

Spring
Carnival
Coming

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

Today's Weather:
Fair and cold

VOL. 50 — NO. 67

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 17, 1950

PRICE FIVE CENTS

On 'Houck Night'

—Photo by Otto Pfferkorn

"... You can't give to a better guy than Leo Houck." Charles Drzenovich, boxing captain, speaks to the packed house which honored the Nittany boxing coach Saturday in Recreation Hall. To the right is William Shade, head boxing manager.

'Houck Night' Raises $924

Exactly $924 was contributed Saturday in Recreation Hall, by students on "Leo Houck Night" Thomas Morgan, chairman, announced yesterday.

The sum, collected by 42 campus hatmen between the wrestling and boxing meets, has been added to a local "Friends of Leo Houck" campaign to raise $5,000 for the family of the ailing Houck, Nittany boxing coach for 27 years. The money was turned over to Walter R. Hosterman, assistant graduate manager of athletics.

Hosterman reported yesterday that, including the student contribution, about $3,000 has now been raised.

Further contributions may be made by addressing them to "Friends of Leo Houck," State College, Pa., or by taking them to The Daily Collegian office, Carnegie Hall.

Engineers Hear Tunnel Lecture

Student members of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Institute of Radio Engineers along with the Centre County sub-section will meet in 10 Sparks at 7:30 tonight to hear lectures by Dr. R. Burton Power and Dr. James M. Robertson concerning the use of the Navy's new water tunnel here.

Following the lectures the two groups, with the American Society of Mechanical Engineers of the College, will make an inspection of the W. Garfield Thomas Memorial project, if electrical power is available there.

Dr. Power's talk, "Water Tunnel Control Systems," will include the various systems for controlling temperature, pressure and velocity in the tunnel. Dr. Robertson will discuss the means of initially testing the tunnel and its actual use in the testing of torpedoes.

Bonus Blanks

Veterans may pick up their bonus blanks in 205 Old Main sometime tomorrow, Robert Galbraith, Faculty Counselor for Veterans, announced today.

Tests Required Before Vets Change Courses

Any veteran desiring to change his course of training from one school of the College to another must comply with current Veterans Administration regulations requiring that he undergo testing by approved guidance facilities, Richard H. Baker, coordinator of veterans affairs, announced today.

Arrangements have been made for campus veterans desiring to make this change, to have the testing done through the Psychological Clinic, in 3 Burrows. Veterans wishing to change their course at the beginning of the Spring Semester, 1950, should proceed as follows:

Approval must first be secured from the dean of the School in which the student wishes to matriculate in conformance with current college regulations; report to 3 Willard Hall, to have VA form 7-1905e, "Request for Change of Course," completed in triplicate; secure from recorder's office a copy of their latest transcript; report to the Psychological Clinic with 1905e's and transcript, for scheduling of tests.

Return Results

After tests have been completed, the veteran will be given two copies of the completed 7-1905e which will then be returned to 3 Willard Hall.

Final approval of the change of course will be given by the VA regional office at Wilkes-Barre, and the veteran will be informed by the usual "Authorization of Training" form.

Veterans undergoing change of course testing may turn in book receipts at the usual time, but they will not be refunded until final approval is received from the Veterans Administration.

It should be pointed out that only one change of course may be permitted under this procedure. Subsequent changes may be accomplished only through Guidance Centers conducted by the VA, the nearest one being at the Williamsport Sub-Regional Office.

News Briefs

BX Refunds

Today is the last day to turn in B X receipts in order to receive 20% cash refund on purchases of school supplies for this semester.

A.T.A. Meeting

There will be an hort business meeting of A.T.A. at Alpha Zeta fraternity at 7:30 p.m. tonight. Dean Jackson will be guest speaker and national conclave reports will be made.

Student Employment

All students who registered with the student employment office this semester and who are still interested in employment during the spring semester should come to the office and fill out new schedule cards as soon as possible.

Student Handbook

Students on the editorial, advertising, and business staffs of the 1949-1950 Student Handbook are urged to make recommendations for next year's staff in 304 Old Main up to the end of this week Jack Reen, editor said today.

Sculpture Talk

John Y. Roy, assistant of fine arts at the College, will present a gallery talk in connection with the exhibit of modern sculpture in the Home Economics Living Center, at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

Talent Call Extended

The deadline for entry in the Penn State Club Talent Show has been extended to 5 o'clock tomorrow.

Students with all forms of talent are asked to sign up at the Student Union desk in Old Main. The show will be staged at Schwab Auditorium, Feb. 17.

The club will hold its regular meeting in 405 Old Main at 7 o'clock tonight.

Next Semester To Be Highlighted By Annual Spring Week Carnival

Late AP News Courtesy WMAJ

Miners Rebel Against Lewis, Claims Battle

WASHINGTON—There is considerable activity in the coal industry. John D. Battle said in Washington today that the current refusal of soft coal miners to return to work was a "rebellion" against John L. Lewis. While in Eastern Pennsylvania's hard coal fields there is a reported move to set up a rival union to the United Mine Workers.

