

Annual May Day Returns To Traditional Form

May Day will return to its traditional form this year. On Saturday, May 13, the weekend of Mother's Day, May Day will be celebrated. The program includes an Open House at the women's dormitories from 2 to 3:30 p.m. During this time, visitors may inspect the women's living quarters.

From 2:30 to 3:30, teas will be held in the dormitory lounges to honor visiting parents.

May Day Ceremonies will begin at 4:30 and will revert to tradition this year by being held in front of Old Main. Bleachers will be set up for the spectators. Last year the program was held on Holmes Field.

May Queen

A senior will reign during the day as May Queen. Her Maid-of-Honor will be a freshman. For the past few years it has been necessary to elect a sophomore for this post.

Each living unit that has seniors in it will nominate a candidate for May Queen. This will make a total of eight candidates: three from Simmons, three from McElwain, one from Grange, and one from town. Each living unit that has freshmen in it will suggest a candidate for Maid-of-Honor. There will be five candidates for this post: four from Atherton and one from town.

Pictures of the candidates must be between three by four and five by seven. The photos are due noon April 11 in 232 McElwain.

They will be displayed Tuesday, April 11 through Sunday, April 16 in the dormitories and Old Main. Elections will take place Monday, April 17 for primaries, and Wednesday, April 19 for the finals.

Committees

Committees for May Day have been announced by Ella Louise Williams, chairman of the House of Representatives. Members of the House and Freshman Council are serving as co-chairmen.

They are Audrey Brua and Norma Gleghorn, ceremonies; Eleanor Griffith and Rachael Witherow, costumes; Ida May Brandt and Janet Rosen, decorations; Ira May Blance and Joann Claycomb, elections; Almy Miller and Diane Sovel, invitations; Margaret Rothermel and Josephine Waterhouse, music and entertainment; Barbara Rufner and Chris Wilson, properties; Ann Collins and Bettina de Palma, publicity; and Barbara Leith and Frances Waring, teas.

All May Day chairmen are to meet with their committees before the next meeting of the House of Representatives, said Miss Williams.

Hibbs Makes Plans For Room Selections

A new system of room selection for the fall semester has been released by Mrs. Cornelia L. Hibbs, assistant to the dean of women.

All girls living in Atherton, McElwain, and Simmons are being contacted by their hostesses and will have the opportunity to remain in the rooms they now occupy. However, if they desire a room change, they must stop in the dean of women's office, 105 Old Main, and draw a number from boxes designating present semester. The date for drawing numbers will be released in the near future. Present seventh semester students will have first choice, followed by sixth, fifth, fourth, third, and second.

At the designated time, those student's living in McAllister Hall and Women's Building will draw numbers for room selection.

Philotes Initiates Thirteen Coeds

Thirteen girls received initiation into Philotes in the second floor lounge of Simmons Hall on Monday evening. President Ruth Schechter presided. Those initiated were:

Co-Edits

Undefeated KKG's Wallop Chi Omega

Two forfeits were recorded in Tuesday's League I volleyball competition when Kappa Delta forfeited to Gamma Phi Beta and Zeta Tau Alpha forfeited to Delta Delta Delta.

More action was witnessed in League II as unbeaten Kappa Kappa Gamma walloped Chi Omega, for the second time, 50-17. The Kappas' high scorer, Ginny Miller, did it again with 13 points. In the second League II game, Delta Gamma forfeited to Delta Delta Delta. Both Delta Gamma and Kappa Delta were unable to present teams due to their participation in the IFC Panhel sing.

Mac's Third Win

McAllister rolled up it's third win of the season by stopping Alpha Xi Delta, 45-20. Mac owes its lead to the scoring spree of Peg Muth, who garnered 26 points. League III's unbeaten team, McElwain, maintained its spotless record by dumping Alpha Omicron Pi, 52-14. Helen Long and Terry Sheehan combined to donate 25 points to the McElwain cause.

Phi Mu Wins

A low-scoring but closely-fought game resulted in Phi Mu edging out Alpha Gamma Delta, 28-20. Fifteen of the Phi Mu's points were contributed by Lois Van Vactor.

Leonides with three smashing wins to their credit chalked up their fourth from Beta Sigma Omicron by forfeit.

Kappa Sigma

New initiates of Kappa Sigma are Donald Storch, Ernest Saulsbury, Walter Conti, James Lovett and Charles Shenot. Recently pledged to the fraternity were Peter Craig, Roger Clinton and James Kelz.

Officers for the present semester include Lyle Martz, grand master; Payl Starr, grand procurator; Gordon Olsen, grand master of ceremonies; Samuel Stewart, grand scribe; Allan Molitor, grand treasurer; and Guy Pietz and Richard Koerber, guards.

Kappa Sigma entertained the Delta Gamma sorority with a roller skating and informal party on Saturday afternoon.
