

Jr.-Sr. Faculty Reception To Be Held Tuesday, May 2

WSGA's annual Junior-Senior Faculty Reception will be held in McElwain Lounge from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 2, Ruth Lehman, WSGA senior senator in charge of the affair, announced yesterday.

The reception, held annually to promote better and more informal relations between the faculty and women students, has been organized under the leadership of Miss Lehman and various committee chairman.

The latter are Gay Brunner, entertainment; Anne Forrest and Eileen Bonner, hostesses; Audrey Brua, decorations; Marie Card and Anna Keller, publicity; Rachel Smith and Elizabeth Swift, refreshments; and Rose Eifert, invitations.

All junior and senior women are urged to attend the affair, Miss Lehman stated.

Volleyball IM's Draw To Close

With Thursday night's League V and VI volleyball games, the season drew to an uneventful close. Playoffs will be run off next week. Simmons rolled up its fifth victory in six starts by trimming Co-op, 43-11, thus gaining itself a place in the play-offs. Alpha Epsilon Phi forfeited to Theta Phi Alpha in the second League V game.

Atherton wound up its season enthusiastically by slashing Sigma Delta Tau, 42-20. Outclassed from the start, the S.D.T.'s were aided in their defense by Sorel Davidson's 12 winning serves.

Phi Sigma Sigma and Alphi Chi Omicron failed to show up for their scheduled League VI game.

Three of the six individual league champions had undefeated seasons. Gamma Phi Beta, Atherton II, Simmons, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Leonides and McElwain, will vie for the championship at 7 p.m. next Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Room Selection

All women students not retaining the same rooms for the year 1950-51 should come to the Dean of Women's office, 105 Old Main, on Monday, to draw numbers for room selection.

Hours are from 8 a.m. to noon, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Both roommates must draw.

Ebert Refutes Building Lag

In reply to student concern over what they feared was a definite lag in construction of the men's dining commons, George W. Ebert, director of the physical plant, said yesterday that the work is proceeding exactly on schedule.

Mr. Ebert revealed that construction on the men's dormitories is also going according to schedule. Original plans call for completion of work on the West Dormitories and the dining commons by the fall of 1950. Present conditions indicate that the contract will be fulfilled at this time.

In addition to three dining halls which will occupy most of the top floor of the West Dining Commons, the building will also house post office facilities for men living in the area, lounges, refrigeration units, and various utilities on the ground floor.

SPE To Celebrate 35th Anniversary

Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity will celebrate its thirty-fifth anniversary tonight with a banquet and mortgage burning.

This will be followed by an informal dance with music provided by Jack Huber. Other events of the weekend include a stag party and tour of the campus for returning alumni.

Sigma Phi Epsilon was begun at Richmond College in 1901, growing from a club called the Saturday Night Club. It was established at the College in 1915 from the then local chapter. Sigma Tau. Four hundred and ninety-nine men have been initiated by the local chapter during its 35 years on this campus. The hundredth chapter of the fraternity was recently installed at the University of Utah.

Blood Donors --

The call was sent to Dr. Glenn by Dr. Enoch H. Adams, surgeon at the hospital. Dr. Glenn reported that such calls come usually not more than once a year.

Response to the call for blood was termed "very fine" by Mr. deMarino, who praised student cooperation in hospital emergencies.

Plans Underway For Senior Ball

Final arrangements are being made for the Senior Ball, to be held Friday, May 19, in Recreation Hall, Samuel Casey, dance committee chairman, announced yesterday.

Featuring the music of Charlie Spivak and his 15-piece orchestra, the dance will be a highlight of Spring Week. Spivak is billed as "the man who plays the sweetest trumpet in the world."

Decorations, following a farewell theme, are being developed by a New York decorator.

Members of the committee are David Greenwald, Morton Snitzer, Lorraine Stotler, and James Balog, senior class president, ex-officio.

Travel Exhibit On Display in Library

A travel exhibit, featuring countries to be visited by the Penn State Seminar in Europe this summer, is now on display on the first floor of the College Library and will end today.

Historic buildings and scenes, town and country views, and peoples of England, France, the Benelux countries, Italy, Germany, Switzerland, and Scandinavia are in the display. The photographs are largely from National Geographic magazine.

On the second floor of the library is a display of Pennsylvania scenes, which will interest those who will be travelling at home this summer.
