

Leonides Edges Simmons To Win Volleyball Crown

Spikes, set-ups, long rallies, and excellent teamwork characterized the volleyball playoff in which Leonides squeezed out Simmons, 28-26, to win the volleyball crown. Leading at the half, 16-14, Simmons held the lead several times throughout the game. However, it was the neat net play between Helen Rusinko, Leonides, and Pat Siegal, Simmons, which highlighted the exciting game.

A large group of enthusiastic spectators witnessed the contest in which high-scoring honors were shared by Pat Siegal, Simmons, and Evelyn Laning, Leonides, with nine points apiece. Laning's overhand serves helped bring about the downfall of the girls from Simmons.

Both teams entered the playoffs with clean records. Simmons downed Atherton 52-19, in their one-sided semifinal game; while Leonides trimmed McElwain, 34-12, in their previous encounter.

Leonides also holds high scoring team honors of the season, having scored 76 points against Alpha Gamma Delta. Individual honors are held by Ginny Miller, Kappa Kappa Gamma, who netted 35 points single-handedly in the KKG, Tri Delt match.

With the crowning of Leonides as volleyball champions, the season is officially closed. Intramural softball will commence next week.

Come to Church

Did you ever notice how long and somehow out of tune the days become when you've missed a Sunday from church?

Sunday is the pitch pipe to which the harmony of your days is attuned. Going to church in Sunday makes a sweet music in the heart—a melody whose overtones sustain one through all the days between. Come to church on Sunday—and live in tune with God.
