

Panhellenic Council Plans Rushing Get-Together

A rushing get-together between members of Panhellenic Council and all girls interested in joining a sorority will be held in Ather-ton Hall lounges from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday, Gilda Greco, rushing chairman, and Delores Jelacic, president of Panhel, stated yesterday.

The meeting will pertain particularly to freshman women, whose first formal rushing period will be observed next semester, in accordance with the rules prescribed in the Panhellenic Guidebook.

Group Discussions

Girls attending the get-together will be divided into groups where the rushing situation, the rushing code and sororities in general will be explained by members of Panhel. Any questions will be answered. Immediately following the small group discussions Miss Ella Mae Jackson, assistant to the dean of women and advisor to Panhel, will deliver a talk concerning the same subjects.

Pre-Registration

The meeting will also serve as an opportunity for all interested girls to pre-register for rushing. Payment of the $1 rushing fee and regular registration will not be made until the date originally scheduled in the Panhellenic rushing code.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity in the latter's chapter house Saturday, December 17, with a Christmas party.

Pledges of the sorority gave an annual Christmas party for alumnae and actives in the sorority suite on Monday night before vacation.

Kappa Sigma

Members of Kappa Alpha Theta were entertained Saturday, December 16, at a roller skating party by the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Delores Jelacic

Phi Kappa fraternity entertained Delta Zeta sorority on Sunday, December 18, at the chapter house.

Activities Honorary Taps Twenty-Four Sophomore Women

Cwens, sophomore activities honorary, tapped 24 sophomore women at tapping services on Sunday morning December 18.

Girls selected were chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service to the College. Minimum scholastic standard necessary to be selected was a 1.5 All-College average.

Cwens originally functioned as a service honorary to recognize women who had been outstanding in their freshman year at college. The College's system of farming out freshman, however, necessitated changes and cognizance is now given to the record of a girl's freshman year and beginning sophomore semester at the College. Transfers are ineligible for tapping and those girls chosen by Cwens may not be tapped by Chimes, junior women's honorary.

Girls tapped are Jeaninne Bell, Janel L. Brown, Robin Brunner, Joann Claycomb, Yerdis Ellison, Katherine Gilroy, Marcia Grimshaw, Joyce Harkins, Myrna Issacman, Lois Jakob, Marilyn E. Jones, Geraldine Kassao, Barbara Klopp, Eleanor Miller, Virginia Miller, Virginia Preuss.

Lois Pulver, Sally Shapiro, Sally Shoemaker, Mary Ann Stewart, Byrne Tetley, Emma Jean Way, Joan Wiley and Marilyn Williams.

Engagements

Margolf—Keefer

The engagement of Barbara Keefer of Littlestown and Charles Margolf of State College, was announced over the holidays.

Miss Keefer graduated from the College in February, 1949. She was advertising director of Collegian and a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Margolf is now a senior in industrial engineering. He is president of Delta Upsilon, the Glee Club and a member of Skull and Bones and the soccer team.

Gladfelter—Bradshaw

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bradshaw, Mt. Lebanon, announced on New Year's Day the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to L. Dean Gladfelter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Evan R. Gladfelter, York.

Both are arts and sciences majors at the College. Miss Bradshaw is secretary of Beta Sigma Omicron, and Gladfelter is on the junior editorial board of The Daily Collegian.

No date for the wedding has been set.

Murray—Horne

Delores Horne of Smithton and John A. Murray, Jr. of Camp Hill

were formally engaged over the Christmas vacation.

Miss Horne, a junior in journalism, is a member of Cwens and Chi Omega sorority.

Murray, a past member of the College football team, is a senior majoring in physical education. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Sigma Chi

Sigma Chi fraternity entertained members of Kappa Alpha Theta at an informal dinner in the chapter house Thursday, December 15.
