

Golfers West Point Bound; Defend Round-Robin Title

By RUDY MION

An eight-man Penn State golf team left State College for West Point, N.Y., at 7 o'clock this morning to prepare to defend their three-year record as sectional titlists in the annual Eastern Intercollegiate Round-Robin Golf Tournament.

Play will get under way tomorrow afternoon with Coach Bob Rutherford's team facing Army as its first hurdle. The Nittany mentor will put his players through practice sessions this afternoon and tomorrow morning on the Cadet's new course.

The round-robin tourney brings together colleges competing in four different sections. There are four teams to a section.

Winners of the four sections will play at Yale the following weekend in the EIGA finals.

Tomorrow's action will pit Army, Cornell, and Pittsburgh together in competition with the Lions in the section that will provide most of the local interest.

Beat Yale In '48

Past records show Penn State taking the last three round robin tourneys and then going on to take the finals in 1948 from Yale, 9-0, and placing third in 1947 and 1949.

Sporting a record of four defeats against two losses, the Lions will bank on Captain Tom Smith, Ted Robertson, Jim Yerkes, Ray Artz, Pete Kalandiak, Joe Durniak, Alex Munro, and alternate Bob Kunkle.

Rutherford expressed satisfaction with the sharpness of his team on the eve of its departure for the Eastern competition.

"Durniak and Artz have improved upon their last few rounds, and this improvement should be of great help to us. Our weak putting has been definitely improved, but you have to get the breaks.

"Everyone has to be 'on.' This kind of tournament play requires a lot of concentration in order to win."

Deadline

Entry deadline for fraternity and independent IM golf putting, horseshoe doubles and track is 5 p.m. next Tuesday.

Rec Hall Addition To Ease Tieups

Plans for additions to Recreation Hall do not include expansion of seating capacity.

A new wing will be added to the College's physical education plant at a cost of $1,108,000. The allocation is part of the $8,000,000 granted the College recently by the General State Authority.

The new south wing will house additional locker facilities, handball courts and a bowling alley. It will be connected to the main building by a 30 foot passageway and will contain about twelve handball courts and eight bowling alleys.

It is expected that the locker room and shower space will be set aside for varsity athletics. Some limited office space may also be available.

The new wing will help alleviate the overcrowded facilities which College officials have called "hopelessly inadequate."

Bair Blanks Bullets, 7-0, As Lion Batsmen Win 5th

By GEORGE GLAZER

Bill Bair pitched five hit, no-run ball to lead the Lion nine to a 7-0 decision over Gettysburg at Beaver Field yesterday. It was Bair's first win of the season, and the fifth triumph for the Nittanians.

It was not until the sixth inning that State was able to score. Hen Albright flied to center, but Joe Tocci singled to right. Chris Tonery worked George Hare, Bullets' starting pitcher, for a walk.

Bill Hopper strolled to load the bases and Dick Wertz's fly to center scored Tocci with the first run.

Jack Kurty came through with his third straight hit, a single to left, to score Tonery. Kurty was thrown out as he tried to stretch his hit to a double.

Things boiled over again in the seventh. After two were out, Bair singled through third, Albright walked and Tocci sent Albright to third with a single to left, Bair scoring on the play. Albright scored on Bullet's shortstop Dick Wieand's error and Tocci, who had stolen second, advanced on the same play.

Tonery then walked and went to second on second baseman John Jones' miscue, Tocci scoring. Bill Hopper sent Tonery across with a sizzler to center.

Bair's pitching, while somewhat erratic in spots, didn't leave too much to chance. He walked three and struck out three while giving up five hits.

The Lion defense sparkled afield. In the fourth, Dougherty went thirty feet outside the right field foul line to snag Hare's long foul. Harry Little, who figured in two of the three Nittany double killings, was a Fancy Dan around the sack.

Four IM Teams Win Soccer Tilts

Four games were played Tuesday night in the opening round of the intramural soccer tournament. One forfeit and one overtime game marked the play as Phi Gamma Delta took a forfeit decision from Alpha Chi Sigma, and Phi Epsilon Pi eked out a 2-1 overtime win from Phi Kappa Sigma on a corner kick.

In other contests Delta Upsilon took a 1-0 win from Theta Xi, with Tarig Khammash scoring the only goal of the game and Triangle handily took Phi Sigma Delta, 3-0. Sam Axe led the way with three goals.

Middies Hand Netmen First Loss, 8-1, at Annapolis

By LOWELL KELLER

ANNAPOLIS—Navy's veteran tennis team defeated Coach Sherm Fogg's netmen 8 to 1 yesterday afternoon to spoil the visitors bid for a victory in their first encounter away from the Penn State courts.

This afternoon the Lions will move on to College Park to battle the Maryland Terps. The Foggmen will seek their third win of the season. They have now lost one.

In piling up its 8 to 1 advantage, the Middies swept through the singles matches to compile a 6 to 0 advantage. Penn State Captain Owen Landon was the only visiting individual to win a game in the singles event.

State gathered its lone point in the Number 1 doubles as Jim Howells and Dick Wieland edged Navy's Number 1 duo of Jim Wills and Karson, 6-3, 5-7 and 6-1.

In the singles events Hank Goelzer, Navy, beat Jim Howells, 1-6, 4-6; John McGarack, Navy, squeezed by Landon, 4-6, 6-4 and 1-6; Don Haynsworth passed Wieland, 0-6, 2-6; and Wills topped Mark Borland, 2-6, 2-6.

Bill Walls, Nittany 5 man, was upset by the Middies' Jim Organ, 0-6, 1-6 and in the final individual match Dave Meely, Navy, won over Spence Boyer, 4-6, 4-6.

The Number 2 doubles team of State, consisting of Landon and Walls, lost to McGarack and Organ, 3-6, and 2-6, while Boyer and Davis, of Penn State, were beaten by Carter and Gardiner, 1-6, 5-7.

Lacrosse Lettermen

Only four lettermen remain from the Penn State lacrosse team which last year won the mythical State intercollegiate championship. The hold-overs are the captains, Bob Louis, of Philadelphia, and Ed Belfield, of Swarthmore, John Hagerman, of Darlington, and Mervin Snyder, of Harrisburg.

Penn State's ace high jumper, Vic Fritts, of Hatboro, Pa., is a former Pennsylvania schoolboy champion.
