

Faculty Group Moves To Ban Discrimination

Leonard To Present Resolution to Senate

In a special meeting yesterday afternoon, the faculty of the Department of Economics and Commerce approved a resolution to ban all professional fraternities at the College that have national or local constitutions barring members on grounds of religion, race or color.

Dr. Sheldon Tanner, sponsor of Alpha Kappa Psi, newly admitted Commerce professional fraternity which bars members for religious and color reasons, moved that the resolution be presented to the College Senate next week. The motion was seconded by Prof. David McKinley and passed unanimously by the 25 professors at the meeting. Dr. W. N. Leonard, head of the department, will present the resolution.

The resolution states that all professional fraternities must remove their discriminatory clauses within four years. This time limit was set since many of the fraternities hold their conventions only every other year.

The complete resolution is as follows:

Resolved: that the department of economics and commerce sponsor a resolution before College Senate requiring all professional fraternities at the Pennsylvania State College to remove, within a period of four years, any clause from their national or local constitutions barring members on religious, racial or color grounds, or face revocation of their local charter.

Coeds To Host Dormitory Men

The Coeds in McElwain and Simmons will play hostess tomorrow when they entertain men from the Nittany-Pollock area at the noon meal.

Men from Nittany dorms 29 to 36 and Pollock dorms 11 to 13 will eat in Simmons Hall, while Nittany dorms 21 to 24 and Pollock dorms 5 to 7 will be guests in McElwain Hall.

In charge of the McElwain dinner are Jane Swagler, Unit 1; Joann Claycomb, Unit 2; Barbara Seith, Unit 3; Audrey Brua, Unit 4; Mrs. Una Morgan, Mrs. Kathryn Sharp, Frank Shinaly, and Robert Short.

In charge of the Simmons dinner are Jane Auch, Alvina Bartose, Owen Bransford, Daniel Cottone, Robert Heckel, Stanley Luft, Donna Norris, John Palko, Mrs. Lois Rice, Eva Stein.

The presidents of the dormitories involved are also assisting.

The Daily Collegian

"FOR A BETTER PENN STATE"

VOL. 50 — NO. 78

STATE COLLEGE, PA., SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1950

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Today's Weather
Cloudy and cold,
snow flurries

Gymnasts Compete Today

Favored To Win Tumbling

Penn State's Rudy Valentino

38 Home Ec Students Named to Dean's List

Grace Henderson, Dean of the School of Home Economics, announced recently that 38 students have been placed on the dean's list for the Fall semester 1949.

Thirteen seniors, seven juniors, ten sophomores and eight freshmen gained an average of 2.5 or better. The seniors are:

Richard Almony, Jane Barton, David Browne, Maxine Dickey, Nancy Evans, Dorothy Fleagle, Peter Jung, Joan Lowry, Margaret Malone, Frank Mathias, Esther Schrecengost, Joyce Shuey, Jean Williams.

The Juniors:
Joan Engman, Pauline, Fetter,

Rose Intorre, Lois Keener, Irene Sloat, Marie Stankevitz, Ruth Zirkman.

Sophomores:
Betty Beam, Vivian Brunner, Lois Jakob, Adam Krafczec, Elaine Notari, Mary Pierotti, Robert Schultz, Joanne Straley, Emma Jean Way, Frances Weinland.

Freshmen:
Grace Anderson, Anne Denniston, Eloise Grimm, Jane Ifft, Rita Keeney, Virginia McMillin, Marjorie Maxwell, Virginia Welliver.

News Briefs

Lion Party

The Lion Party will meet in 121 Sparks at 7 o'clock tomorrow night, according to publicity chairman, Walter Vilmeier. Preliminary nominations for all-college, junior class and senior class officers to represent the party in the April balloting will be considered.

Penn State Club

Penn State Club members are requested to pick up their tickets in the club room anytime today. There will be someone on duty from 10-12 a.m. and from 4-5 p.m.

Ag Eng Banquet

The annual alumni-student-faculty Agricultural Engineering banquet will be held in the State College Hotel tonight at 6 o'clock. The program includes four speakers.

Titles For Six Events At Stake In Rec Hall

By BOB KOTZBAUER

Gymnasts, coaches and fans, and Olympic stars from all over the East, are flocking into State College today for this afternoon's 23rd renewal of the Eastern Intercollegiate gymnastic meet at 2 o'clock in Rec Hall.

