

Blue Band Elects Five New Officers

The Blue Band elected next year's officers Monday night. The men will take over in the Fall.

Hubert Hammond is the new president of the organization. George Black will be manager; Walter Greenawald, assistant manager, and Donald Mattern, secretary.

Raymond Dombrowski, this year's librarian, was reelected to the post.

Senior Gift---

cost only about $25,000, Morgan reported.

Ambulance Needed

James Balog, senior class president, stressed the need for a college ambulance. He announced that, if the ambulance should be chosen as the class gift, the College officials have agreed to furnish housing and maintenance.

The proposed Hall of Fame, which would be established in the new Student Union building, is thought of as a large lounge in which plaques and showcases commemorating outstanding achievements by Penn State students and alumni would be placed.

Delta Zeta

Delta Zeta recently held a pledge dance at the Phi Kappa Tau house. The theme of the dance was April Showers.
