

Art Exhibit To Feature College Students' Work

Schwab Site Of Honorary's Spring Concert

Phi Mu Alpha Symphonia will present its annual spring concert in Schwab Auditorium at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The music honorary's program will include a variety of original works, original arrangements, and standard pieces. The Louise Homer Club, women's music honorary, will be Phi Mu Alpha's guests, and will perform a number in the program.

Program for the afternoon includes the folk tune "Two Sisters," and Moline's Suite for Organ played by organist George Ceiga; Charles' "When I Have Sung My Songs," Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer," and Herbert's "I Want What I Want When I Want It," all sung by baritone Leroy Hinkle, accompanied by Edward Kleyps.

Duo Pianists

Gay Brunner and Kleyps, duo pianists will play "Sunrise to Sunset," an original piece by Jack Huber, president of Phi Mu Alpha's Alpha Zeta Chapter.

The introduction and Romance from Kreisler's "Quartet in A minor" will be played by Allen Beuchner, Theodore Karhan, Ernest Martin, and David McKinley. Baritone Fred Hughes will sing Barber's "Dover Beach." Karhan and Barry Brinsmaid, pianist, will perform Gardner's "Vaqueros," Foster's "Swanee River" arranged by Gardner, and Kochanski's "Flight."

The visiting Louise Homer Club will perform a group of American folk songs. The program will close with three originals played by the Phi Mu Alpha Dance Band. The numbers are Don Smith's "Black on Green," Elmer C. Wareham's "Starlight Dream," and Jack Huber's "Sunshine Fantasy," the last a group of arrangements of "You Are My Sunshine," in the style of various popular bands.

Frank Stafford To Address Phys Ed Dinner

Frank S. Stafford of the United States Office of Education will address the Physical Education School's Student-Faculty Banquet Wednesday.

The dinner will be held in the St. Paul's Methodist Church and will start at 6 p.m. Tickets at $1.60 can be bought from any of the following persons: faculty members Eugene Bischoff, Miss Freda Phillips and Ernest Baer and students Bob Eisentrout, Blanche Eyer, Bill Milhalich, Helen Rusinko, Margaret Warner, Don Watkins, Dick Wertz, and Nancy Worthington.

There will be dancing to records in the gymnasium after the banquet.

Stafford is the specialist for Health Education, Physical Education, and Athletics for the U.S. Office of Education. His speech will be "The Challenge of Health Education."

He has had years of experience as a teacher and director of physical education and athletics. Stafford was educated in Indiana and is presently working on his doctorate at Indiana University.

He has written several books and magazine articles on Physical Education and has served on a number of national groups and committees on health and physical education.

Old Main Lounge Scene of Display

An exhibit of student work prepared by various departments of the College will open tomorrow and continue through the following Sunday, May 14, in the lounge of Old Main. The exhibit is being presented in conjunction with the Combined Arts Festival.

The department of architecture will exhibit models of buildings done by students as projects. These exhibits will include models of a municipal building and a fire station which were designed for State College by students.

A fine arts exhibit will include work in freehand, oils, watercolor, pencil, and charcoal.

Home Scene Featured

Featured in the home-related arts exhibit will be a home scene with furniture and a rug designed by students. The exhibit will also include chairs of different periods.

An exhibit of landscape horticulture will include photostatic copies of a city park problem and a recreational development plan for the College.

Skits and Readings

The department of dramatics will present five-to-fifteen minute skits and readings. Two skits will be presented tomorrow, the first at 4 p.m. and another at 8 p.m. Beginning Monday there will be three shows daily at 12:40 noon, 4:30 p.m., and 8:30 p.m.

The art education exhibit will feature works in sculpturing, graphic techniques, mural painting, and applied design. The latter includes textiles, ceramics, and crafts.

Simmons Series Features Krauss

Dr. Franklin B. Krauss, professor of Latin at the College, will speak on "Philosophy of Vergil and Horace" on Monday at 4:15 p.m. in 121 Sparks.

The lecture is one of the Simmons Series, presented by the the German department in honor of the late Dr. L. V. T. Simmons, former professor and head of the German department.

Dr. Krauss, who completed his undergraduate and graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania and in 1926 studied in Rome, was appointed to the faculty at the College in 1931.

He is the author of "The Omens, Portents, and Prodiges Recorded by Livy, Tacitus, and Suetonius" and has collaborated on the first American edition of Maurice Renard's "La Viper de Luvercy."

Dr. Krauss also has written extensively on classical subjects for magazines.

The lecture will be open to the public.

Free UN Booklet At Student Union

Free copies of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights of the United Nations are available at the Student Union desk in Old Main and at the reference desk of the main library.

The declaration is a statement of principles approved as a common standard of achievement for all peoples and all nations. Although it is not a treaty and therefore imposes no legal implications, it presents a challenge to all mankind to promote worldwide respect for human rights and fundamental freedom.

It was approved by the United Nations-General Assembly in Paris in 1948, by a vote of 48 to 0. Only eight countries abstained from the voting.

Keller Administers Oath To All-College Officers

TED ALLEN, (l), retiring All-College President and Robert Davis, new president, at the open house held in the Ralph Dorn Hetzel Memorial Student Government Room yesterday. The room was officially dedicated following the installation of new officers.

