

Atherton SE Places First In Second Swimming Meet

Atherton SE placed first in the first heat of the second intramural swimming meet held last Thursday at White Hall. Winning the 50 yard crawl, 25 yard breast stroke and the 25 yard back crawl, the Ath team amassed 27 points. Simmons came in second with 24 and Leonides, third with 17.

Jean Herd starred for the victors placing first in the crawl with a time of 30.8 seconds, first in the breast stroke, 19-7, and in the back crawl, 17.

Second Heat

In the second heat another freshman team, Atherton SW came out first with 31 points. Kappa Alpha Theta placed second with 21 and Women's Building was third with 16. The Ath team placed first in the back crawl stroke.

Lynn Guillet, Kappa Alpha Theta, placed second in the 50 yard crawl with a time of 31.8 followed by Joan Siesel, Simmons in 33.6 and Lois Evans, Ath SW in 34.

A Leonides team member, A. Siegel, finished second in the breast stroke in 22.8 seconds followed by Phyllis Kesseler, Ath SW, at 25.8.

Back Crawl

Nancy Harris, Ath SW, placed second in the back crawl in 18.8 with Sally Shapiro, Simmons, and Sally Sechler, Kappa Alpha Theta following.

Kappa Alpha Theta finished first in the 100 yard free style relay with a time of 1.06 minutes. Ath SW, placed second with a time of 1.08, followed by Ath SE in 1.09 and Simmons, 1.09.7.

Ath NW, Theta Phi Alpha, Delta Gamma and Delta Zeta forfeited.

Replies Requested For Journalism Tea

Coeds who have been invited to the Theta Sigma Phi tea are urged to reply as soon as possible, Myrna Tex, president, said yesterday.

The tea will take place in Simmons Lounge, 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Miss Dorothy Dignam, copywriter for N. W. Ayer & Son, Inc., an advertising agency in New York City, will be the guest speaker. She will give a short talk on "Feminine Futures in Advertising and Publicity."

Members of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, journalism professor's wives, the dean of women and her staff, and all women majoring in journalism have been invited to attend the tea.

Zeta Beta Tau

Zeta Beta Tau entertained members of the Sigma Delta Tau sorority on Sunday afternoon. A show by the pledge class and a quiz program highlighted the entertainment.

Three Forfeits Mark Monday Night Games In IM Basketball

Only one basketball game was played Monday night of the four scheduled for Leagues I and II. Ath SW II defeated NW I, 26-18 with Ann Miller pacing the winners with 12 points. In their first meeting NW I had defeated SW II, 16-6.

SE I remained the only undefeated team by gaining a forfeit over NE I last night. The first contest between the two teams was also a victory for SE I by forfeit.

NW II forfeited to SW I after SW I had defeated them 27-9 in the first half of the schedule.

Both SE II and NE II forfeited in the second game of League II. Previously NE II had won, 21-11.

Dean Weston Grants Caroling Permission

Miss Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, has announced that Sunday night is being set aside as carol night for any group of students who want to go caroling. All women will be given 11 o'clock permissions which will enable them to join in the yuletide, singing.

It was also announced that the annual candlelight Christmas dinner will be held Thursday evening in all the dormitories, which are beautifully decorated with lights and trees to fit the holiday season.

Lost Article

Who is the coed at the College who has clothes to throw away? A black faille bolero suit, which was left in the dean of women's office a month ago, has not yet been claimed. The office requests that the owner of this suit, apparently a product of the Home Ec School, contact them as soon as possible.

Mary Lou Hollis, Active Leader, Serves as Leonides' President

Mary Lou Hollis, a senior in psychology, is this year's president of Leonides.

Mrs. Hollis has been active in several fields since she came to the College. She has been secretary and vice president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. As President of McAllister Hall, she served in WSGA House of Representatives.

Mary Lou Hollis

She also was a member of the WSGA Senate, a past vice president of Leonides, and a member of the Psychology Club. A graduate of the Lancaster General Hospital School of Nursing, Mrs. Hollis served as a captain in the Army Nurse Corps in the European theater from 1943 to 1946. She married Robert Hollis, a graduate student in biochemistry, in Lancaster, Pa., on August 27, 1949.

Solve Your Laundry Problem!

Machines will wash your laundry in less than no time. 9 lbs. for only 30c.

