Incident Proves Unselfishness

by Myrna Issacman

Just to show you that our College is not only concerned with its own welfare but with the welfare of other schools as well, here's an incident that occurred recently.

Marian Hall, a former student at the College, now a dietician in one of the dining rooms at the University of Oklahoma, sent a note of appreciation to the dean of women's office. Speaking for the entire student body at the University, she thanked the College for giving financial aid to their school when they were in such dire need.

Several months ago, fire broke out in the men's dorm at the University, causing the destruction of the building, all clothes, and all other possessions. As Miss Hall's card states, "The boys were left homeless, penniless, and desperate!" Our All-College Cabinet then took steps which resulted in the appropriation of fifty dollars to give help to these boys. It is because of actions like these that we should be proud of our College.

Spring Week---

The following morning a radio program, "Breakfast in Bedlam" was broadcast over WMAJ from the TUB. That afternoon, bebop fans jammed Schwab Auditorium, and the day was climaxed with houseparties at fraternities and a large AIM party at the University Club.

The Men's Glee Club concert was held in Schwab Auditorium the next day, winding up the revelry.

The Carnival, a huge success, became a reality on April 29. Approximately $1,000 was turned over to the World Student Service Fund drive.

The Daily Collegian will carry news of this year's Spring Week as plans progress.
