

Lions Win 82-56, Shatter Rec Hall Mark

Williams Scores 23, McMahan, 17 In Foul-Bogged Mountaineer Rout

By RAY KOEHLER

A flashy pair of sophomore performers, Hardy Williams and Jay McMahan, stole the show last night at Rec Hall as they led Penn State's cagers to a rousing 82 to 56 win over a stunned West Virginia team.

In tabbing their astronomical 82 points the Nittany offense established a modern Rec Hall record before another well-filled house of about 4600 fans.

For the Lions it marked a startling reversal of form over their three previous showings in which they sustained successive losses. The win was State's tenth against seven setbacks, while the Mountaineers, playing without the benefit of Coach Lee Patton, who was injured in an automobile accident, were plucked for their ninth loss against ten wins.

62 FOULS

Local fans witnessed the roughest fray played on Nittany boards this season as 62 personal fouls enlivened an otherwise dull contest.

Fourteen points through the combined efforts of Williams and the 6-foot 6-inch McMahan—in the last minute-and-one-half of the first half—catapulted Penn State from a nip-and-tuck 24 to 23 edge into a 12 point, 38 to 26 intermission advantage.

From that point on the Mountaineers couldn't do a thing right and, as the Nittany score mounted into run-a-way proportions, Coach Elmer Gross cleared his bench in order to give his second-stringers a chance.

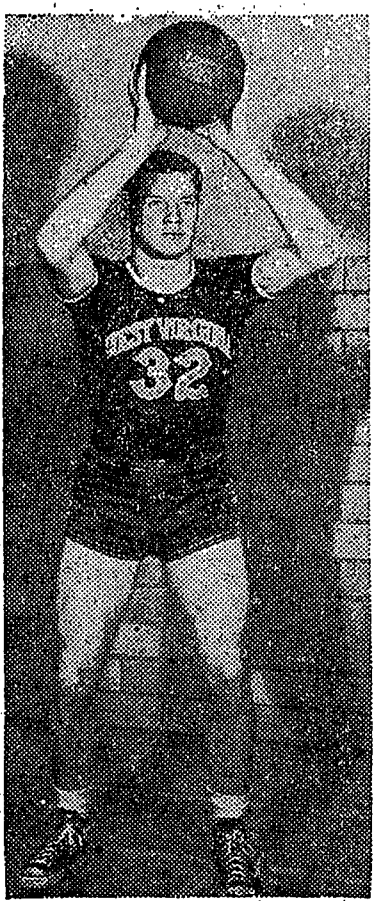

After Marty Costa had given the Lions a 24 to 24 tie with a foul shot, McMahan drove through with three tap shots and a pair of fouls. Williams then ripped on three consecutive one-hand shots to give State its commanding half-time edge.

WILLIAMS SETS PACE

Williams 23 points set the contest's individual pace and also marked the second highest number of tallies to be scored in Rec Hall this season. The highwater total is 32 set by Costa against American U. McMahan came through with seven field goals and three foul shots for 17 counters after a slow start.

The Mountaineers' Jim Coalter paced his team with nine tallies, most of which were bagged in the ragged last ten minutes play. Ed Beach, whose work on the pivot was about the finest seen by local cage circles here this season, tabbed seven while Mark Workman, good-looking sophomore find, Jack Shockey and Harry Moore each scored eight times.

West Virginia was mentored by Assistant Coach Pat Ward in Patton's absence. Ward last saw the Mountaineer coach yesterday

Draz Leads Boxers In Total Ring Wins

When the National Collegiate Boxing Tournament opens at Rec Hall in April, Charlie Drazenovich, the Brownsville Bombarter, will be a top contender for the national heavyweight title.

The Draz, after knocking out the current titleholder, Marty Crandell, now has an even dozen victories to his credit in three years of campaigning in the ring. Currently he is the defending Eastern Intercollegiate heavyweight champion.

As a sophomore the Draz copied six while dropping one; last year he ended the season with a 3-3-2 log. To date he owns three wins against a lone defeat.

SPE Upsets Theti Chi, Throws League Into Tie

Sigma Phi Epsilon threw League D into a three way tie Tuesday night by upsetting Theta Chi, 23-20. The top rung of the league is now shared by Theta Chi, SPE, and Alpha Gamma Rho.

Leaving the floor at half time with a six point lead, SPE turned back a second half rally by the previously undefeated Theta Chi quintet which fell three points short of the mark. George Jacobs led the way for the winners with seven points.

PHI SIG'S WIN

In the other League contest, Phi Sigma Delta handed Theta Xi its fourth loss, 35-15. Kurt Herman took scoring honors for the evening with 12 points as he led his team to victory.

Phi Kappa Psi posted victory number four in League B at the expense of Phi Gamma Delta, 13-8. The win put the victors into a tie with Alpha Phi Alpha for the lead position. Tom Robinson got six points for PKP.

Phi Epsilon Pi, aided by a brother act in the persons of Irv and Lou Cohen who each tossed in ten points, finally broke into the win column with a 34-16 conquest of Sigma Phi Alpha.

In the lone League E game, Phi Kappa Tau topped Delta Sigma Phi, 20-12, for its second victory of the season. Bob Monahan took scoring honors for the winners with seven points.

SAE

Sigma Alpha Epsilon kept its chances for a playoff position alive in League C by defeating Phi Sigma Kappa 17-9 with John Walker leading the way with six. Also in League E, Phi Kappa, sparked by John Schaffer and Al Kovar who tossed in six points apiece, smashed Alpha Epsilon Pi, 17-9.

Alpha Zeta jumped to within a half game of tying Sigma Pi for the number one spot in League A by whipping Kappa Sigma 19-13. Chuck Widekind was high for the winners with seven.

The other League A contest saw Lambda Chi Alpha even its record to 2-2 by trouncing Triangle, 21-10. Dick Hughes was the big point maker for the winners with six points.

Jeffrey To Speak
