

IM Mat Quarter-Finals Set For Monday Night

The quarter-finals of the intramural wrestling tournament will be held Monday night. Several fraternities have a chance for team honors, including ZBT, Sigma Nu, DU and Theta Kappa Phi.

Injuries marred the 17-match card on Thursday night which saw Theta Kappa Phi win three bouts. Lloyd Wolf, Phi Kappa Psi, after being hurt, lost by default to Dick Blythe, Pi Kappa Phi, as did Charlie Williams, Pi Kappa Alpha, 121, to Dick Brown, Chi Phi. Fred Black, Sigma Pi, 165, was pinned by Gene Truitt, Phi Kappa Sigma, in 1:15 following an ankle injury.

John Allison, Phi Kappa Psi, won the only other 121-pound bout by forfeit.

At 128, Al Friestak, Theta Kappa Phi, pinned Arnold Aikens, Pi Kappa Alpha, and George Hamilton won by forfeit in the independent division.

135 POUND CLASS

George Kline, ZBT, outpointed Paul Hallman, Sigma Pi, in the 135-division, 5-2. Al Christie, Sigma Chi, won a 7-1 decision from John Scott, Chi Phi, and John Beiter, Theta Kappa Phi, took a forfeit win.

Jim Lovett, Kappa Sigma, stopped Earl Engle, Sigma Nu, in 4:28, in the 145-class and Ed Sweeton, DU, pinned Norm Faulkner, Phi Kappa Psi, in 1:56. Jim Ewing, SAE, defeated Bill Haensley, Alpha Zeta, in 5:22 and Carl Liachowitz, ZBT, was a forfeit winner.

In the 155-pound group, John Shuelte, Chi Phi, won over Stu Frear, Alpha Chi Sigma, in 3:59 and George Alburger, Sigma Chi, lost a 5-0 decision to Bob Scollin, Theta Kappa Phi. Vince Cavanaugh, DU, pinned Bill Weiss, Phi Delta Theta, at 2:46.

165 POUND CLASS

In the 165-pound independent class, Joe Rynewicz, decided Len Horchos, 8-1 and Don Stogowski won a forfeit. Ken Haas, Lambda Chi Alpha, won by virtue of a forfeit in the other division.

Two decisions in the 175 group ended with Ted Geary, Phi Gamma Delta, topping Don Furlong, Alpha Chi Sigma, 7-2 and Ron Coder, Phi Kappa Sigma, beating Bob Rodli, Beta Theta Pi, 5-0.

Heavyweight Dick Waters, Sigma Chi, pinned Jim Pasike, Delta Theta Sigma, in 1:36 and Sam Miller, Pi Kappa Phi, stopped Bill Hockersmith, Alpha Chi Sigma, in 4:31.

Six PIAA Schools Clash for Gym Title

High school gymnasts from six PIAA schools will vie for the 1950 PIAA gymnastic championship in Rec Hall, starting at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Pottsville, the defending team champion, and Lower Merion will renew its yearly rivalry. They rate the favorite's position over the other four schools—Ellwood City, Nesquehoning, Lock Haven and Conemaugh.

Pottsville's Jack Hampford, only defending individual champion, will be seeking a repeat on the flying rings. He sparked his team to victory last year when Pottsville ended Lower Merion's grip on team honors.

No admission will be charged for the meet.

By this time last year, the baseball team had been out on the field for two weeks. Now all they see is snow, rain and mud.

BULLETIN: CEDAR FALLS, IOWA, March 24—Don and Jim Maurey and Homer Barr of Penn State came through the opening round of the National Wrestling Tournament with victories here tonight, but Mike Rubino was eliminated.

Don Maurey defeated Pickard of Illinois, 14-10, Jim Maurey defeated Keough of Ohio State, 3-2, and Barr defeated Dexter of Cornell, 7-4. Rubino lost to Reese, Big 7 champ from Nebraska, 4-3.

Troubles Mount As Golfers Near Opener

Eight dual matches plus two championship tourneys lie between Bob Rutherford Jr. and the completion of his first season as head coach of Penn State's varsity golf team.

