Cabinet ---

 secretary-treasurer, charged that the list was overburdened with persons from publications and the La Vie staff and that other groups had been slighted. The list revealed that only three athletes were included in the total of 32, with 10 persons in publications, according to Saul. Saul pointed out that some of them were also active in other fields, however.
 Saul made it clear at the meeting that La Vie senior board would not feel compelled to comply with the Cabinet request, and that in view of their May 14 deadline it would be hard to delay production.
 Suggestions were made to remedy the situation. Kondourajian suggested that the selections be made by the presidents of the leading organizations on campus. Robert Keller, chairman of Tribunal, who attended, said that

All-College Cabinet would be "a good sounding board."
 Thomas Morgan, editor of the Daily Collegian; Shirley Gauger, president of WSGA; Eugene Fulmer, former All-College secretary-treasurer and others joined in the criticism of La Vie's policy.
 The persons who have been chosen by La Vie to appear in the campus personalities section are Ted Allen, Robert Anderson, James Balog, Barbara Brown, Richard Clair, Charles Drazenovich, Frances Eschelman, Shirley Gauger, James Gehrdes, Peter Giesey, Anna Keller, Robert Keller, Elliot Krane, Ruth Lehman.
 James MacCallum, Harry McMahon, Sidney Manes, Virginia Miller, Ethel May Mognet, Thomas Morgan, Negley Norton, Jack Reen, Wilbert Roth, Ramon Saul, John Senior, Nancy Smith, Morton Snitzer, Lorraine Stotler, Elizabeth Taylor, Myrna Tex, Francine Toll, and George Vadasz.
 Saul read the list to cabinet last night.