Quick, Courteous Service

MARSHALL'S
AUTOMATIC LAUNDRY
454 E. College Ave.—Rear

Plenty of Free Parking Space

Sigma Nu

Members of Sigma Nu held a Christmas dance in their chapter house on Saturday night.

Penn Ski Club To Present Winter Fashion Parade

Miss Phyllis Lee Schwabe, former director of the Mademoiselle College Board and now on the executive board, will serve as commentator for the Penn Valley Ski Club's presentation of "Ski Fallies," their winter fashion parade, in 10 Sparks at 8:30 p.m. Thursday.

Ski wear and formal fashions will be shown through the cooperation of Kalin's Men Shop and the Charles Shop for Women, both located on South Allen street. Members of the Ski Club will model the apparel in the "Fallies," promoted in addition to the above groups by Esquire Magazine for Men and by Mademoiselle.

The affair will be the first of its kind to be presented at the College under the endorsement of nationally known magazines of such large circulation and Mr. Charles Peinick, owner of the Charles Shop, expressed concern about student participation, adding that such a demonstration might bring wider and more appealing publicity to the College.

Pacific Provides Christmas Setting

The cold, gray Pacific will provide the setting for the celebration of Christmas, 1949 by Hsieh-Yo Hou and Pei-Hung Ling, Penn State graduate students returning to their war-ridden Chinese homeland.

Both men will rejoin their wives sometime after New Years. Mrs. Hou, a college graduate, is an evangelist presently working in an orphanage in Kwantung province in South China. Her husband has his PhD in Agronomy.

Mrs. Ling, now working as nurse in Central China will join her husband in North China where he will be mining engineer at Kuh-Lien mine, one of the largest coal mines in China.

Meanwhile the S.S. Grover Cleveland will be home for two Penn State students as Christmas is celebrated some days out of Los Angeles. Hong Kong is the destination, but Mr. Ling and Mr. Hou will not be there till 1950.

Pi Lambda Sigma

Pi Lambda Sigma, pre-legal honorary, recently announced the initiation of 12 new members.

Those initiated were: Christine Altenburger, Robert Keller, John Palmer, James Dente, Michael Ritz, Jr., Charles Hayer, Melvin Plonk, Carmen Stanzola, William Nichol, Johns Jones, John Conrady, and Charles Jones.

Co-Edits

Alpha Epsilon Pi

Recently elected officers of Alpha Epsilon Pi are Samuel Hurwitz, master; Stephen Blumenthal, lieutenant master; Emanuel Asness, exchequer; Murray Rothman, scribe; Marvin Schiller, member-at-large; Robert Lazar, assistant exchequer; Paul Steingard, corresponding scribe; Albert Adelman, house manager; Jay Shear, caterer; and George Swadlow, sentinel.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Newly elected officers of Sigma Phi Epsilon are Harry Savisky, president; Jack Dux, vice-pres.; Harold Clauss secretary; Jack Heffer, historian; and Parker Tupin, alumni secretary.

A pledge dinner dance was held at the chapter house on Saturday night.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained the Alpha Chi Omega sorority last Wednesday evening at the fraternity house.

Delta Upsilon

Delta Upsilon fraternity held a formal dance at the chapter house on Saturday night.

Alpha Tau Omega

Alpha Tau Omega entertained the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority last Tuesday night at dinner.

Phi Sigma Sigma

Newly elected officers of Phi Sigma Sigma are Gloria Isenberg, archon; Regina Friedman, vice-archon; Jean Shtasel, tribune; Phyllis Feinsilber, scribe; Rhoda Hyman, bursar; Marjorie Alsberg, rush chairman; and Shirley Siegal, social chairman.

College
Diner

"Between the Movies"

STATE COLLEGE

HOUSE OF COOK

CANDLELIGHT
DINNER
TONIGHT

230 East College Ave.

For Gifts That
Ring
Christmas Bells

It's the
SMART SHOP

Drop in and see our selection of fancy gifts without fancy prices.

BLOUSES—

All kinds and colors . . . from cotton to nylon . . . from plaid to plain.

SLIPS—

Tailored or lace trimmed for perfect gift to find under the Christmas tree.

HOSE—

Famous Mojud Hosiery Quality and beauty combined

OTHER GIFT SUGGESTIONS—

Nylon sweaters
Hand bags
Cotton pajamas
Scarfs

Smart Shop

S. Allen St.