Davis, Jones Kondourajian Take Office

Robert Davis, Harry Kondourajian, and Emerson Jones were inaugurated as officers of All-College Cabinet in a brief ceremony on the steps of Old Main yesterday afternoon. The oath of office was administered by Robert Keller, Tribunal chairman.

Ted Allen, retiring All-College President, welcomed the spectators and expressed his own appreciation and that of All-College Cabinet toward the students for their cooperation during the past year, and he expressed the hope that Davis, newly-elected All-College President, would find the same spirit of cooperation and willingness to work in the coming year.

Kondourajian was sworn in as vice-president, and Jones as secretary-treasurer.

Key Presentation

Wilmer E. Kenworthy, assistant to the president in charge of student affairs, made the presentation of the key to the Ralph Dorn Hetzel Memorial Student Government Room to Davis.

Kenworthy, in his speech, commented on the larger turnout of voters this year and thanked Allen and Cabinet for their work.

Kenworthy, who marked his 13th year at the College last week, was given the honorary title of Dean of Student Affairs by Allen on behalf of the retiring Cabinet.

Open House Held

Davis then invited all students to come to the open house being held in the Student Government room. Refreshments were served to the guests by members of the National Student Association. Guests visited the room during the afternoon.

The weather was excellent for the occasion, the temperature registering about 80 during the ceremonies.

Davis Family Present

Seven members of the Davis family, journeyed here from West Elizabeth to see the ceremonies. They arrived just after Davis had been sworn in by Keller.

The Blue Band began the ceremonies by playing a few numbers.

Late AP News Courtesy WMAJ

Second Protest Sent To Reds

WASHINGTON—The State Department sent a second note to Moscow renewing the charges that only Russia is responsible for the loss of an American plane over the Baltic. The note clearly indicated that the U. S. doesn't expect to push the dispute any further with diplomatic protests.

Marshall Aid Cut

WASHINGTON — The Senate succeeded yesterday in cutting a quarter of a billion dollars from future Marshall Plan Aid. The proposal to cut a full billion was defeated.

McCarthy To Speak

WASHINGTON — Senator Joseph McCarthy will continue his battle for the opening of more FBI files in his speeches over the weekend at Chicago and Janesville, Wis. McCarthy's aides said President Truman's order to open State Department files on 81 State Department names listed by McCarthy is not enough.

Ag Hill Activities....

Cattle Judging Opens Exposition; Special Events to Last a Week

Today marks the opening of the 25th Anniversary Penn State Dairy Exposition with its first event, the dairy cattle judging contest beginning at 10 o'clock in the dairy barn.

Special events during the week will include the milk and ice cream judging contest to be held Monday and Tuesday. Judging by two groups, professional and amateur, will begin at 3:10 p.m. Monday in 4 Dairy Building and will continue Tuesday at 8:00 a.m. in the same room.

Scoring of Samples

Participants will be required to score and criticize eight samples of milk and eight samples of cream.

An ice-cream mold contest is a special feature of this year's show.

Dr. Chester D. Dahle head of the dairy manufacturing department, will judge the various scenes, displays, and objects of ice cream which are being fashioned by students. The entries are made from molds supplied by the College.

Finished products and molds will be exhibited to visitors attending the dairy cattle fitting and showing contest next Saturday afternoon.

Guided Tours

Guided tours of the creamery, raffling of ice cream cakes, and sale of dairy products are in charge of Dean Boyer, Russell Darling, and Charles Rightmire.

The Silver Anniversary is dedicated this year to P. D. Jones, who has charge of dairy cattle and who will complete 34 years of continuous service with the dairy department this fall.

New 'Breeze' Staff

Daniel Pierce, a junior in animal husbandry, has been selected to serve as editor-in-chief of the Ag Hill Breeze, weekly newsletter.

Pierce will replace Charles Zellner, who is currently teaming with Bill Mohn as co-editor of the Farm and Home Program issue of the Penn State Farmer.

Other staff changes are: managing editor, Tom Jurchak; feature editor, Emerson Jones; agriculture editor, Arnold Pennay.

Poultry Inspection Trip

Nine students of Penn State's poultry classes left Monday on a thousand-mile inspection trip of about 20 leading poultry production and processing plants throughout the state.

Prof. Glenn O. Bressler, instructor for the class making the trip, Prof. E. W. Callenbach, head of the poultry faculty, and Bernard W. Kelly, a graduate student, will each be in charge of one of the three cars making the trip. Almost all of the plants to be visited have Penn State alumni either as operators or managers.

Most of the students making the trip are graduating seniors. They include Ray Schar, Carl Anderson, Robert D. Hill, Paul J. Cosgrove, Jr., Paul E. Gingham, Charles E. Zellner, Jay R. McDanel, and Harvey J. Brown.

Wehrli Talk Featured

The Faith Reformed Church will hold a supper 5:30 p.m. tomorrow followed by an address by Dr. Allen G. Wehrli, Chapel Speaker. The meeting is open to the public.

Advanced Air ROTC

Students at the College desiring to enroll in the advanced Air Force ROTC may file applications beginning on Monday at Room 8 in the Armory.

It was erroneously reported in yesterday's Collegian that applications would be accepted today.