

Finish-Line Picture Adds Stature to Lanc's Protest

Lion Dashman Disputes Loss

By JOE HUNTER

Did Ben Kreitzberg win? Wilbert Lancaster, Penn State's speed ace, does not think so and intends to submit a formal application of protest to the officials of the 1950 Penn Relay Carnival.

The dispute arose when Asa Bushnell, head judge of the 100-yard dash, declared Kreitzberg, of Penn, the winner in a close finish. No one in Franklin Field was more surprised at the announcement than Lancaster.

"Lanc" was close to tears. "I knew I had won," he said. "I tried to tell them—to ask if they were sure, but they wouldn't listen."

In recounting the dash, "Lanc" said that the track was exceptionally slow. "We were running into a head wind. Kreitzberg got off to a fast start, and I didn't get going until the 60-yard mark. I caught him at 80 yards and was going away when had never won a dash at the I hit the tape."

The sprinter smiled wryly. "I Penn Relays and my first thought as I pulled up was—Thank God, after four years I've finally got myself one."

Upon reporting back to the judges stand he saw a group of Penn students hoisting Kreitzberg to their shoulders.

whose chest the tape is still draped, was declared the winner. The arrow points to the spot where Lancaster broke the tape. Others in the picture are New York University's Harley Lewis (next to Lancaster) and Cornell's Meredith Gourdine.

"I couldn't believe it," Lancaster said. "I asked the judge for confirmation and he just smiled." Lancaster cited the fact that track decisions have been reversed upon presentation of suf-

IM Linksmen In 2nd Round

First round play in the Intramural fraternity golf tournament was completed last week, and the second round is now being played.

First round winners were:

Kappa Sigma over Delta Chi, Sigma Pi over Phi Gamma Delta, Alpha Chi Rho over Alpha Phi Delta, Theta Kappa Phi over Alpha Zeta, Delta Upsilon over Sigma Phi Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon over Alpha Sigma Phi, and Delta Sigma Phi over Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Phi Delta Theta over Pi Kappa Alpha, Phi Epsilon Pi over Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Sigma Delta over Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Tau Delta over Theta Xi, and Sigma Nu over Pi Kappa Phi.

Second round play is to be completed by tomorrow.

The picture shows the broken tape having already been snapped by Lancaster, while remaining intact in front of Kreitzberg. Lancaster admitted that photographs can be deceptive, "but I don't see how you can argue with a broken tape," he added.

Thinclads Here With Navy 2nd Round Pairings Set In All-College Golf Play

Coach Chick Werner's Nittany track team is looking forward to its first home meet of the season Saturday against Navy.

But at the same time the Lion tracksters were looking with satisfaction on last week's battle with Michigan State. The Werner men took one on the chin, but not before they had given the Spartans something to think about.

The performance of Captain Jim Gehrdes was the outstanding feature of the day as far as the Penn State team is concerned. Jumpin' Jim competed in five events and placed in four of them.

Sensational Time

Jim won the 120-yard high hurdles, finished second in the 100-yard dash and the 220 yard low hurdles and third in the high jump. He barely lost the 220 lows as he forced Horace Smith, the winner, to run the event in the sensational time of 22.9 seconds. Jim's appearance in the high jump was his first in collegiate competition.

Teammate and vet sprinter Wil Lancaster chalked up two more wins in his specialties—the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard run. He ran the century in 9.7 and the longer race in 21.6. Wil also placed second in the broad jump giving him 13 points for the day and top honors for the Lions.

Vic Fritts, the high jump artist, captured his second win of the season with a jump of 6' 3". Bill Lockhart came home in front in the 440 yard dash. Bill, who set the Penn State record for the event last year, as a sophomore, ran the distance Saturday in 50.8.

State's other win came in the two mile run in which Bill Ashenfelter and Al Porto hit the tape in a deadheat. Bill also finished third in the mile run, behind the MSC stars, Warren Druetzler and Bill Mack.

The meet was run under very bad conditions. A 40-mile-an-hour wind blew steadily and at times reached gale force. Before the meet began officials were tempted to call it all off.

Tenniseers Open Trip At Colgate

The Lion net team will attempt to stretch its winning streak to three straight games on the road tomorrow and Saturday when they journey to Colgate and Syracuse.

The tenniseers record now stands at four and two, and Coach Sherman Fogg believes that his squad will continue to win after the impressive showing they made Monday against Bucknell.

Owen Landon, Jim Howells, Dick Wieland, Mark Borland, Ed Davis and Spence Boyer will go in the singles.

In the doubles, Howells and Wieland will go in number one, Landon and Davis, number two, and Borland and Boyer will play the third match.

All five flights of the All-College golf tournament finished first round play this week with a few individual exceptions in some flights.

First Flight: Tom Smith and Joe Durniak, Ted Robertson and Pete Kalandiak, Bill Gordon against the winner of the Lamoree-Artz match, and Alex Monro against the winner of the Weaver-Yerkes match.

Flight Two: A. Spinner and Jim Moran, Bob Helfand and Fred Stashak, John Wylie and Jim Mullard, and Don Beal and Bill Brown.

Third Flight: George Schenck and Richard Wilder, Don Eggers and Walt Yahn, Jack Roy and R. Reed, and Dick Hartle and M. Frischberg.

Fourth Flight: A. Goldenberg and the winner of the Gillespie-Meyer match, Harry Isabel and John Frederick, Lewis Stone and Don Orr, and Robert Kolarik and Joe Cook.

In the only match in flight five, Goldstein advanced into the finals with a win over W. Hoffman.

Four Fraternities Post Soccer Wins

Four second-round games were played Tuesday night in the intramural soccer league.

Sigma Phi Sigma took a 2-0 win from Alpha Chi Rho, with Shull and Lapcevic sharing the scoring, and Beta Theta Pi won by the same score over Kappa Delta Rho.

Sigma Phi Epsilon continued on the winning road with a 1-0 victory over Zeta Beta Tau, Fulton scoring, and Pi Kappa Alpha took a forfeit victory from Phi Kappa.
