

Lion Nine, Mountaineers Tangle in Doubleheader

Netmen Meet Hoyas Here; Seek Third

Hoping to get back on the winning side of the ledger, Coach Sherman Fogg's varsity tennis squad meets Georgetown this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Beaver Field clay.

The Lion netmen, after two straight victories on the home courts, encountered some bad luck on their trip South earlier this week. Navy walloped the netters at Annapolis, 8-1, and the Maryland Terps spirited rally nipped them, 5-4, at College Park.

Captain Owen "Sonny" Landon will play in the lead-off spot, Dick Wieland at number two, Jim Howell, number three, Mark Borland, number four, Spence Boyer, number five, and Ed Davis at slot six.

Howells and Wieland will be State's number one doubles' duo with Landon and either Davis or Boyer number two, and Bill Wood and Davis or Boyer at notch three.

Trackmen Face Tough Spartans

Coach Chick Werner will send his Penn State track squad against one of the finest teams in the nation today.

The Nittany thinclads will go after their first win of the season in a meet with Michigan State this afternoon at East Lansing.

Before leaving State College last night, Coach Werner expressed belief that his boys would give a good account of themselves.

"But for us to win," he said, "our boys will have to turn in better performances than they have ever done before."

The Michigan team is loaded again this year as they have been for the past few seasons. With such men as Warren Druetzler, Bill Mack, Jack Dianetti and Bill Makielski to call on, the Spartans will be tough to top.

Following today's meet, the Lions will return home for a dual match with Navy and a triangular meet with Pittsburgh and W. Virginia.

Colgate had an undefeated season in 1886, when the Maroon team won both games of its first season, and there have been five seasons when the Red Raiders lost one game.

Bair, Rumberger On Hill for State

Hoping to regain the batting eyes they lost somewhere between the game with Gettysburg and the Lafayette fray, the Nittany nine will play a doubleheader with West Virginia this afternoon at Beaver Field. Game time is 1:30 o'clock.

The Mountaineers have a record of four wins and nine defeats. The southerners have lost all their away games this season.

Penn State has won only one game away from Beaver Field, an 8-6 decision over Georgetown at Washington, D.C.

Coach Joe Bedenk would like to see a little better showing at home, too. Of the six home games thus far, four have been wins, with the other two snowing State on the low end of the score.

Probably moundsmen, for the Lions, will be Bill Bair and Dalton Rumberger. Ted Topper will start one game for West Virginia.

Starting lineups:

West Virginia		Penn State
Adams	c	Kurdy
Watson	1b	Wertz
Morton	2b	Tocci
Shura	3b	Little
Zinaich	ss	Tonery
Bonato	lf	Albright
Wiltrout	cf	Hopper
Beasley	rf	Dougherty
Topper	p	Bair or Rumberger

Orange Stickmen Host State Today

Coach Nick Thiel's Nittany lacrossemen take the field this afternoon against the powerful stickmen of Syracuse on Orange's home field.

The Lions will be after their second win of the season while Syracuse will be gunning for win number eight.

The Orangemen, who rank among the cream of the crop in lacrosse circles, point at their defeat of perennially strong RPI as proof of their powers. The Syracuse only defeat came at the hands of another lacrosse powerhouse, Virginia, earlier this season.

In their last outing, the Lions downed Western Maryland, 17-4.

Golfers Advance In Sectional Play

WEST POINT, N.Y., May 5—Penn State passed its first hurdle in defense of its three-year EIGA round-robin golf tourney here this afternoon by defeating Army, 4 to 3.

Army at one time held a three point advantage but wins by Captain Tom Smith, Jim Yerkes, Joe Durniak and Ray Artz gave the Nittany linksmen their winning edge.

Penn State will meet Cornell tomorrow morning and Pittsburgh in the afternoon.

IM Softball Continues

First flight play continued in the intramural softball leagues with four games completed Thursday night.

The Ramblers topped the Foresters, 7-5, in the independent tournament. In the fraternity circuit Phi Epsilon Pi outslugged Kappa Sigma, 12-7, and Alpha Chi Rho edged Sigma Alpha Mu, 12-11, in another slugfest.

Phi Kappa Sigma banged out a 12-8 victory over Theta Kappa Phi after the teams had tied the previous night.

AGR Wins Soccer Tilt

Action in the IM soccer tournament Thursday night saw defending champion Alpha Gamma Rho eke out a narrow 2-1 victory over Alpha Epsilon Pi, the winning marker coming on a penalty kick.

In other games Thursday, Alpha Zeta squeezed by Alpha Sigma Phi, 1-0, and Sigma Nu breezed by Delta Theta Sigma 3-

0. For Alpha Zeta, Mattern scored once in the first. For Sigma Nu, Rosshirt scored one, and Kirk two.
