

WRA Swim Club To Present Version of Arabian Nights

Tonight and tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in White Hall, the WRA swimming club will present its version of the Tales of the Arabian Nights. Shirley Gallagher will narrate the nine magical tales to be presented.

The first tale, "From All Parts of the Land the Daughters Leave," stars JoAnn Bauer, Mary Cohen, Shirley Giles, Anna Keller, Virginia Mayes and Pat Sauer. Marilyn Guillet, Lucy Mitinger and Betts Webber display their talents in the "Fishermen and the Genii" while the "Six Kings of the Genii" are Carolyn Caveny, Nancy Hanna, Barbara Smith, Elizabeth Spencer, Elizabeth W. Spencer and Pat Veil.

Forty Thieves

In the fable of the Forty Thieves, Gerry Brown, JoAnn Bauer, Mary Cohen, Delores Hubbard, Jan Herd, Sara McMillan, Helen Milligan, Betty Jane Strom, Lois Van Vactor and Ann Wise cavort and go through their routines. The familiar tale of "Sinbad and his Sailors" is depicted by Madeline Caveny, Jane Cowne, Mary Ann Hanna, Sally Sechler and Eleanor Morisuye.

Lois Evans and Lolita Ann Wolfe portray the beautiful prince and his princess. The story of "Aladdin in the Magic Land" is told with Barbara Benck as Aladdin and the slaves played by Jane Alexander, Mary Clymer, Miriam DeWitt, Lorraine Dolphin, Lois Keener, Teresa Moslak, Annabelle Neiring, Barbara Sheltrone and Virginia Sinclair.

Finale

In the story of the two brothers and two sisters, Barbara Benck, Jane Cowen, Joan Snider and Ann Wise play the roles. The final story, "Throughout the Land all is Well," features Mary Ann Arnold, Shirley Giles, Marian Harmen, Barbara Hosler, Peggy Hepler, Nancy Marcinek, Virginia Mayes, Sally Mitchell, Mary Ann Peck, Joan Strunk, Joan Tyson, Virginia Welliver and Mary Wertman.

Admission is free; tickets can be obtained at White Hall before the performance and from participants in the aquacade.

WRASoftballBegins; 24 Teams Compete

WRA inaugurated its outdoor schedule on Monday when softball intramurals began. Twenty four teams comprise four leagues which play on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays on Holmes Field.

Atherton N.W., Woman's Building, Atherton N.E., MacAllister, McElwain and Leonides form league I. League II consists of teams from Zeta Tau Alpha, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Gamma Delta and Kappa Alpha Theta.

Alpha Xi Delta, Phi Mu, Alpha Chi Omega, Atherton S.W., Delta Delta Delta and Chi Omega comprise league III with league IV's members being the Co-op, Phi Sigma Sigma, Delta Zeta, Sigma Delta Tau, Theta Phi Alpha and Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Atherton N.W. of league III slaughtered Alpha Chi Omega 26-1 Wednesday night. Teamwork and good hitting on the part of the Ath team accounted for the overwhelming score. Pat Hughes and Joan Kronwetter were responsible for batting in four hits apiece for the freshman team.

After a strong start Alpha Xi Delta came through to win 11-9 over Chi Omega. The Chi O's fought back gamely in the third inning but were unable to overcome the strong Alpha Xi's lead. Phi Mu won by forfeit from Delta Delta Delta.

Co-Edits

Delta Delta Delta

Officers of the pledge class of Delta Delta Delta are Patricia Rowland, president; Barbara Claycomb vice-president; Joan Snider, recording secretary; Laura Riley, social chairman; and Sally Johnson, project chairman.

Tri-Delta seniors were recently entertained at a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Harold Read, an alumna.

Delta Zeta

Gamma Delta of Delta Zeta entertained three other chapters at a State Day banquet at the Nittany Lion Inn on Saturday afternoon.

Members of chapters from Bucknell University, the University of Pittsburgh, and George Washington University attended the dinner.

