

Fencers Leave Today For New York Tourney

Concluding the parade of Eastern Intercollegiate athletic tournaments, the Penn State fencers leave today for New York City where they will compete in the fencing Intercollegiate tomorrow and Saturday.

The 13-team Eastern Intercollegiate Fencing Championships will be divided into five sessions: Friday afternoon and evening, and Saturday morning, afternoon, and evening.

Such fencing powerhouses as NYU, last year's team champion, Cornell, Army, and CCNY will provide the Nittany Lion swordsmen with even tougher opposition than they met during the regular dual meet season.

Other colleges entered are Navy, Princeton, Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Columbia, Rutgers, and Hamilton.

GOOD CHANCES

Three men from Coach Arthur Meyer's blade aggregation are given good chance to finish high in the running for individual crowns. Harry McCarty, Paul Younkin, and Rolf Wald are expected to wage hard fights to garner honors for the Blue and White.

Harry McCarty led the foilmen throughout the season, and Paul Younkin, who sported the best individual record for the whole squad, heads the saber outfit. Rolf Wald, top epee man, finished third in his division of the Intercollegiate last year, and hopes to better his position this weekend.

LINEUP ANNOUNCED

Coach Meyer announced the ten men who would make the trip to New York: foil—Harry McCarty, Gene Goldbloom, Ralph Meier; epee—Rolf Wald, Bill Fairchok, Pete Raidy; saber—Paul Younkin, Ed Merek, John Richards, and substitute Bob Searles.

During the 1950 season, the Lions won two, while dropping four meets. Penn State defeated Temple and Johns Hopkins, but lost to Cornell, Lehigh, Army, and NYU.

Sigma Pi, APA In Semi-Finals

Sigma Pi and Alpha Phi Alpha advanced into the semi-finals of the fraternity basketball tournament Tuesday night while Dorm 3, Dorm 14 and the Boppers moved into the quarter-finals of the independent half.

Unbeaten Alpha Phi Alpha pulled an upset by knocking off the highly touted Tau Kappa Epsilon quintet, 24-22, in a wild ball game. APA held a five point bulge at halftime and staved off a last half rally to hand the TKE's their first loss in nine contests.

Theta Chi gave Sigma Pi a good scare in the other fraternity quarter-final before bowing in the last minute and a half, 23-15. Bill Harvey paced the SP cagers with ten points.

After seven straight victories, the Comets bowed out of the independent race when a much taller Dorm 14 squad handed them their first defeat, 24-20. Behind all the way, the Comets closed the gap to one point with just a few minutes to play but Dorm 14's control of both boards proved their downfall. John Deyak was high man for the winners with eight point.

The Boppers just had too much for the Architects and walloped them, 32-13. Fred Levin played a fine ball game for the victors and cut the cords with 12 big markers.
