

Groups Initiate Members, Elect Officers

Labor Relations Students Meet

The organization of an industrial relations group at the College was discussed at a recent meeting of students majoring in labor-management relations.

The purpose of the group would be to bring in speakers from both labor and management to discuss the present day situations and the possibilities in the field today. The establishment of an Employment Exchange Service to place students in industrial relations when they graduate was considered.

George Nyce was elected chairman of the group and Richard Hughes was elected secretary. George Ralston was appointed to draw up a tentative charter.

Membership in the organization is open to anyone majoring in labor-management relations, industrial engineering, or industrial psychology. The next meeting of the group will be announced later.

New LSA Officers To Be Installed

New officers of the Lutheran Student Association who will be installed tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. are president, Raymond Rice; men's vice-president, Don Love; women's vice-president, Ruth Knoebel; secretary, Helen Olshanski; treasurer, Tom Smith; social co-chairman, Emma Lou Bossart and Henry Rappold; worship co-chairman, Ann Light and Ila Learn; athletic chairman, Paul Baumgardner; publication chairman, Luella Heinemann; publicity chairman, Milo Moore; alumni secretary, Lillian Hetager; house manager, Art Meyers. Dr. Ruth Wick, vice-president of Carthage College, will be guest speaker at the service.

A group of Lutheran students will leave the student house at 2 o'clock this afternoon for a cabin party at the Ralph Watts Lodge.

Denham Elected PFTA President

Joseph Denham, junior in education at the College, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Future Teachers of America. The election of PFTA officers took place in Harrisburg at the PFTA second annual convention, May 5 and 6.

There are, at present, 20 college chapters and 28 high school chapters of PFTA in Pennsylvania, which represents a membership of approximately 2500.

Attending the convention from the College were: Lydia Kuharsky, Nicholas Popiak, and George Demshock.

Art Honorary Initiates Seven

Pi Gamma Alpha, honorary art fraternity, recently initiated seven students of the fine arts and education departments. New members are Joyce Fosa, Doris Jean Keller, James McCavitt, Geneva McCloskey, Helen Pond, Anne Umlauf, and Charles H. Wilt.

The new members were honored at a welcoming banquet, and Dr. Harold E. Dickson, professor of fine arts, presented a satire on the ten types of Pennsylvania houses.

Members of the organization are now assisting in the hanging of an exhibit in Old Main lounge in connection with the Combined Arts festival.

ADS to Initiate 17 Tomorrow

Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising fraternity, will initiate 15 advertising majors and two professional members tomorrow evening at the Theta Chi house.

George Steele, advertising director of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and president of the National Newspaper Advertising Executive Association, and Edward Sykes, president of the Sykes Advertising Agency, Pittsburgh, will be initiated as professional members. Edward Sykes Jr., a student at the College, will be initiated the same time as his father.

Charles Eyles, president of the Richard A. Foley Advertising Agency, will be the guest speaker.

Others to be initiated are: Edwin Singel, Wayne Culver, Neil See, Raymond Husted, Henry Hunter, Carl Liachowitz, John Andrews, Jesse Ewig, Claude Di Pasquale, Joseph Lordeman, Owen Landon, Harold Wollin, Mitchell Epstein, and Samuel Vaughan.

Eng Honorary Holds Banquet

Sigma Tau, honorary engineering fraternity, recently held its semi-annual initiation banquet and dance at Wink's Sky Top.

Following a steak dinner the new initiates were introduced to the guests and presented with their keys. The retiring officers were also presented with awards for their work throughout the last year. John Hrivnak was presented with the Sophomore Honor award.

Following the program at which time Ralph H. Wheery, professor of economics at the College spoke, there was dancing with music by the Statemen.

IRC Elects Next Semester's Officers

The International Relations Club elected officers for the first semester of next year at their meeting Wednesday night. Those elected were:

President, Frank Flannelly; vice-president, William Klisanin; recording-secretary, Leonard Kolasinski; corresponding secretary, Robert Bogan; treasurer, Donald Sloughfy.

Hold Annual Banquet Civil Engineers

The local chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers held their annual banquet at the Penn Belle Hotel in Bellefonte Tuesday evening. Ninety students, 19 faculty members, and two engineering mechanics attended.