Speaker at the banquet was Mrs. A. K. Anderson, past national president of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Kappa Kappa Gamma's formal dinner was held at the Allencrest, followed by its Spring formal at the Delta Tau Delta house Saturday evening. Jack Huber's orchestra provided the music.

Sigma Pi

Newly elected officers of Sigma Pi Fraternity include: Richard Jones, president; Joseph Breisch, vice-president; William Henderson, treasurer; William Harvey, recording secretary; Robert Gates, alumni secretary; Owen Landon, Herald. Appointed officers are Fred Black, house manager and Charles Wenzel, social chairman.

COOKS
Cooking at See What's

Councils--

eral Arts race. Students elected to senior representative posts are Herbert Arnold, John Boddington, Russell Davis, Dorothy Luft, David Schmuckler, Merrill Sporkin, and Regina Williams.

Newly-elected junior representatives are John Baron, George Duff, Clair George, George Glazer, Murray Goldman, Edwin Lefkowitz, Marilyn Levitt, Frank Lewis, Paul Poorman, Robert Richardson, and Edwin Shanken.

Physical Education

With 120 of approximately 220 eligible students in the School of Physical Education and Athletics voting, Harry Little was elected president and Charlotte McIntire, vice-president of the council. Mary Lou Transue was elected secretary and Stanley Lagonosky, treasurer.

Council representatives are George Emig and Helen Hemphill for the senior class; Barbara Cochran and Peter Sarantopoulos for the junior class; Peggy La-Master for sophomore girls, and Joseph Mirenzi for alumni.

Combined--

(Continued from page one)
The Combined Arts exhibit is on display in the Main Lobby of the Central Library from April 27 to May 14. An exhibit in architecture, fine arts, art education, home art, dramatics, landscape horticulture, dance, and scene design will be featured in Old Main Lounge May 7-14.

Honeymoon
Luxury

The luxury of absolute privacy, in a honeymoon home all your own (automatically heated). The luxury of lie-in-bed mornings (breakfast until 11:00) - the luxury of informality. All these and more cost little at our mountain guest house for newly weds only. Open all year. "Three Honeymoon Plans" and other folders sent if you mention dates.

The Farm on the Hill
SWIFTWATER, PENNSYLVANIA BOX

Nittany Trackmen -

(Continued from page four)
Ron Coder in the pole vault, Tom McDermott and Ralph Body in the discus, Bob Krayer in the shot put and Wil Bertrum in the javelin.

Today's activity will include the 120-yard high hurdles, the quarter mile relay, and the sprint medley.

Horace Ashenfelter, who won the mile title last year in his senior year, will run the Benjamin Franklin Invitation mile. His competition will come from such runners as Fred Wilt, Joe Barry and others.

Ripley Questions -

(Continued from page five)
quiner Meet in Philadelphia.
Penn State's present high jump record, set against Colgate in 1946 by Jim Sykes, 31-year old war veteran, is six-feet five-and-one-half inches.

Fritis has topped this mark many times in practice jumps, but never in formal competition. He's hoping to turn the trick soon - preferably at the Penn Relays this weekend.
He's always wanted to compete in the Quaker City track show. He's always wanted to set a record in his hometown. His coach, Chick Werner, thinks he'll do it.

Jobs with a Future
Secretarial training—the Gibbs way—leads to successful business careers.
Write College Course Dept for catalog

Katharine Gibbs
230 Park Ave., NEW YORK 17 33 Plymouth St., MONTCLAIR
51 E. Superior St., CHICAGO 11 155 Angell St., PROVIDENCE 6
90 Marlborough St., BOSTON 16

STOP

At The

Dixieland Jazz Concert

Music By The

MARDI GRAS JAZZ BAND

BIRMINGHAM FIVE

Sponsored By THE DAILY COLLEGIAN

For "COALY"

SATURDAY 3 P.M. AT THE TUB

TICKETS NOW ON SALE AT
STUDENT UNION—50c