

Mlkvy Tops All-Opponent Team, Gets All But One of 50 Points

By RAY KOEHLER

Temple's sizzling sophomore Bill Mlkvy completely dominated Penn State's 1949-'50 selections for its annual first and second all-opponent teams.

In swiping the thunder from such publicized attractions as All-American Dick Dickey and his North Carolina State teammate, Sammy Ranzino, Bucky Hatchett, Rutgers' great Negro ace and Ike Borsavage, Temple center, the curly-headed ex-Palmerston High pivot-man polled 49 out of a possible 50 points.

Dickey and Ranzino (who placed first and third respectively for the Dixie Classic's outstanding player award) and Hatchett, tied for runner-up laurels with 44 points apiece.

HATCHETT MAKES SQUAD

Hatchett has been selected as a member of the Eastern all-star squad for their annual East-West court clash. Borsavage, Owl's accurate 6-foot 7-inch one-hand proponent, just managed to beat out Syracuse's clever Jack Kiley, 35 to 34, for the fifth position.

Selections of opponents were made by ten members of the Penn State varsity basketball team. Voting was based on 5 points for first team, 4 for second and 3 for third. A total of 50 points was possible.

Temple placed two dribblers on the first team as did North Carolina State, which has been chosen to represent the South in the annual NCAA tournament in Madison Square Garden. Rutgers, Syracuse, Georgetown, Pennsylvania, Duke and Colgate each chipped in with one apiece.

KILEY, O'KEEFE, FORWARDS

Included on the second team was Kiley and the Georgetown smoothie, Tommy O'Keefe, at forwards. Herb Lyons, who set the Palestra afire one evening against the Nittany five with 29 points, received second-team center mention while Duke's Groat, a Pennsylvania lad, and sophomore Dave Alton, of Colgate, were awarded guard positions.

Eddie Beach, West Virginia, and "Ish" Ishman, American U., who made Penn State's first string all-opponent team last year, were far down the list in the '49-'50 reckonings. Beach polled 21 votes while Ishman garnered only three.

The 1948-'49 team included Beach and Fred Schaus, both of the Mountaineers, Ernie Vandeweghe, now completing his first year with the New York Knickerbocker's professional team, Kiley and Ishman. Second team nominees were Wally Hatkevich, Temple; Ed Brett, Colgate; Nelson Bobb, Temple; Red Wilson, Navy; Ray Corley, Georgetown and Sammy David, Pitt.

Rogel To Become Grunt n' Groaner?

Fran "Punchy" Rogel, erstwhile State fullback, has received an offer to become a professional wrestler.

The offer, made by an unidentified source was sent to Rogel through his high school coach, Johnny Reed, at Scott High School, Braddock, Pennsylvania.

Rogel said that if he doesn't receive a satisfactory contract from the Pittsburgh Steelers, who drafted him last season, he will take the offer. He recently returned a one-year contract to the Steelers that called for a salary of $5000 a year.

Harry Little, captain of the soccer team, is trying for a starting position this year on the State baseball team. Harry was a reserve on last year's team.

Diamond captain Dick Wertz is also president of the School of Physical Education.

Coach Puzzle Still Unsolved

Penn State's head football coaching position, still vacant after two weeks of Athletic Advisory Board pondering, is kicking up a furor of speculation and suggestion both on campus and throughout the state.

Officials are still weighing the merits of candidates, and plan to continue to do so even if it takes six weeks to find a capable man to replace Joe Bedenk.

Most prominently mentioned in unofficial rumors, recently was Johnny Michelosen, who recently signed a two-year contract with the professional Pittsburgh Steelers. Michelosen's name was mentioned by several alumni at a luncheon last week, and the advisory board took up a resolution booming the Steeler coach for the post.

DENIES INTEREST

Michelosen denied an interest in the position, however. According to B. C. Jones, president of Penn State's General Alumni Association, "We'd like to have him but we can't pay the kind of money he's used to."

Michelosen signed for about $12,000 a year with the Steelers.

Other names in the rumor limelight are Glenn Killinger, former star for the Nittany Lions now coaching at West Chester State Teachers College; Earle Edwards, end coach at Michigan State, who left here last year after serving as end coach under Bob Higgins for 13 years; and Earl Bruce, freshman coach now handling spring training.

Bob Davis and Red Moore of the Steelers, Mike Milligan, ex-Pitt coach, Woody Ludwig of Pennsylvania Military College and Clark Shaughnessy, also a former Pitt coach are also rumored as possible candidates.

The Athletic Advisory Board, however, has not named any of these men as being official prospects, or even said that any of them are available for the job.

Sigma Nu Advances 4 Matmen In IM Wrestling Tournament

Sigma Nu pushed into the Intramural wrestling limelight Tuesday night by posting four victories.

Who says "hi" first?

The books say the gal should, but honestly, a guy and a gal say it practically together. Friendlier that way, sez me!
