of the Carnival presented a wide variety of entertainment. The booths were placed in the middle of S. Allen street, back to back, their fronts facing both sidewalks.

Among those entered were pie throwing, baseball pitching, variety shows and revues, and side shows. Crowds thronged the area, both participating in and watching the various events.

The Carnival turned over approximately $1,000 of its profits to the World Student Service Fund drive. Rain postponed the first attempt at the Carnival, but the next month the affair came off successfully as planned.

the elections, which will be held April 19 and 20. Clique officers were elected by both parties two weeks ago.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger Nail Test

THIS IS no "yoke", son. If people have been calling you egg-head because your hair looks soft-boiled, here's eggs-actly what to do. Get busy with popular Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic. It grooms your hair neatly and naturally without that goopy look. Relieves annoying dryness and removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Fingernail Test! Wildroot Cream-Oil is non-alcoholic ... contains soothing Lanolin. Get a tube or bottle of Wildroot Cream-Oil at any drug or toilet goods counter today. Always ask your barber for a professional application. (Better be hard-boiled with your roommate—keep egging him to get some Wildroot Cream-Oil of his own. It's tops for keeping your sunny side up!)

"My cigarette? Camels, of course!"

WITH SMOKERS WHO KNOW... IT'S

Camels for Mildness!

Yes, Camels are SO MILD that in a coast-to-coast test of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 consecutive days, noted throat specialists, making weekly examinations, reported