The following engineering supply houses donated favors: Charles Brunner Co., The Past Co., Pittsburgh Plate Glass, Galion Iron Works, Dietzgen Co., Lutkin Rule Co., Lock-Joint Pipe, L. C. Berger Co., and the Kohinor Pencil Co.

Forestry Group to Hold First Annual Field Day

The Forestry Society will hold its first annual Field Day at Greenwood Furnace tomorrow.

Various contests have been planned. Included are log rolling, wood chopping and sawing, tobacco-spitting for both accuracy and distance, canoe jousting, and many other events. Millard Groben, head of the game committee, announced that winners will receive prizes. Contests will begin at 1 p.m. and transportation will be provided from the Forestry Building.

AIEE, IRE Elect New Officers

At a recent meeting of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Institute of Radio Engineers, new officers were elected for the coming year. These officers are John Stanzone, chairman; Donald Gibble, vice-chairman; Robert Funk, secretary; Vito Angerson, treasurer; Lee Barnett and George Armbruster, corresponding secretaries; and Bernard Martz, representative to Engineering Student Council. Prof. A. P. Powell and Prof. C. R. Ammerman were elected student counselors.

William E. Shaw, a senior in electrical engineering at the College, has won honorable mention in the American Institute of Electrical Engineers' prize paper competition. Shaw, who recently won first prize at the College for his paper on "Transistors," went to Lafayette College, Easton, where he was in competition with 17 other schools.

Graduate Club Names Chairmen

The Graduate Club elected four co-chairmen to direct its program for the rest of the semester at a recent social gathering. They are Marian Armstrong, John Gerstenlauer, Warren Ruhle and Barbara Wright.

The group's regular Saturday evening social program of dancing, games and refreshments, will be held in the Hugh Beaver room in Old Main.

Still in its formative stage, the Graduate Club is a social organization open to graduate students, and faculty and staff members.

Electrical Engineering Honorary Initiates

Epsilon chapter of Eta Kappa Nu, national electrical engineering honorary fraternity, held its annual Spring initiation and banquet on April 12. The following men were initiated: Ralph Armington, Ray Anderson, Vito Angerson, Earl Ash, Justus Barber, Armond Bisignani, James Bradford, Terence Caffrey, Albert Christie, Anthony Dinardo, Robert Funk, Kenneth Horple, Donald Hetrick, George Huemrich, Richard Jung, Frederick Kramer, William Moyer, Vincent Ricci, Samuel Sillaman, John Skooglund, William I. Smith, John Stanzone, Wilson Smith, Fred Thompson, and Ralph West.

Leinbach Is Elected Thespian President

Harold Leinbach was elected president of Thespians at a recent meeting held by the organization. The remaining officers for the following year are: Joel Kranick, vice-president; Lawrence Giancola, secretary; Robert Reed, treasurer; and Nicholas Morkides, historian. Harry Voolever was elected to the board of control.

'Farmer' Gives Key Awards

Loren E. Donelson, associate editor of Farm Journal, was the principal speaker at the first annual banquet of the Penn State Farmer held recently.

Gold keys were presented to the following seniors for outstanding work on the magazine: Harry Schaeffer, editor-in-chief; Louis Plock, managing editor; George Teel, layout editor; Ernest Yocum, assistant circulation manager, and Thomas Payne, agricultural engineering department writer.

Shingles were given to the following staff members for outstanding work: Walter Barmont, Harold Birch, Frank Blanchard, Winfield Boyd, Jr., Donald Casel, Sarah Chinn, Roger Coburn, Lawrence Drabick, Lorraine Dreisbach, John Early, John Eby, Robert Eshleman Jr., Robert Free, John Gant, Carl Gerhart, John Geyer, Marian Harmsen, Frank Hogeland, Bridget Hollen, Darlene Hoover, Carroll Howes, Marjorie Land, Donald Lechner, Alan Lehman, David Martin, Lewis Mayhe, James McFarland, Edward Merkel, Merlin Miller, Elizabeth Nutter, Elmer Osborne, John Real, Charles Rightmire, George Rosenkranz, Robert Roulston, Alvin Saylor, Paul Shogren, James Shull, Anthony Stemberger, Howard Swavely Jr., George Teel, Lena Thomas, Harold Waddell, Charles Wilson, Richard Witmer, and Ernest Yocum.

