

Final Big Weekend at Rec Hall Closes Winter Sports Schedule

Virginia's IBA Champs . . .

Hollingsworth

Penn State's wrestling, boxing and basketball squads, playing their last dual-meets of the season, unite today for the last huge sports show on the season's Rec Hall schedule.

Masterson

Charley Speidel's grapplers open the program at 2 o'clock, meeting Princeton on the mats. At the same time, the Nittany swimmers host Virginia in their last dual-meet at Glennland pool.

The evening's entertainment, starting at 7 o'clock will feature the Lion boxers against Virginia, followed by the cage battle between Eimer Gross' bombers and Georgetown.

Boxing

Virginia's boxing Cavaliers will oppose Penn State's sluggers tonight in the season's final dual meet for the Lions, which is scheduled to start at 7 o'clock.

The visitors bring to the Nittany Valley a mitt aggregation which is especially explosive in the lower weight classes, but sorely in need of capable fighters in the upper divisions.

Headliners for the Virginians are a duo of two-time Eastern boxing champions, Allen Hollingsworth at 130 pounds and Grover 'Bat' Masterson at 135.

Another IBA kingpin, this year's captain, Joe Miragliotta, competes at 155 pounds.

Virginia owns a 2-1-2 slate. Acting Coach Ed Sulkowski will probably use the following starting lineup tonight:

John Hanby—125; Harry Pappacharalambous—130; John Albarano—135; Frank Gross—145; Lou Koszarek—155; Paul Smith—165; Charlie Wilson—175; Chuck Drzenovich—Hvy.

Wrestling

Penn State's wrestlers, aiming for the most successful season since 1942, play host to Princeton's grapplers on the Rec Hall mat at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Lions are gunning for their seventh win in eight meets.

Determined Bill Slabonik replaces Cec Irvin at 155 pounds for today's clawing between the Tigers and the Nittany Lions. Slabonik has been giving Irvin tough competition for the varsity post for the past four weeks and he finally got the nod from Coach Charley Speidel.

The probable lineups:

Princeton		Penn State
McAlpin	121	Reese
Poor (c)	128	Driebelbis
Sellers	136	D. Maurey
Osser	145	J. Maurey (c)
Vogels	155	Slabonik
Ramsay	155	Corman or Santol
Wilmerding	175	Rubino
Finney	Hvy	Barr

Swimming

This afternoon's swimming meet with the Cavaliers of the University of Virginia in Glennland pool at 2 o'clock brings down the curtain on the dual meet season.

It is almost the same as the one which edged Johns Hopkins, 14 to 13 last week. The only major change will see Gene Goldbloom returning in the foil, flanked by Harry McCarty and Ralph Meier. In the epee event Rolf Wald, and Wayne Culver will again start. Bill Fairchok has been advanced to an opening position, and substitute for Culver.

Basketball

Co-captains Joe Tocci and Marty Costa will be among those who will don Penn State basketball spangles for the last time tonight when the Lions conclude their 1949-'50 season against Georgetown. The game is scheduled to start at 8:30.

Coach Bill Jeffrey and 17 members of the unbeaten soccer team will be honored to-night at halftime of the Penn State-Georgetown basketball game in Rec Hall. Jeffrey and the members of the team will be awarded trophies.

Other Nittany cagers who will be singing their swansong include Lee Schisler, Jack Storer and Lloyd Amprim.

Coach Eimer Gross will make only one change from his usual starting lineup, that of inserting Ted Panoplos into the forward spot aside Tocci. Veteran Costa and Lou Lamie will team up at guard with Schisler at center.

Georgetown, an extremely tough road-team, has run up a record of 12 wins against 8 losses against some of the best collegiate court quintets in the East.

Gymnastics

The Cavaliers have won three and lost three, taking meets with VPI, Duke and Delaware, and losing to North Carolina State, LaSalle and VMI. State's record stands at two wins, five losses and one tie.

Last year the Guttermen entered the Virginia meet with a four game winning streak, and extended it to five as they beat the Cavaliers, 42-29.

Fencing

Penn State's swordsmen close out their regular season this afternoon when they face Cornell at Ithaca, N.Y.

A win from highly rated Cornell would bring the Lions' season mark to .500 with three wins as against the same number of losses. Cornell's fencers defeated the Army Cadets, while the Lions lost to the Cadets earlier in the season by a 16 to 11 count.

Coach Arthur Meyer announced the lineup which will probably take the mats against the Ithacans this afternoon.
