

Shades of Joe Page— Tkac To Hurl Again

Al Tkac will pitch again when the State diamond men meet Washington and Jefferson on Beaver Field this afternoon at 4 p.m.

Tkac will try to put the Lions back in the win column and bring this season's record to three and two. The Nittanians now have a .500 average with wins over Western Maryland

Wieland Lost For Prexie Tilt

Coach Sherman Fogg's tennis squad will seek their second straight victory this afternoon at 4 p.m. when they meet Washington and Jefferson on the Beaver Field Courts.

Coach Fogg will present an almost completely revamped lineup against the Presidents. One change was necessitated by the loss—for this match—of Dick Wieland, Nittany No. 2 man, who pulled a leg muscle during Saturday's 6-3 win over Lehigh.

Owen "Sonny" Landon, Lion captain, will remain in his number one lot, but Jim Howells will move from position three to number two, and Mark Borland will slip into the vacated third spot from number five. Harry Kaufmann, a newcomer to the starting array will play at number four with Bill Walls at number five and Spence Boyer at the sixth slot.

Coach Fogg's doubles lineup has also been revised with three untried duos being inserted. Landon and Howells will take over number one slot, but Jim Howells will be two and Stan Myers and Ed Davis, number three.

and Temple and losses to Rutgers and Bucknell.

Coach Joe Bedenk's plans call for the same team that finished the Bucknell game to start today.

CHANGES EXPECTED

Changes later this week, when the team travels to Washington for two games with Georgetown, and next week, with four games in three days, are in the offing.

Sophomore lefty Bill Hopper, who at present is in centerfield, will probably get his first chance on the mound next week. Veteran hurler Bill Bair should also see service.

Either Stan Lagonosky or Bill Ondick, both returning lettermen, will replace Hopper in the outfield if he takes a turn on the mound.

SIDELINES

Chris Tonery, who was spiked in the Bucknell game, will be able to play... Chris wasn't cut by the spikes, but received a painful bruise on his shin bone...

Jack Wetzel was also named head manager at the banquet.

Jean Kronstadt, junior gymnastics champion of Findland, now an exchange student at Mercersburg, was the guest speaker.

Middies Pose Tough Problem For Linksmen

The Nittany golfers will be facing stiff competition this afternoon when they take on Navy at Annapolis.

According to Navy Coach Bob Williams, his team is expected to win a good percentage of its games "despite one of the toughest schedules in collegiate golf."

"We have a good team again this year," says Williams. "We will be almost as strong as last season when we won 11 and lost two."

State's linksmen, led by Captain Tom Smith and Ted Robertson, are sporting a record of two wins and one loss. Smith and Robertson were the big factors in all three games, coming through with low scores in match play.