Poultry Club Officers

Charles Zellner was recently elected to replace Carl Anderson as president of the Penn State Poultry Club.

Other officers are Robert Vorp, vice-president; Bridget Hollen, secretary; and Robert Woodward, treasurer. Plans are being made for a picnic May 27.

Chemical Society Initiates 29 Men

Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemical society, recently initiated 17 graduate and 12 undergraduate men. The graduate students are A. S. Beward, Joseph Bryner, C. A. De Fazio, Manuel Dell, John Dorsey, R. J. Foresti, Jr., Donald Gillmore, Frederick Lorenz, Jr., Alpha Morehouse, Charles Nevin, James Palmer, Carl Pitha, Harold Reynolds, Jr., Joseph Slakas, Robert Thompson, Phillip Walker, Jr., and Rolf Weil.

The undergraduate students are Henry Albright, Jr., Charles Brockmiller, Herschel Browne, Charles Dix, John Folk, Frederick Krug, Edward Lesnefsky, Robert Miller, Walter Pudlakiewicz, Carl Rhoads, Joseph Solis, and Clarence Whitlow, Jr.

These men will be guests at a banquet to be given tomorrow, following the Priestley Lecture Series.

Phi Mu Alpha Picks Leaders

Phi Mu Alpha, men's music honorary, elected officers for the coming semester Wednesday night.

John Huber was reelected president. New officers are Darrell Rishel, vice-president; Bruce Bailey, secretary-treasurer; Raymond Dombroski, historian, and Donald Mattern, warden.

Faculty members elected to posts were Theodore K. Karhan, national council, and Hummel Fishburn, alumni treasurer.

The following men recently were initiated into the chapter: Eugene Brubaker, Paul Steingard, Leo Curto, Morris Youngdahl, Robert Tinsman, Charles Oerkvitz, Grant Thompson, George Black, Ernest Skipper, Leroy Hinkle, Edward Kleypis, Jack Reen, Jack Longnecker, Howard Clauss, Don Yenke, David Mavere.

Gene Magill, Lane Riland, Ronald Messersmith, Ernest Martin, Nelson Miller, John Shoening, Lindy Bortolotto, Anthony Lordi, Charles Swartz, Frederick Brayn, Robert Porter, Donald Storch, Eugene Stohn, Edward Reider, Charles Miller, William Ray and Richard Laher.

ASME Heads Introduced

New officers were formally introduced at the annual banquet of the Penn State student chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers held recently at Wink's Sky-Top. They are: President, Donald Hackenberry; vice-president, Frederick Schulze; secretary, Charles Bert; treasurer, Albert Kovar; and council representative, James Gresh.

Victor Leshock, president during the past year, was presented an award for outstanding service.

Guest speaker of the evening was Professor H. P. Zelko of the speech department.

James Craig Heads

James B. Craig Jr., vice-president of Nittany Printing and Publishing Co., has been elected chairman of the State College Community Forum series for 1950-51. Craig was chosen by delegates of the 19 organizations that support the Forum.

Do You Know . . . the

MOYER WATCH SHOP

is now located at
105 S. PUGH STREET

NOW PLAYING

"The Younger Brothers"

in Technicolor
with
Wayne Morris — Janis Paige

SUNDAY & MONDAY

"Task Force"

with
GARY COOPER
JANE WYATT
WAYNE MORRIS
WALTER BRENNAN

STARLIGHT DRIVE-IN THEATRE

ROUTE 545—between
Bellefonte & State College

Don't miss the . . .

Poultry Club Show Today

See

- Caponizing Demonstrations
- Chicken-in-the-Bottle
- Embryonic Development
- Hamster Display

Buy

• Feathered Flowers

• Margo Turkey Sandwiches

TENT LOCATED BETWEEN
PATTERSON HALL and STOCK PAVILION

DANCE

at

PARADISE CAFE

110 S. SPRING ST., BELLEFONTE, PA.

Every Wednesday and Friday—9 to 12

Shrimp
Good Foods

Excellent Beverages
Wonderful Service