

May Queen Primary Elections To Take Place On Monday

Primary elections of the May Queen and her Maid of Honor will take place in the second floor lounge of Old Main Monday, April 17. The final elections are on Wednesday, April 19, among the top three of each position.

Nine senior women are seeking the May Queen title, and six freshman women are up for Maid of Honor.

Leatrice Berger, Arlene Connor, Louise Drozdak, Beverly Gearhart, Tereas Gonsky, Patricia High, Lorraine Stotler, Victoria Williams, and Marie Wrobelski are the May Queen candidates.

The Maid of Honor nominees are Barbara Baker, Atherton; June Gernet, Frazier; Jo Hutcherson, Atherton; Sue Knapp, Atherton; Nancy Showers, Atherton; and Dorothy White, Co-op.

All women students may vote for both the May Queen and her Maid of Honor. At the time of the elections, 65 senior women may sign up to participate in the Hemlock chain. The girls in the chain assist in making it up.

Pictures of the candidates are being displayed in Atherton, MacAllister, McElwain, and Simmons. The pictures will be at the polls Monday and Wednesday.

The two runners-up for May Queen are the senior attendants. The two Maid-of-Honor runners-up will be the freshman attendants. A special May Day committee chooses the sophomore and junior attendants, plus the freshman jesters, sophomore heralds, and the 20 senior women who make up the Honor Arch.

May Day ceremonies are being held on front campus this year on Saturday, May 13. The day's program includes an Open House at the women's dormitories from 2 to 3:30 p.m.; teas in the lounges from 2:30 to 3:30; the May Day ceremony at 4:30; and a dance in Recreation Hall in the evening.

The Queen and her court will be honored at the dance.

All coeds living in town who did not participate in the election of candidates for May Queen and Maid-of-Honor are asked to attend a short meeting in McElwain Showroom at 6:30 p.m. Sunday to elect their representatives for the two honors. Anna Keller, WSGA town senator, announced.

Gamma Phi's Add Sixth VB Victory

The sixth week of intramural volleyball got underway on Tuesday night with Gamma Phi Beta adding the sixth stroke to its win column by receiving a forfeit from Zeta Tau Alpha. Fresh from their Easter vacation Kappa Delta trounced Kappa Alpha Theta, 41-19 in the second League I game. Gaynell Wagner and Nancy Newcomer led their team in scoring honors.

A strong second period enabled the undefeated Kappa Kappa Gammass to double up Delta Delta Delta, 40-20. Jean Malcolm helped to turn the score the Kappa's way by adding 15 points. Delta Gamma registered its third win by edging out Chi Omega, 30-23. The DG's high scoring Nancy Rodli made 9 points.

MacAllister Win

League III's major contenders, MacAllister and McElwain, faced each other on the volleyball court for their second tilt on Wednesday night. This time Mac turned the tables by decisively downing McElwain, 42-20. Ahead by only five points at the half, 20-15, Peg Muth and June Dager helped to sew up the game for Mac. In their previous meeting, the McElwain volleys, losing 12-16 at the half time whistle, pulled together for a final score of 36-29. With five wins and one loss apiece, these two teams will probably have to get together again to decide the League III championship.

Alpha Omicron Pi and Alpha Xi Delta both failed to show up for their League III game.

Leonides out-volleyed Alpha Gamma Delta, 49-24 in their League IV game. Still unbeaten the strong independent crew displayed their usual good teamwork. Jackie Schoch garnered 14 points for the victorious Leonides.
