

Debate Foreign Policy Tonight

Three Students Debate US-USSR Policy Today

Three student leaders will debate the question of "U.S. Foreign Policy toward Russia" in Schwab auditorium at 7:30 tonight. Admission is free, and the program is open to students and townspeople alike.

The trio of amateur statesmen, Peter Giesey, Robert Keller, and Wilbert "Red" Roth, inaugurate with tonight's debate a series of lectures and discussions sponsored jointly by the International Relations Club and the Liberal Arts student council.

Dr. L. Larry Leonard, assistant professor of political science, will serve as moderator and will introduce the speakers.

Each of the speakers will talk for no more than 15 minutes and the floor then will be thrown open for questions and statements from the floor.

IFC, Tribunal Heads

Giesey is president of the Interfraternity Council and is a member of the varsity debate team. Keller is head of Tribunal, is a member of the varsity boxing team, and was State party candidate last year for senior class president.

Roth is managing editor of the Daily Collegian and author of the column "The Gripes of Roth." All three are political science majors and have had previous experience at conferences or debates on international topics.

The second in the series of programs designed more fully to acquaint students on campus with international affairs will be a discussion in Schwab March 10 on the question "Should We Rearm Western Germany?"

Three faculty members, Dr. Walter Coutr, professor of sociology; Dr. Richard E. Raymond, assistant professor of physics; and Dr. Neal Reimer, instructor in political science, will participate in that discussion.

For the month of April a nationally-known figure in international affairs tentatively is scheduled to appear at Schwab auditorium in the third and final program in the IRC-LA student council series.

Chairman of the committee which arranged tonight's program is Herbert Arnold. John Erickson was in charge of publicity.

Members of the International Relations club will act as ushers in Schwab tonight.

U.S. Has Split Personality, Reid Declares

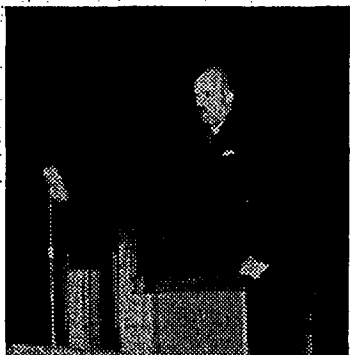

BY JOHN DALBOR

"American culture has developed a schizoid personality," declared Dr. Ira DeA. Reid last night in the fourth Community Forum series lecture in Schwab Auditorium.

Being black in a culture or society frequently requires a dual or split role—that of being loyal to one's own particular minority or sub-group and that of being loyal to society or culture as a whole, Dr. Reid stated.

Dr. Reid spoke on "The American Race System: Democracy's Dilemma." In addition to being author of several books on the Negro question in America, Dr. Reid is an eminent sociologist. He is at present professor of sociology at Haverford College.

Dr. Reid cited "referential points" in which he explained typical problems and attitudes that have involved the race question in the past. He mentioned two major movements of the past century—abolition and slavery.

Explains Movements

Several main movements concerning the Negro in America were explained by Dr. Reid. The first was the Tuskegee Idea, introduced by the famous Booker T. Washington. This plan was to train Negroes to work with their hands and to prepare for the thankless employment that Negroes are so often forced to take.

However, according to Dr. Reid, this plan still kept Negroes in their low economic status. A movement was then started to ## Eisenhower Replies . . .

Milton S. Eisenhower, president-elect of the College, has answered the radio message sent to him by the College amateur radio station, W3YA. His return statement was received last night by W3YA and was transmitted by WOSJP, a Kansas State amateur station. It follows:

To: All Students and Student Organizations at The Pennsylvania State College.

I acknowledge with enthusiastic thanks receipt of your generous message which has just reached me by amateur short wave radio. In all candor, I must say I am overwhelmed by your kindness and intrigued by your ingenuity. It is clear to me that it is going to be downright fun to work with such resourceful students.

If initially I had any reservation in my mind about the wisdom of moving from Kansas State to Penn State, it was that one who was long been accustomed to the pioneer spirit, the relaxed friendliness of the midwest, might find himself a stranger, temporarily at least, midst the more conservative demeanor and traditions of Pennsylvania. Your message, along with hundreds of greetings from the faculty, alumni, and friends of the College, have happily convinced me that my judgment on this was faulty.

You are proud of Penn State history and accomplishments. I am immensely proud to have been elected to the presidency of your institution. Our task together is going to be an exciting one. Students, faculty, administrators, trustees, alumni, and citizens generally will cooperate in continuing to build toward well-defined, even-higher goals. Together, we shall reach for the stars.

Very shortly I shall visit the campus. Perhaps it will be my good fortune to meet many of the seniors who will complete their work before I assume my responsibilities on July 1. I hope so. We might have that milkshake together—but please, a literal one!

Again my thanks to all, you and the operators of WOSJP and W3YA for transmitting of messages.

Sincerely,
 Milton S. Eisenhower

Camp Staff Jobs Open

A large number of summer camp positions now are available at the Student Employment Office.

These jobs include camp counselor, office manager, and waterfront director positions. Also needed are persons with experience in handicraft work, nature study, and similar types of camp activities.

According to Allan Reece, director of student employment, there now is available a summer job for a couple without children.

Deadline Near

Today and tomorrow are the last two days that men interested in living in the new West Dorms may pick up applications for rooms there next Fall.

Up until now, only 297 applicants have picked up the questionnaires which must be filled out and returned to the office of Daniel DeMarino, assistant dean of men, by Wednesday.

Students, Faculty, Will Greet Eisenhower at Old Main Rally

The Blue Band, cheerleaders, student leaders and administrative heads will be on hand when Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president-elect of the College, appears before a mass rally here Monday.

It will be the first chance students, faculty and staff will have to meet the new president of the College, selected by the board of trustees last month. He will be introduced to the rally on the steps of Old Main at 4:30 p.m. Monday.

To be introduced by James Milholland, president of the board of trustees and acting president of the College, Dr. Eisenhower is expected to speak briefly.

To Suspend Classes

Classes and laboratory work will be suspended from 4:10 to 5 p.m. to allow students, faculty and staff to attend the rally. The public also is invited, Wilmer E. Kenworthy, executive secretary to the president, noted yesterday.

From 4:15 to 4:30 the Blue Band, under the direction of James Dunlop, will play several selections. Following Dr. Eisenhower's talk, the cheerleaders in charge of Richard Clair will lead in several College vells. The program will close with the playing and singing of the alma mater.

Arrangements for the rally were drawn up by All-College President Ted Allen, who stated that the program would be short and that weather would not interfere unless extremely bad. A public address system will be used so that everyone can hear

Council Views New Honorary

Hat Society Council is considering creation of a new junior hat society, Thomas Morgan, president, announced yesterday.

He said such a society would have to be approved by the Senate Committee on Student Welfare before joining Druids, sophomore men; Blue Key, junior men; Parmi Nous, senior men; Skull and Bones, senior men; Cwens, sophomore women; Chimes, junior women, and Mortar Board, senior women, in the family of campus hat societies.

Hat Society Council is composed of the secretary and president of each campus hat group. Morgan indicated that the proposed new hat society would honor "outstanding junior men, probably in the fields of dramatics, student government, politics, athletics, and others."

To Cover New Fields

"Many fields," he said, "are not covered by Blue Key, at present the only hat society honoring junior men and no others."

He emphasized that tapping for any new hat society "would no doubt operate under a point
