

Nittany Athletic Teams Face Big Day

Grid, Golf, Tennis Squads Perform Before Local Fans

Weather cooperating, six of Penn State's varsity teams will see action today with football, golf, tennis and jayvee lacrosse providing the local interest.

Three other Nittany teams will pursue their fortunes on foreign fields with Coach Joe Bedenk's baseballers facing their first away test at Bucknell, the track team opening at Columbus, Ohio, and State's lacrosse men tilting against Rutgers at New Brunswick, N.J.

Action here will be provided by Duquesne's gridders this afternoon at 2 p.m., Lehigh-tennis (2 p.m.); Georgetown-golf (1:30 p.m.) and Kenyon-JV lacrosse (2 p.m.).

Thinlads in Tri-Meet

Capt. Jim Gehrdes will lead the Nittany track team into a battle royal with Michigan State and Ohio State at Columbus, Ohio, this afternoon.

It will be the opening meet of the season for the cindermen of Coach Chick Werner and will be one of the top meets of the collegiate track season.

Veteran sprinter Wil Lancaster will make the trip and participate. The ace runner was injured in practice last week and was considered a doubtful starter. His presence at the meet boosts Penn State's chances.

Nine Seeks Third Win

The Lion diamond squad will make its first road trip of the season as they journey to Lewisburg to meet the Bisons of Bucknell.

Coach Bedenk announced that Dalton Rumberger will go on the mound in an effort to make it two straight for the Nittanies. Rumberger has pitched in only one game this season—the 6-3 loss to Rutgers.

Stickmen at Rutgers

The Nittany lacrosse men will go after their first win of the season this afternoon when they take on Rutgers University at New Brunswick, N.J.

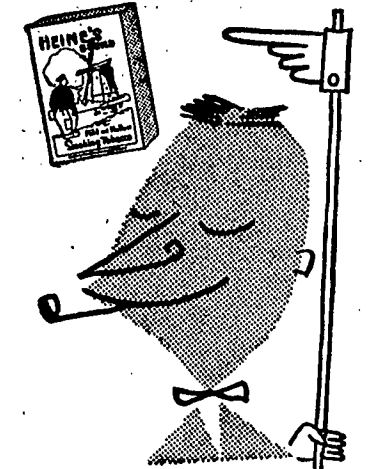

State enters the game with a record of two losses and no wins while Rutgers has a three and three card.

The Lion jayvees entertain Kenyon College in their opener this afternoon on the Golf Course practice field.

Tennismen Try Again

Coach Sherman Fogg will try his luck against the weather this afternoon as the Nittany tennis squad plays host to Lehigh University on the Beaver Field courts.

Hoya Golfers Win Match, 5-2; Tilt Again Today

Despite miserable golfing conditions, Georgetown University's links team ignored sporadic rain and snow squalls to nip the Nittany clubbers 5 to 2 on the College course yesterday afternoon.

Play in the second of the two-match series will be resumed again this afternoon. Through the loss the Lion linksmen now sport a one and one record.

Sophomore Ted Robertson turned in an even par-70 for low honors. The Hoyas first five performers captured victories while only Ray Artz and Robertson were able to count for Penn State.

Nittany Captain Tom Smith lost 4-3 while teammates Jim Yerkes, 2-1; Joe Durniak, 4-3, and Bob Kunkle, 1 up, also were on the losing end.
