of an exchange of atomic information with the United States. The order to stop work on the atom pile was issued just after Britain's Chief of Atomic Development, Sir John Cockcroft, returned from conferences with American and Canadian atomic experts.

Russians Accused

WASHINGTON — A former air force major, George R. Jordan, testified in Congress that he discovered Russian officers confiscating U.S. atomic material. He said it occurred at a Montana airport in 1944.

Collegian Lists 46 Promotions

Forty-six candidates on the staff of The Daily Collegian have been moved up to the sophomore editorial board, Thomas Morgan, editor, announced today.

Those promoted include La Vonne Althouse, Carolyn Barrett, Paul Beighley, Dorothy Bennett, Jean Berg, Ronald Bonn, Lillian Cassover, Anne Collins, David Colton, Rosemary Delahanty, Yerdis Ellison, Stanley Ginsburg, George Glazer, Doris Golub, Dorothy Grosky.

Elizabeth Hill, Carl Huber, Julia Ibbotson, Patricia Ingham, Myrna Isaacman, Lowell Keller, Marguerite Kober, Marvin Krasnansky, Joan Kuntz, Audrey Lipsky, Jeanie Maginnis, Richard Martz, Sally Miller, Moylan Mills.

Ernest Moore, Cordell Murtha, Reinmiller, Robert Schooley, Pegge Shierson, Pat Sweeley, Carol Thompson, Florenz Tietz, Robert Vosburg, Lynette Wilson, Norma Zehner.

Today . . .

The Nittany Lion Roars

For the College debate squad, which tied for first place in the Old Dominion Debate tournament at the University of Florida, Friday and Saturday.

Following their second place in the Vermont Debate tournament last weekend, it stamped the local crew as one of the talkingest debate teams in the nation.

The Lion utters a yackety yowl for our vociferous standard bearers, Messrs. Shultz, McDougall, Schweiker, et. al., and urges them on to even greater heights in the field of oral warfare.

New Dormitory Units — For Frosh And Upperclassmen . . .

Here's an architect's drawing of the west dormitories — combining the present Tri-Dorms and three new dorm units now in construction. Unit number one is at far right and unit two is at far left, while unit three—located along the curve where Burrows and Curtin Roads merge, is not shown. A terraced court, facing Pollock Road and the Mineral Industries Building, will be formed by new units number one and two, and the Tri-Dorms. A dining hall will be located between unit two and Burrows Road. Present construction is slated to be finished by next fall.