Club To Talk On US-USSR

"Russia and the United States" is the topic to be considered by the International Discussion Club in 304 Old Main at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

The club, which is under the auspices of PSCA, was organized recently. Gordon Chu, Jacob Goedkoop, and Benjamin Seem act as the steering committee, with Luther Harshbarger, executive secretary of PSCA, as advisor.

Students from various countries give their opinions on the topic under consideration. Anyone who is interested in becoming better acquainted with these students is welcome at the meeting.

PIAA Holds Rifle Test In Armory

Three teams will compete for the Pennsylvania Interscholastic rifle championship in the Armory at noon today.

Munrall High School, perennial title-winner from southwestern Pennsylvania, will be hard-pressed to successfully defend its 1949 championship. The Indians lost every member of last year's squad by graduation.

Phi Delta Rho will hold a formal pledge dance. Kappa Sigma is having a dinner dance this afternoon. Lambda Chi Alpha is going nomad at its Bedouin Ball.

Phi Delta Theta is having a party, but no theme, while Phi Epsilon Pi gets on the bandwagon with its Gypsy Caravan. The Phi Gamma Delta house will shake to the tunes of the Fiji Island Dance.

French Dance

Phi Kappa is sporting a French Dance and the wheels at Phi Kappa Psi are having a Hat Party. Phi Kappa Sigma has aptly termed its shindig Greek Bacchanal, while Phi Kappa Tau's Milkman's Matinee may be some indication of when the party ends.

Phi Sigma Delta sports a flashy Carnival theme and Phi Sigma Kappa will spend a figurative Night in Paris. Pi Kappa Alpha will muse at the Dream Girl Dance, while Pi Kappa Phi will blossom out with a Rose Ball.

One of the most novel themes is Pi Lambda Phi's Old Main Missing. Sigma Alpha Epsilon will release its frustrations at the Beast Party.

Sigma Alpha Mu is continental with its Gait Parisienne. Sigma Chi should have a ding-dong time at its Ringing Brothers, Bangum and Bailum party. Sigma Phi Alpha is having a Spring Outing this afternoon.

Apaches, Firemen

Sigma Phi Epsilon is holding a French Apache Dance, while Sigma Phi Sigma's get hot at the Fireman's Ball. Sigma Pi looks forward to solid fun at the Meat Ball Bounce, and Tau Kappa Epsilon will be high class at its Orchid Dance. Tau Phi Delta is joining with the Delta Sig's.

Theta Chi will feature a mid-century theme, where guests will dress as famous persons of the first half of the twentieth century. Theta Kappa Phi is holding a Spring formal, while Theta Xi is floating their second annual Mariners Ball. Triangle is having an informal party.

a member of the Daily Collegian sophomore board.

The Inking will fill the gap created by the demise of Critique last year due to financial and other difficulties. All-College Cabinet has given its backing to the Inking and has appropriated $600 to help pay off the Critique debt. Names of top Inking staff members will be released soon by the Board of Publications.

Yesterday's meeting was the first one in the history of the Senate Committee on Student Welfare which a reporter for the Daily Collegian has been allowed to attend.

Service Projects Offered Students

Service opportunities in work camps, seminars, institutes, internships in industry and cooperatives, and in mental and correctional institutions are being offered to college students again by American Friends Service Committee.

Three projects, Internship-in-Industry, Institutional Service Units, and Service Units in Mexico, are planned on a year-round basis and are open to applicants at any time.

For information about the committee's service projects write to American Service Committee, 20 S. Twelfth St., Philadelphia 7, Pa.

wide projects. He emphasized that untary basis.

A freshman customs plan and cooperation would be on a vola Cabinet service key design were approved by the government agency. It heard reports from a representative to the Senate calendar committee and from the health committee. Plans for future control of the class ring and on future relations with the National Student Association were discussed.

Prior to its passage by an 18 to 3 vote, the customs plan precipitated an hour-long period of discussion.

Davis Questions

Robert Davis, president of Association of Independent Men, asked what regulations would prevent an upperclassman from continually "picking" on one particular freshman within the bounds of the stipulated customs.

Tribunal Chairman Robert Keller answered that Tribunal is working for the "best interests of justice" and that charges of this nature by freshmen would be given full consideration.

Calendar Report

Mary Lou Hollis, president of Leonides, reported that the Senate calendar committee had thrown out consideration of a Cabinet-sponsored proposal for a November voting holiday.

The calendar committee representative explained that the number of eligible voters among students is decreasing. Since the number of scheduled class periods now is at a minimum, a deduction from another holiday would be required if the proposal was accepted, the committee decided.

The Cabinet representatives have recommended to the calendar committee inclusion of upper-class registration in the fall freshman orientation week, and a 2½ day period for spring registration.

Reporting for the health committee, Chairman Michael Cantwell informed Cabinet that the campus patrol station wagon has replaced the mail truck formerly used as campus ambulance. A community ambulance is employed when the patient must be taken off campus.