Rutherford was promoted from his assistant coach position by the Athletic Board in the wake of the retirement of his father, Robert "Pop" Rutherford. The elder Rutherford had been head coach ever since the start of the sport here in 1922.

Although installed in his new job less than a week, the junior member of the clan is already beset with troubles.

The day after his appointment — first made evident to him through a newspaper article—he was laid low by a cold. He has yet to meet his team, whose first match is scheduled for April 15, and to top everything off the recent thick blanket of snow promises to cut off practices another week at least.

Compares Schedule

Interviewed at his State College home, Rutherford compared last year's golf schedule with his 1950 card and expects little difference in the type of competition he will face this season.

"I expect our opponent's strength to be practically the same that was shown last year. I don't know anything about Navy's squad since they've been off our schedule since the war years."

"Last spring," he said reviewing the past season, "we split two meets with Georgetown, beat Gettysburg, Bucknell and Colgate and lost at Syracuse."

3rd in Easterns

The Nittany golfers scored their most notable triumph in the Eastern Intercollegiate playoffs when they swept past Pitt, Cornell and Army. They lost to Yale but managed to edge Brown for the No. 3 spot.

Returning team members include Captain Tom Smith, Jim Yerkes, Marvin Goldenberg, Joe Durniak and Alex Munroe. Bob Kunkle, Jim Walker and Harry McMahon are the team's co-managers.

Rutherford still has not met his team. "I was all set to have an organizational meeting at the beginning of the week but this cold got me down. As a result of the snow it will be impossible to tell when we'll get in our first practices.

Long Layoff

"It takes a long time and a lot of concentrated effort for a golfer to shake off the long winter lay-off."

In order to ascertain the relative standing of returning members, plus newcomers, Rutherford plans to work with the group for a few weeks. As a cap to the pre-season training phase he will then run off a team elimination in order to determine positions.

All workouts will be held on the State College course. Intercollegiate meets are run off as match play with 7-man teams competing.

Honor Cage Captains

Basketball Co-captains, Marty Costa and Joe Tocci, were honored on W&J's all-opponent list. Costa was named to the second team while Tocci received honorable mention.

"Best script seen on the Players' boards this season . . . extremely worthwhile production . . . two hours of intense drama." . . . Tom Lyon, Centre Daily Times.

Sigma Nu Wins '50V-Ball Debut

The Sigma Nu-A volleyball squad made an auspicious 1950 start in its attempt to retain the fraternity crown by whitewashing Phi Kappa-A in two matches, 15-0, 15-0. Six other members of Sigma Nu, comprising the B team, also shellacked their opponent, Theta Chi-B, 15-1, 15-9.

Around the circuit, other triumphs were chalked up by Phi Kappa Tau, 15-7, 15-13 over Phi Epsilon Pi-A; Phi Gamma Delta-A outtipped Alpha Zeta-A, 15-11, 15-6; Beta Sigma Rho-A beat out Kappa Sigma-A, 5-15, 15-11, 15-7; Sigma Phi Sigma-B came back to trip Pi Kappa Alpha-B, 9-15, 15-4, 15-6; Alpha Chi Sigma-B outspiked SPA-B, 15-7, 15-9, and SPE-B won easily from AEPi-B, 15-2, 15-11.

Still other victories were registered by Alpha Gamma Rho-B over Phi Kappa Psi-B, 15-12, 15-6, and Tau Kappa Epsilon-B over Alpha Sigma Phi-B, 15-2, 15-11. Alpha Chi Rho-B and Alpha Phi Delta-B forfeited to Delta Chi and Lambda Chi Alpha-B, respectively.

Alumni Lacrosse Halted By Snow

The scheduled lacrosse match between the varsity and the alumni for this afternoon has been cancelled because of wet grounds.

Coach Nick Thiel had his charges going through conditioning drills in Rec Hall the past week in preparation for next Saturday's game with the Annapolis Lacrosse Club. It will be the first match of the season for the Nittany stickmen.