A near-capacity crowd is expected for the three-hour show that will feature the best acrobatic talent of five colleges in the EIGL—Temple,

Warning Issued Against Parking Behind Library

Students were warned yesterday not to use the Library parking area.

Robert Keller, chairman of Men's Tribunal, reported that violations of this campus parking regulation has been increasing in the last few weeks. The serious situation has brought about an investigation of parking facilities in the Library area.

R. W. McComb, College Librarian, explained that on various occasions mail and express trucks, and trucks from the Audio-Visual department of the Library are forced to delay or postpone important deliveries because of student cars blocking the parking and unloading area behind the Library.

Keller restated the penalties which are imposed by Tribunal for parking violations:

- First violation—$1
- Second violation—$2
- Third violation—$5
- Fourth violation—$10 and a recommendation to visit the Dean of Men for counseling.

Drivers Warned To Park Carefully

Beginning Wednesday, State College police officers will take action against all drivers of cars parked on the highway or in downtown and residential districts which stand "other than parallel to the edge of the highway headed in the direction of traffic."

Because of complaints received and accidents occurring as the result of cars being parked against traffic and on an angle, Chief Burgess William S. Hoffman has instructed the police department to take "the necessary steps" to curb this, Chief of Police John R. Juba announced yesterday.

Hillel To Discuss Fraternity System

"The Fraternity System: Pro and Con" will be the topic of the forum discussion in Hillel Town Meeting Sunday at 8 p. m. in the Hillel auditorium at 133 W. Beaver Ave.

Peter Giesey, president of IFC, Wilbert Roth, managing editor of the Daily Collegian; and Philip Shuchman, a senior in philosophy will discuss the theme. Harold P. Zelko, associate professor of public speaking, will moderate the program.

The public is invited to any of the Town Meetings.

Correction

The State Party Clique meeting will be held March 19, instead of March 12, as announced yesterday in The Daily Collegian.

Richard Weisberg, clique chairman, announced that the meeting would be postponed from this Sunday to the later date, at 7 p. m., in 121 Sparks. At that time, preliminary nominations for the coming spring elections will be held.

Army, Navy, Syracuse and Penn State. The College's popular organist, George Ceiga, will play as an added attraction.

Admission is 90 cents, and no seats are reserved. Since this meet is not one of the regulars on the Rec Hall winter slate, student athletic books will not be accepted. Also, the student-only ban is lifted: anyone may attend.

Competition for medals in the six different events is slated to be the closest and most thrilling in several years. This is the second intercollegiate gym meet held in Rec Hall in two years, the other being the Olympic tryouts in May of 1948. The stars of the nation were here at that time, but this meet is also expected to uncover several performers of international calibre.

Two Champs Vie

Defending EIGL championships will be Gene Rabbitt, Syracuse sidehorse-man, and Leo Minotti, rope-climber, also from Paul Romer's sterling Orange squad that has already clinched a tie for team honors with Army.

Rabbitt, also the NAAU titleholder on the horse, will have his hands full trying to down Joe Berenato, Temple's NCAA champion. Joel Baba, Syracuse, and Dave Benner, of the host Lion team, are expected to work their way into one of the top four positions.

Minotti's biggest challenge will come from Marv Schenker of Navy, and Lee Perna of State. Minotti holds the Eastern Intercollegiate record, climbing the hemp in 3.5 seconds. The National record is 3.1, held by Bill Perry of California, who set the mark in the Olympic tryouts here two years ago.

Coach Gene Wettstone's bouncing tumbler, Rudy Valentino, is State's main hope to grab one first-place. Valentino finished second to team-mate Bill Meade in the Easterns last year, and this

(Continued on page four)

A Bird? A Plane? No, It's

FLYING SAUCERS, that's right! Students on South Allen street, yesterday pointing out the capricious china-ware, don't seem to be worrying much about an invasion from Mars, or Venus. Stiff necks are about the only danger.

Today . . .

The Nittany Lion Roars

Today, the Nittany Lion roars for the athletes in five different sports representing the Nittany Valley in Eastern Intercollegiate.

Wrestlers, boxers, swimmers, gymnasts, and skiers will all attempt to bring added glory to the lair of the lion.

The Lion lets go with a hearty snarl of good luck to the men of Nittany who are carrying the honor of the Blue and White on their husky shoulders.