Consider School Aid

WASHINGTON — The House Labor Committee has voted to consider the Senate-approved School Aid Bill on February. The bill calls for 300 million dollar Federal aid to schools.

Russia Walks Out

LAKE SUCCESS—Russia and her satellites walked out of three United Nations committees today. The moves are in support of the Soviet bloc's protest against the presence of Chinese Nationalists at the UN.

Jack Senior Heads Planning Group For Second Annual Festival of Fun

Spring Week, a time of gay festivities, will again be an outstanding feature of the Spring semester. All-College President Ted Allen appointed a 6-man committee at Thursday's meeting of All-College Cabinet to draw up plans for the occasion. The highlight of the week will be the Carnival. Dates will be announced later.

Chairman of the committee is Jack Senior. Working with him are Robert Gabriel, IFC; William Norcross, AIM; Dorothy Werlich, Panhel; Florence Freeman, Leonides; and John Dalbor, Daily Collegian.

According to Senior, the committee has a wealth of ideas for the occasion and he said that everything will be done to make the event a "big week."

The original idea for Spring Week was proposed by Froth in conjunction with its 40th anniversary last spring. James Dunaway, Froth promotion manager at that time, took the plan to Inter-Fraternity Council in November, 1948.

An investigating committee, including Senior, was appointed to work in conjunction with Panhel. A survey showed that the students were in favor of such a week, and an overwhelming majority favored a Carnival.

Cabinet Hears Plans

Plans were proposed to All-College Cabinet in December, and a committee appointed. Dunaway was named chairman of the Carnival committee. Letters were sent to various campus groups asking them to enter booths.

More than 50 organizations submitted plans for booths and stands of a wide variety of entertainment. Pie throwing, baseball, sponge throwing, gambling games, and talent shows, revues, and side shows were among those entered.

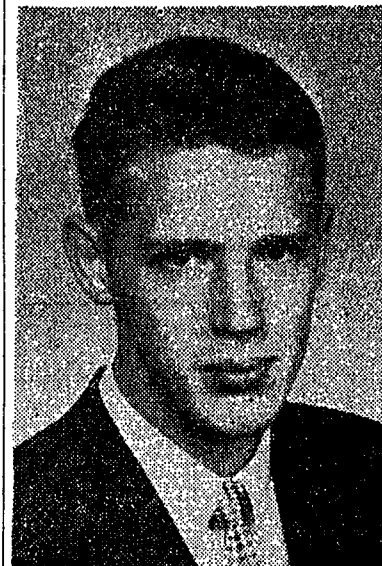

Stretching along South Allen street, the Carnival was scheduled to open the "Week's" festivities March 31. However, at the last minute, rain forced postponement until late in April.

This disappointment was of short duration for the other plans of merriment moved into high gear as scheduled.

Queen Crowned

The IFC-Panhel Ball, featuring Tommy Dorsey, attracted a huge throng to Rec Hall. Lois Kenyon was crowned Miss Spring Week Queen during intermission and the finals of the IFC-Panhel song fest saw Beta Theta Pi and

(Continued on page four)

Jack Senior

Saturday Deadline For Dorm Contracts

Students who plan to terminate their dormitory contracts at the close of the semester have until Saturday, January 21, to do so, the office of the dean of men has announced.

Graduating seniors also are asked to notify the office of their intentions for the spring semester. Failure to notify the College will result in being billed for next semester's fees for room and board.

More than 75 applications for Tri-Dorms already have been received, the office said, while only 12 rooms are available for next semester.

Padover Opens Lecture Series

The 1950 Liberal Arts lecture series will open when Dr. Saul K. Padover, professor at the Graduate Faculty, The New School for Social Research, New York, speaks at 8 o'clock tonight in Room 121, Sparks. The topic of his speech will be "Mass Revolution: Its Psychology and Understanding."

Dr. Padover, who is the author of four volumes on Thomas Jefferson, is considered one of the greatest living authorities on the third president.

In 1936, Dr. Padover was awarded the Guggenheim Fellowship and studied a year in Paris, Vienna, and London, working on his book, "The Life and Death of Louis XVI."

The lecture will be open to the public.

Sociology Club

The Sociology Club will hold its meeting in conjunction with the Liberal Arts lecture series tonight. All members are urged to attend Dr. Padover's talk in 121 Sparks at 8 o'clock tonight.

Froth Ad Staff

The staff is asked to turn ads into the Froth office, Thursday, January 19, between 1 and 5.

Penn State Club

The Penn State Club will hold its regular meeting in 405 Old Main at 7 o'clock tonight.

Today ...

The Nittany Lion Roars

FOR the student contributors to the "Friends of Leo Houck" fund.

Over $900 was collected for the long-time boxing coach from members of the student body who attended the "Leo Houck Night" sports double-header at Rec Hall Saturday night.

A warm roar from the Lion to the generous donors who are helping to make sure a great guy's family is well taken care of.