

Sorority Parties Begin; Open Final Rushing Week

The first set of sorority parties last night began the final week of formal rushing that will be climaxed with the formal coffee hours Saturday afternoon.

Parties for the rushees were given last night and will be held Wednesday night by the following sororities: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Epsilon Phi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Zeta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Sigma Delta Tau, and Theta Phi Alpha.

Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Xi Delta, Beta Sigma Omicron, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kappa Delta, Phi Mu, Phi Sigma Sigma, and Zeta Tau Alpha will be hostesses for informal parties tonight and Thursday evening in the sorority suites.

Several pertinent points should be stressed to ease the confusion of rushing and use of the Panhellenic post office, advisors to Panhel, stated.

Sororities and rushees should adhere closely to the mimeographed revised Panhellenic schedule as the one in the Panhel post office in Atherton Hall each morning. This mail from the sorority rushees refers to that day of rushing only. Therefore, mail from both groups should not be brought in advance or behind the schedule given. No coke dates may be given this week for rushees between 6:30 and 7:30 in the evening.

Today sororities turn in coke cards and party invitations for today's rushing at 8 a.m. The rushees pick up coke cards and party invitations at 9:30 a.m. Rushees return coke cards and party answers by 12:15 p.m. Sororities pick up coke cards by 12:45 p.m. Sororities pick up party answers by two p.m.

The schedule for Wednesday is identical to that of today.

Debating Tryouts Held for Women

Tryouts for sophomore, junior, and senior women interested in debate will be held tonight at 6:30 p.m. in 2 Sparks, Coach Clayton Schug announced yesterday.

Freshmen women who wish to schedule debate will be eligible for the squad without trying out and should report to 2 Sparks tomorrow night at 6:30.

Students may receive one to three credits for debate. Classes are held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m. Last night in Sparks Yvonne Carter, Peggy Fahringer, Pat Hathaway, and Rita Keeney debated against teams from Juniata College.

Jo Anne Esterly, Norma Hollender, Lois Pulver, and Carol Siswein will travel to Juniata for a return match next week.

Soph Team Looms As Potential Victor In IM Basketball

Sophomores loom as the potential victors in women's interclass basketball competition played on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of last week and last night of this week, as their team won three out of three in the initial battles.

The junior team has secured two victories; the freshmen, one; and seniors, none.

In games last Tuesday night the juniors swamped the senior team with a 36-16 victory. JoAnn Hoy led the victors with 15 points followed by Evelyn Laning who tallied 12 points.

Sophs Win
On the same night the sophomores won their first game by defeating the freshmen 21-16. Highest scorer in this fray was Ann Miller who tallied 11 points for the losing freshmen. Jeanine Howell led the sophomores with 9 points.

On Wednesday the sophomores won their second game in conquering the senior team. Lillie Fretz threw in 9 points as high scorer for the winning sophomores.

A second victory for the juniors was recorded Wednesday evening in a 31-19 fray against the freshmen. Helen Griffin paced the victors with 13 points followed closely by Laning with 11 and Cassandra Caraway with 10 for the losers.

Third Win
In Thursday's night competition the sophomores garnered their third win, defeating the juniors 25-18. High scorers for the two teams were Fretz with 12 points for the winners and Hoy with 10 for the losers. First win for the freshmen was recorded by means of a forfeit from the seniors.

Last night's competition was the last in interclass games. Beginning tonight and continuing through tomorrow and Thursday of this week, Army-Navy rivalry will have pre-dominance. Girls participating in this are selected on the basis of their playing throughout the basketball season.

Squads
Participants in interclass basketball were Freshmen Cassandra Caraway, Lee Coy, Agnes Barth, Patricia Frank, Peggy LeMaster, Jane LeRew, Mable Marple, Ann Miller, Edna Peterson, Adith Raak, Anita Tyler, Diane Wensing.
