

Day-Student Rooms In Women's Building To Open On Friday

The new Day-Student rooms in Woman's Building will be officially opened with an Open House from 2 to 5 p.m. on Friday.

These rooms, essentially a private suite in the south end of Woman's Building, are a project of the 1949 Cwens to be administered by succeeding groups of Cwens. Girls who do not live in the dormitories have long been in need of a campus "home", and Cwens is helping them to realize this goal.

The rooms are being opened at this time because it is believed that the girls will need centrally located rooms in which to study or relax, drop packages or leave messages for friends during exam week. The use of the rooms will be subject to dormitory regulations and, therefore, will be open from 7:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. every day. Members of the orientation crew and honoraries will be welcome to use these facilities whenever the need arises. Mrs. Katharine Donor will serve as hostess.
