Rutgers, Lion Batsmen Meet at Beaver Field

Coach George Case brings his Rutgers diamond squad here this afternoon to face the Nittany Lions who are seeking their second win of the young season. Game time is 2:30 p.m.

Case, former major league outfielder with the Washington Senators and Cleveland Indians, has a lineup that includes five of his nine returning lettermen.

Ray VanCleaf, the tiny centerfielder, is a whiz in the outfield and on the basepaths and lays claim to a strong throwing arm.

Lefty Bob Suba, at first base, is well remembered by the Statesmen for his hitting in last year's NCAA District 2 playoffs.

On the power side of the Lion ledger, Coach Joe Bedenk will have proven hitters in Jack Kurty and Captain Dick Wertz, both of whom blasted round trippers in the Western Maryland game, Owen Dougherty and Hen Albright.

Probable pitchers for Rutgers will be Herman Hering, a right-hander, or Don Biehm, sophomore lefthanded hurler.

Coach Bedenk will counter Al Tkac, Dalton Rumberger, Bill Bair or newcomer Bill Hopper.

Lion Gridders Tilt at Bucknell

A 39-man football squad will leave State College by bus at 11:30 o'clock this morning for Lewisburg, Pa., and a scrimmage with Bucknell University. The practice game will complete the fifth of the six-week Spring drill period.

The Nittany and Bison elevens will engage in a two-hour practice fray that will contain all the features of a regular game with the exception of the kickoff. The game is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock.

STARTING BACKFIELD

Coach Earl Bruce has named quarterback John Podrasky, wingback Chan Johnson, tailback Tony Orsini and fullback Len Shephard as his starting backfield should the Nittanians begin the game on the attack. The line in this case will have John Smidansky and Art Betts at end, Chuck Godlasky and Dick Waters at tackle, Len Bartek and Bill Mathier at guard, and Joe Shumock at center.

Should the Lions go on defense, Mario Santangelo will be at one of the ends, while Bill Hockersmith and Con Brown will see action at the tackle positions. Bartek will be the fifth man on the line, and Shumock will team with Podrasky and George Harvan, a center, in backing up the forwards.

George Jacobs and Herb Ellicker will man the defensive half-back positions and Johnson will play safety.

Golfers Open At Gettysburg Despite Cold

Despite a temperature range expected to hover about the freezing mark, Penn State's golf team will tee off from the Gettysburg Country Club at 11 o'clock this morning in its season opener.

Bob Rutherford Jr., who recently took over the Nittany links job upon the retirement of his father, will wait until the final minute before deciding on his number six and seven positions.

Captain Tom Smith ranks as No. 1 man followed by Jim Yerkes, Joe Durniak, Ray Artz and Bob Kunkle. Behind these five returnees from last year's squad are Ted Robertson, Tom Richards, George Stewart and Alex Munro.

Last year on the State College course the Nittany team defeated Gettysburg, 5 to 2.

Despite being held to only a week's practice (during the Easter vacation) Rutherford has his squad in "pretty fair shape." Driving has been reasonably accurate but there is a definite weakness on the greens where, through inclement weather, it has been impossible to practice.

Rutherford's schedule lists a 10-game campaign including the EIGA Round Robin tournament, at West Point, and EIGA Finals (site still pending).

Runners Extend V-Ball Streak

Last year's runners-up for the independent crown, The Ridge Runners, won their third straight volley-ball match this week, as four other outfits around the circuit kept stride with them.

The point-happy Runners found the going not too tough as they drubbed the Penn State Club, 15-5, 15-11. In the same league (No. 2), Section 10 downed the previously undefeated Jesters, 15-10, 15-9. The Mustangs, captured their third win with an easy 15-5, 15-2 shellacking of the Vandals, Nittany Co-op-A rapped Ath Hall, 12-15, 15-4, 15-9, and Dorm 29 chalked up a 15-4, 15-7 triumph over Dorm 2.

Dorm 39 rang up their second win of the campaign in League 4 as they scuttled the Foresters, 6-15, 15-9, 15-10; Eagles downed Penn Haven-A, 15-9, 15-6; Dorm 28 was victorious over Dorm 27, 15-4, 15-8; Dorm 5 set back Dorm 40, 16-14, 15-12, and the Junior Foresters blasted Nittany Co-op-B, 15-4, 15-4. The Crusaders and Woodsdal-AC won forfeit victories over Dorm 32 and the Cream-Puffs, respectively.

Jeffrey, Speidel Now Sports Deans

Bill Jeffrey, soccer coach, and Charlie Speidel, wrestling mentor now share the honor of being the deans of the College athletic coaches.

Robert B. "Pop" Rutherford, recently retired golf mentor, held that distinction before he turned over the reins to his son, Robert Jr.

Next September Jeffrey will field his 25th soccer club. Speidel will celebrate his silver anniversary a few months later. Rutherford had directed 28 golf teams in the Nittany Valley.

State Stickmen Oppose Navy

The score of yesterday's lacrosse game between Nick Thiel's stickmen and the Loyola Greyhounds was to have appeared in this morning's edition of the Collegian but due to unforeseen communication difficulties it is unable to do so.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Lions will encounter Navy at Annapolis. So far this season Navy has rolled to five consecutive wins including a 15-0 defeat of Harvard.

Custis Again

Syracuse's 1950 football prospects appear bright despite the loss of ten members of the starting offensive and defensive units. Coach Floyd Schwartzwalder has 25 returning lettermen, headed by quarterback Bernie Custis, ace passer and ball carrier from Philadelphia. The Nittany Lions face the Orange Oct. 14.

Cliff Chambers Or Bob Chesnes In Opener: Meyer

PITTSBURGH, April 14 (AP)—Pirate Manager Billy Meyer announced yesterday that his starting mound choices for the Bucs opening National League game at St. Louis Tuesday night will be either Bob Chesnes or Cliff Chambers.

Meyer announced that Chesnes definitely will do his hurling this afternoon against the Washington Senators at the capitol. He also said that if Chesnes continues in the form he has exhibited so far he will receive the nod over Chambers for the opening-day assignment.

So far during the exhibition span Chesnes has had 11 earned runs scored off him in 24 innings. Chambers pitching in only 23 innings, has given up eight earned runs.

End To Quarterback

Michigan State football coach Biggie Munn has switched Bill Carey, a junior, from end to the quarterback position. Carey is being groomed to replace the Spartan's ace passer Gene Glick, lost by graduation. Al Dorrow, who filled in for Glick last year, has been moved to left halfback.

Two things every college man should know!

1. This is a Geology Major. Takes life for granite. An earthy type with rocks in his head. Thinks nitrates are cheaper than day rates. Wouldn't be caught ossified without a "Manhattan" shirt.

2. This is a "Manhattan" Range—widespread collar with French cuffs. Does something for your natural contours. That narrow "Manhattan" tie is a pretty smart specimen, too.
