

Sports Tournaments Enter Final Week of Competition

All-College individual sports' tournaments for women entered the last week of competition in bowling, badminton and table tennis.

Evelyn Laning advanced to the finals in badminton by defeating Ann Stork who previously won from Jackie Feinberg. Nancy Hanna conquered Gwendolyn Allen and will meet Sally Greenberger to decide the winner of that round. The winner of the Greenberger-Hanna match will meet Evelyn Laning in the final. Two out of three games are required to win a match.

In bowling Evelyn Laning also advanced to the finals by defeating Nancy Hanna. Both gained byes in their first games. The winner of the Greenberger-Grace Black match still to be played will roll against Janet Salkeld who gained a bye in her first match. The victor in this round will meet Laning for the bowling crown.

Eleven girls are participating in the table tennis tournaments. Prim Diefenderfer and the winner of the Jean Maginnis-Shirley Robzen match will enter the finals. Jean Maginnis won the first round by securing a bye then conquering Mary Martin. Defeating Evelyn Laning and Nancy Hanna, Shirley Robzen won the right to compete in the semi-finals.

A match between Ann Stork and Edna Grabiak remains to be played with the winner meeting Barbara Young. Prim Diefenderfer defeated Jackie Feinberg who had earlier downed Sally Greenberger.

Evelyn Laning, Nancy Hanna and Sally Greenberger have entered the three tournaments and Jackie Feinberg and Ann Stork, two.

Finals will be the end of this week and the beginning of next, as WRA intramurals start next week.

Coffee Hours End Current Rush Period

Climaxing the current rushing period will be tomorrow afternoon's coffee hours from 1:30 to 3 p.m. and from 3:45 to 5:15 p.m. The coffee hours are formal and each rushee may accept two invitations.

Sororities turn in their invitations for coffee hours by 8 a.m. today. Rushees pick up these invitations between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. The answers are returned by the rushees between 1 and 5 p.m. The sororities pick up these coffee hour answers at 5 p.m. this afternoon.

A silent period will be in effect until the coffee hours tomorrow. Between 5:15 p.m. tomorrow, when the coffee hours are over, and ribboning at 7 p.m. Sunday night a very strict silent hour between sorority girls and rushees must be maintained.

All rushing chairmen will meet at 5:00 today in the post office lounge of Atherton Hall.

Philotes will hold a special meeting open to all independent women on Monday at 7:15 p.m. in the WRA playroom of White Hall.

Werner Names Eight Trackmen For IC4A Meet

Coach Chick Werner will take an eight man team into New York City tomorrow for the annual IC4A indoor meet.

Leading the contingent of Nittany thinclads is Capt. Jim Gehrdes who will face a strong collegiate field in the 60 yard high hurdles. Jumpin' Jim will be in search of his fourth victory of the indoor campaign.

Jim will renew hostilities with an old rival for the first time this season in the IC meet when he faces Michigan State's star hurdler, Horace Smith. The Spartan star topped Jim twice in outdoor competition last year but Gehrdes forced him to record performances both times. The race should be a highlight of the meet.

In addition to Gehrdes, Coach Werner has chosen two sprinters, two milers, two two-milers, and a high jumper to make the trip.

The sprinters are veteran Will Lancaster and newcomer Jimmy Gibson. Lanc has been running as a member of the mile relay team most of the year while the meet will be the first of the year for Gibson, a former Mercersburg ace.

Don Ashenfelter and Bob Freebairn will carry Nittany hopes in the mile run and Bill Ashenfelter and Dudley Foster will go in the two mile. The meet will also be the first for Foster in Penn State livery.

The high jump will find Vic Fritts after his second win of the indoor season. Vic captured the Philadelphia Inquirer meet high jump with a leap of 6 feet 5 inches.

Grads Horace Ashenfelter, Curt Stone and the "adopted" John Twomey will meet three other distance stars in a special two mile event. Others in the field are Fred Wilt, John Joe Barry and Finland's Viljo Heino. Stone threw things in a turmoil last week when he topped Wilt in the NAAU three mile run. The race will go far in determining the nation's top distance runner.

Dave Benner, somewhat of a disappointment last week against Navy, Benner has ability as proved when he downed Mel Stout of the Spartans, 251 to 243, in the first meet here. If he is back in shape, State has a good chance of nabbing a top spot.

On the horizontal bar, however, the hopes are slim. Ned Foster, Harry Grieves and Earl Kerber, just average barmen, will compete against perfectionist Lou Domin, of Syracuse who posted a 270 against Navy, and Lester Backhaus and Kenny Meister. That trio slammed the event, 13-3, against the Middies.

The Lions will gain points if Perna can grab a first or second competing against Minotti on the rope. But Minotti is hot! Against Temple he broke his own Eastern Intercollegiate record of 3.6, pulling himself up in 3.5, just one-tenth of a second short of the National mark. Sal Postich and Al Christie will help Perna.

GOOD CHANCE

And on the P-bars the Lions might come through, with Spiese and Mirenzi, although Baba has scored a 284 in the event, and secondman George Gore has a 262.

Baba will be the Lion nemesis on the rings also, but here Wettstone hasn't much to offer except hard-trying but inexperienced men. The Lion trio will probably be Bill Hamel, Bill Hendrickson, and Harry Grieves. Hendrickson's 225 was the best State could do against Navy, while Baba, against the same team, racked up a 278.

Valentino, Howard Mason and Bob Kreidler, tumbling trio, give the Lions their best chance to win an event even though they will be facing the toughest competition of the season. If Valentino's streak is to be continued he must down Matthews, and Bob Bean, both of whom were PIAA tumbling champions in 1942 and '43. Another Syracuse performer, capable of coming into a top spot is Hugh Goldstein.

Army Defeats Navy In First of Series

First game in a series of three in women's Army-Navy basketball competition went to Army on Tuesday night by a 35-28 score.

Players for the teams were selected from those girls who had participated and done well in both intramurals and interclass basketball.

Lillie Fretz of the Navy team was high scorer with 19 points, while Army captain, Casandra Carroway, was high for her team with 14 points. Exceptional guarding by Mable Marple held Connie Adams, usually a high scorer, to only four points.

Because of conflicting schedules only 10 of the 18 girls selected for the game were able to play and therefore both teams played with only two guards and no substitutions.

Players for Army were Casandra Carroway, captain, Bess Kriner, Mary Jane Shreiner, Mable Marple and Peggy LeMaster.

Navy players were Sally Greenberger, captain, Lillie Fretz, Connie Adams, Nancy Hanna and Maureen MacNamara.

without asking for a separate voting place for the fraternities in town."

Robert Keller, Tribunal chairman but not a member of All-College Cabinet, asked Turk to suggest to Cabinet—on the spot—a "workable plan for additional voting places." Turk did not answer this.

Robert Davis, president of the Association of Independent Men, pointed out that the problem "could have been hashed out in AIM and some plan possibly devised."

Committee Upheld
Prior to the 19-4 Cabinet vote which upheld the election committee's decision on one polling place, Keller declared, "The integrity and sincerity of the chairman and the entire elections committee has been challenged. An issue is there."

Ted Allen, all-College president, reminded Turk that Cabinet approval of the election committee's decision "does not nullify" Turk's wanting a voting booth in Nittany-Pollock. Said Allen:
